LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

A large class is preparing for First Communion at St. Mary's.

Thomas Sheehan, of Philadelphia, paid Rochester a visit Wednesday.

City Attorney Chas. B. Ernst is confined to his home by illness.

John Schwakake fell from the roof of St. Mary's hospital Monday and died from his injuries.

Bishop McQuaid will give ordinations at Troy Theological Seminary Saturday, May 23.

Ferdinand Schlegel, the well-known South avenue florist, was struck by an electric car Tuesday, and died of his injuries Thursday night.

Mother Aloysius was one of the pioneers of St. Joseph's congregation, having been thirty-five years in religion.

Letters of regret were received from Revs. P. Lee, Clifton; James F. O'Connor, Seneca Falls; Thomas O'Connell, Ovid; D. English, Canandaigua; Very Rev. Dean Seymour, Auburn, and many others.

The "Catholic Literary" will meet at its rooms in the Durand block Monday evening. The quotations will be from "Bulwer." An interesting programme has been arranged. The last meetings of the season will be held Monday evening, June 1st.

Michael Reagan, Edward Murphy, Joseph Mellne, John H. Fennelly, John Daly, John Finnegan, and John N. Coughlin, of Fall River, Mass., were in the city Thursday, inspecting Rochester's electric railway system. They were royally entertained by the officers of the local company.

Sunday morning the Forty Hours' Devotion opened at the Church of the Holy Apostles. The devotions were largely attended and many approached the sacrament of Penance and received Holy Communion. Father Murphy was assisted in his labors by most of the city priests. Wednesday morning the devotion closed with high mass.

Rev. J. H. Stewart, rector of St Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Europe. His parishioners were glad to see his genial face again last Sunday and pleased to learn that he is improved in health. Last Sunday Father Stewart had been twenty years pastor of St. Mary's, and his congregation pray that he may be spared twenty years more to them.

Yesterday afternoon Arbor Day exercises were held at Genesee Valley Park in which the children of the parochial and public schools participated. Trees were planted and dedicated. Brief addresses were made by Dr. E. M. Moore and Prof. Morey. W. C. Barry represented the Park Commission on the committee of arrangements.

In an interview, Monday, with a Post-Express reporter, Bishop McQuaid said: "I never said any thing against the Land League in my life or did I ever knowingly do anything to injure it. I did, however, denounce the secret societies that were trying to undermine and destroy it, and have in a great measure succeeded in their purpose. Further than that I never went."

Through the personal solicitation of Alderman J. Miller Kelly, Superintendent Voorhees has ordered a special train to be run on the Central, leaving Fairport at 6:10 p. m., in order that the employees of the P. Cox Shoe M'f'g Co. residing in Rochester, may not have to wait for the train reaching here at 8:05 p. m. The employees have adopted votes of thanks to Messrs. Voorhees and Kelly.

Last Wednesday evening was Literary evening at the Catholic Young Men's Association rooms of St. Joseph's Church at which a splendid program was carried out as follows: Violin solo, E. Reichert; recitation, R. Weinfahrt; remarks on "stage fright," Geo Bauer; violin and guitar duett, E. Reichert and F. Hauner; debate, "Are Catholics allowed to Participate in Lynching," C. Gerstner, H. J. Heisiem; banjo solo, W. Meier; humorous sketch, J. Ott. The meeting was well attended and an unqualified success. This was the first of a series of monthly gatherings of like tenor, and the success of it bespeaks a bright outlook for the club.

Bishop McQuaid preached a strong, pointed and practical sermon at high mass in St. Patrick's Cathedral last Sunday. His subject was "scandal." He spoke of the great sin of scandal and its effect being measured by the quality of the scandal and the position occupied by the one through whom scandal came. He then touched upon the scandal given by Catholics who belonged to secret societies. He also alluded to the great scandal given in the Irish struggle for Home Rule by the secret societies, and plainly told his hearers they must have nothing to do with secret societies, especially with the Irish revolutionary societies.

The death of Charlie Gaffney was briefly noted in last week's JOURNAL. The deceased [illegible] friends. But eighteen years old, it seemed a pity that his life should be cut short ere yet he had attained manhood's years, but He "who doeth all things well" thought otherwise, and the afflicted relatives bow in humble submission to His will. We tender the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters our sincerest sympathy and ask all our readers to pray for the soul of the lamented deceased.

MONTH'S MIND MASS.

In Memory of Mother Aloysius Hendrick of the Congregation of St. Joseph, Buffalo.

A month's mind mass for the repose of the soul of Mother Aloysius Hendrick, of Buffalo, sister of Father Hendrick of St. Bridget's, this city, was held at St. Bridget's church Thursday morning. The following clergymen assisted in the mass: Rev. Joseph W. Hendrick, Livonia, celebrant; Rev. Daniel Walsh, Buffalo, deacon; Rev. A. M. O'Neil, Phelps, sub-deacon. Rev. John J. Donnelly, of Victor, one of the early pupils of the deceased, acted as master of ceremonies.

Miss Aggie Madden presided at the organ. She was assisted in the singing, by St. Bridget's choir. A vocal solo, at the offeratory, was very finely rendered by Miss Julia O'Connor.

In the sanctuary were the following clergymen of this city: Very Rev. James F. O'Hare, V. G.; Revs. J. P. Stewart, M. R., St. Mary's; J. P. Kiernan, of the Cathedral; T. C. Murphy, Holy Apostles; Angelo Lugero, F. O'Hanlon, J. E. Hartley, John H. Hopkins. The following clergymen from out of town were also in the sanctuary: Very Rev. Thomas Brougham, Batavia; Very Rev William McDonald, Geneva; Revs C. McGrath, Portage; William Hughes, East Bloomfield; William Casey, Palmyra; Martin Hedrick, Avon; Simon Fitzsimons, M. R., Lima; William Morrin, Cato; William Mulheron, St. Mary's, Auburn; Geo. Eisler, Caledonia; James H. Day, Dansville; J. T. Dougherty, Stanley.

Vault for Storing Furs

We have just completed our new fire, moth and burglar proof vault for storing fur garments for the summer, and can truthfully state that our facilities for storing furs and seal garments are the best in Western New York, and our rates for storage are very low.

We Say Nothing

But buyers say we are on top of the heap with puff bosoms, negligee and fine dress shirts. MENG & SHAFER.

Exclusive men's furnishing goods, No. 206 East Main street, opposite the Whitcomb House.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success.

The new hat factory is doing a tremendous business. Plenty there were who predicted a failure, but the works have just started on fall orders from western buyers, and it is already demonstrated that the working force must be doubled to fill the orders that have been given and in prospect. This is encouraging to the managers. A full line of the better and most stylish grades of these hats are on display and for sale in the retail department of the Kenyon Hat and Fur Co., 140 East Main street. Call for them. Prices less than other makes.

Money Saved

By using the celebrated Culross butter crackers, as they are manufactured from the purest ingredients. No acids or chemicals are used in the manufacture of our goods. Bakeries 30 and 499 State street.

GLEN HAVEN.

The Favorite Resort for Family, Church and Society Picnics.

The season for excursions and picnics will soon be at hand and already arrangements are being perfected for picnics the coming summer.

There is one spot near at hand convenient of access, beautiful as can be imagined, in fact the ideal spot for a family, church or society picnic. We refer, of course, to Glen Haven. No other picnic ground possesses all these advantages. Already Glen Haven has donned its summer dress and is well worth a visit.

It is needless and superfluous to speak here of the beautiful scenery witnessed along the ride to this delightful spot, or to dilate upon the charming outlook Glen Haven presents when reached. Words fail to describe its many attractive points. But we must say this much and we know every one who has ever been at the Glen will bear us witness. That is for natural scenery and picturesqueness Glen Haven stands unsurpassed. Neither is it necessary for us to say anything about the Glen Haven railway. Any one who has ever enjoyed a trip over its line knows how excellently its train service is arranged, how courteous and polite are its employees, and how much real pleasure and comfort one enjoys while taking the short ride to Glen Haven. If any one doubts our assertions, let him take an East Main street car and betake himself to the depot, board a train, ride to Glen Haven and be convinced. Sunday trains run every half-hour from 2 p. m. The last train leaves Glen Haven at 10 p. m. Week day trains run hourly after 9 a. m.

Be sure and take the Glen Haven route for Bay View, Newport, Birds and Worms, Drake's Landing. You will find it the shortest and cheapest.

When you are arranging for a picnic be sure and go to Glen Haven. It has four large groves, with swings and pavilions in each. A new base-ball ground is being laid out. Comfortable seats are ranged along the beautifully shaded walks. No better place could be found, while the fishing is par excellence. Bay steamers are leaving constantly to take the picnicker to the points of interest on Irondequoit bay. A fine orchestra will render selected music of a high order every Monday.

Just a word to Catholic societies and parochial schools. If you propose holding a picnic this season be sure and obtain rates from the excursion management of Glen Haven. If he can't make figures to suit you no body can. The C. M. B. A. re-union has been held at Glen Haven twice and both were marked successes. In view of these precedents, we are sure many Catholic society picnics will take place at Glen Haven. It cannot be otherwise.

If you wish to take your family on an informal picnic, by all means go to Glen Haven. The grounds are so spacious that you can be by yourselves if you wish, and not brush up against Tom, Dick and Harry, as you do in large watering places.

Arrangements can be made by addressing A. F. Raveret, excursion agent Glen Haven R. R. Co., 18 West Main street, Powers block. Telephone 673.

Your Health

By allowing your family to eat crackers or bread made with acids you are doing them a great injury. Use only the purest of baked goods, such as are made by the Culross bakeries. Their celebrated butter crackers have no equal for purity and quality. Try them. Bakeries 30 and 499 State street.

Moore's Leaders

We claim that our $2.50 and $3.00 shoe for gentlemen is the best in the world for the money. You can surely make a saving of $1.00 on every pair. Call and look at them. Genuine calf skin in all new shapes and styles.

America's Greatest Railroad.

The Central Hudson Management has been increasing the number of fast trains equipped with magnificent new coaches and sleeping cars until to-day their train servies and equipment is so near perfection as to accommodate everybody. Ten magnificent trains per day traverse the empire state besides numerous accommodation trains stopping at local stations. Accommodations in parlor and sleeping cars and all kinds of information in reference to railroads gladly given at the City Office, No. 11 East Main Street, (Wilder Bldg), or at the Central Avenue station. For reduced rates—for Sunday School and other excursions apply to J. C. Kalbfleisch, City Passenger Agent, No. 11 East Main street.

THE EX-PRESIDENT WELCOMED.

Mr. Cleveland is Made to Enjoy Himself at His Old Home.

BUFFALO, May 12.—The reception which Grover Cleveland has met during his visit to Buffalo is one of which the ex-president can justly feel proud. His visit here was on an invitation extended to him by the German Young Men's association to be present at the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization, and to take part in the elaborate exercises. Last evening Mr. Cleveland delivered the address at Music hall to a crowd that filled the immense building to its utmost capacity. His remarks were full of interest, and Music hall was made to ring with applause many times during the half hour or so occupied in delivering the address, which was a review of the history of the association from the time of its organization until the present day.

After the exercises at Music hall were brought to a close the ex-president was escorted by a committee to the Iroquois, where a grand reception was awaiting him. A large crowd of Mr. Cleveland's old friends were present to greet him and do him honor. After an address of welcome by Mr. Milburn Mr. Cleveland delivered an address, in which he thanked his friends for the courtesies shown him and assured them that the pleasant relations which had existed between him and the people of Buffalo for the last thirty years would not soon fade from his memory. The reception was a highly enjoyable affair, and was taken part in by nearly 200 of Mr. Cleveland's most intimate Buffalo friends.

The Reception Yesterday.

BUFFALO, May 13.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland visited the mayor's office yesterday and was given a reception by the citizens of Buffalo. The large room looked bright and cozy and every arrangement was made to make the reception as informal and friendly as possible. The decorations in the room were the stars and stripes which were draped gracefully around the portrait of the ex-mayor. The details of the reception were carefully carried out, the affair being managed by Mayor Bishop and his secretary, John W. Fisher.

At the conclusion of the reception Mr. Cleveland was driven to the City club where he was the guest of Franklin D. Locke at lunch. A score of his old Buffalo friends also sat down to table with him.

Want it Reported Quickly.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 14.—The government has given strict orders to the port authorities on the Pacific coast to report the appearance of any Chilian or other warships. The opinion is general here that the Itata and her convoy will double on the Charleston. It is rumored here that a fishing schooner saw two vessels off the coast yesterday sailing at full speed, one at 10 a. m. and the other at 2 p. m. Those on board the fishing vessel were unable to distinguish them.

Pope Leo's Blessing.

BALTIMORE, May 14.—The annual reunion and banquet of the alumni of North American college of Rome was held here yesterday. Cardinal Gibbons presided over the meeting, and a telegram was read, conveying the congratulations and blessing of Pope Leo.
