

Memories of the Horse and Buggy Days

THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

What is Going on in the Parishes outside Rochester.

The funeral of the late Michael Malone, of Waterloo, took place from St. Mary's church, in that village, on Sunday morning last.

The LeRoy correspondence of the Rochester Democrat of a recent date contained the following:

"Since the opening of the new Catholic parochial school at LeRoy, the attendance at the district schools has decreased considerably, which will make a considerable difference in the amount of school money to be received from the state during the next school year. The East avenue school has lost the most pupils and Myrtle street school the least."

A total abstinence society has been organized at St. Patrick's church, Dansville, with the following officers: Thos. E. Gallagher, Pres.; T. J. Daugherty, Secy.; John Perry, Treas.

As soon as the new church at Geneseo is finished the Catholic society will hold a fair.

The new bell at the Church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Brockport, is being blessed by Bishop McQuaid this morning. This afternoon it will be hung. Sunday it will be rung for the first time for the beginning of the mission which will commence that day, under the direction of two Redemptorist fathers, one from Detroit and one from New York. Both are known to be able speakers.

It is thought that the new St. Mary's Church at Waterloo will be finished and ready for occupancy about the middle of November. The carpenters are now busily engaged in putting on the wooden ceiling overhead. The pews, which have been constructed at Northville, Mich., will soon be placed. The altars are being made at Rochester.

St. Anna's Catholic Church at Palmyra will hold its sixteenth annual fair in the Palmyra Union Agricultural Society's building, Wednesday evening, October 16th. The building will be handsomely furnished and decorated. Refreshments will be served in the evening, and the Zonobia Cornet Band will give a concert at 7 o'clock.

Catholic Society Notes.

The report of the finance committee of the the New York Grand Council of C. M. B. A., shows that they have examined the books, accounts and vouchers of Grand Secretary Cameron, and Grand Treasurer Charles J. Ball and found them correct.

The following is a summary of money received and disbursed by the Grand Secretary during the year ending July 1, 1889:

Beneficiary Fund received... $146,291.19
Beneficiary Fund on hand July 1, '88... 1.00

No reports have been received by the committee from Branches 6, 10, 18, 22, 53, 57, 75, 91, 94, 103, 114, 122 and 132. Since this is required by the constitution, the failure to make these reports is to be regretted, and such missing reports should be forwarded to the committee to be compared at its next meeting.

The balance in the General Fund as shown by Grand Treasurer C. J. Ball's account is the sum of $3,820.10, to which the Grand Treasurer has added the interest allowed him by the bank during the year, $72.70, making a total of $3,892.80, which amount we find is on deposit in the bank. This is the first instance on record of the association having received interest from any of its treasurers.

The committee also examined the Reserve Fund account and the vouchers and securities belonging to, and found it standing as follows:

Am't in fund per last annual report... $8,238.96

Bal. in bank (Loan, Trust and Safe D. Co.), bearing 4 per cent... 93.18

$16,493.18

The committee recommended that hereafter no loans be granted for any less than 5 per cent and also suggested to the Board of Trustees the advisability of calling in at the expiration of the year the loans made at 4 per cent and reinvesting the same at 5 per cent.

The report is signed by Joseph S. Baecher, Eugene Bertrand, Jr., and Frank J. Stabel.

At the meeting of the reunion committee of the C. M. B. A., secretary and treasurer Charles Bayer brought in his report, showing that the reunion at Glen Haven on August 22nd, was a great success, both financially and fraternally. Votes of thanks were accorded to the Glen Haven railroad company, Leon Massonnat, proprietor of the Glen Haven hotel and Charles Bayer, secretary and treasurer, for his indefatigable efforts to make the reunion a success.

Brother Charles B. Ernst of Branch 81, C. M. B. A., is developing into quite an orator.

OCTOBER DEVOTIONS.

Prayer to St. Joseph to be Recited Daily.

In the encyclical letter of his Holiness, Pope Leo XIII, issued Aug. 15th, in addition to the decree of Aug. 18th, 1885, in which he commands that every year from the first day of October to the second of the following November, in all parochial churches of the Catholic world, and in all public oratories dedicated to the Mother of God, or even others to be chosen by the Ordinary, at least five decades of the Rosary of Mary, with the Litany of Loretto, be recited daily; and if it be in the morning that Mass be celebrated during the prayers; if in the afternoon, the Blessed Sacrament be exposed for adoration, and Benediction duly given, the following passage occurs:

WE DEGREE THAT THROUGH THE WHOLE MONTH OF OCTOBER

at the Recitation of the Rosary, which we have formerly established, a prayer to St. Joseph be added, the formula of which accompanies these letters, and this practice shall maintain forever at this season of the year. To those who devoutly recite this prayer we grant an indulgence of seven years and seven quarantines.

To thee, O Blessed Joseph, do we fly in our tribulation, and after imploring the help of thy Most Holy Spouse, we ask confidently for thy protection. We beseech thee by that affection which united thee with the Immaculate Mother of God, and by the paternal love with which thou hast encircled the Child Jesus, and suppliant we pray that thou mayest regard with benignant eye the heritage which Jesus Christ has won by His blood, and that thou mayest aid us in our necessities by thy power and help.

Protect, O Most Provident Guardian of the Divine Family, the elect race of Jesus Christ, banish from us, O most loving Father, all plague of error and corruption; do thou, our strongest support, assist us from the height of Heaven with thy efficacious help in this struggle with the powers of darkness; and as formerly thou didst rescue the Child Jesus from the greatest danger to His life, so now defend the Holy Church of God from the treachery of her enemies and from all adversity, and cover each one of us with thy lasting protection, so that, following thy example and supported by thy help, we may be able to live holily, die piously, and obtain eternal happiness in Heaven. Amen!

First Premium Pianos.

The display of high class pianos conducted by Foster, Hennessy & Co., in the annex to Domestic Hall continued to be the chief attraction in that quarter yesterday. Few if any of the exhibits were so thoroughly enjoyed by the general class of visitors.

This was caused largely yesterday by the added attraction of the artistic playing upon the instruments by Mr. John Francis Gilder of Boston. Classical selections and popular air entertained all who could get within the sound of the playing, and the quarters assigned to the exhibit proved much too small.

The Celebrated
