

LOCAL HAPPENINGS. SS. PETER AND PAUL'S.

October devotions are held at the Cathedral every evening during the month of October at 7:30 p.m.

Last Sunday afternoon there was a large meeting of St. Mary's Rosary, Scapular and Altar society, at which new cards were distributed.

Father Stewart said to the people of St. Mary's on last Sunday after the Seminary collection, that owing to the inclemency of the weather, many were absent from Mass who would contribute if present.

In the list of parochial schools published in last week's JOURNAL, the number of pupils was, through a typographical error, stated to be 3,000. It should have read 7,000.

"The Pickpockets of Paris" and "The Apabian Nights" will be the attractions at the Grand and Academy next week.

PERSONALS.

A. Arthur Hughes, son of M. L. Hughes, is progressing nicely in his studies for the priesthood, at Troy Seminary.

Rev. T. F. Hickey of Morava was in the city this week and honored the JOURNAL office with a visit, leaving behind him substantial proofs of his regard.

Dr. Buckley has returned from the Thousand Islands, Cards are out for the wedding of Michael H. Shea and Miss Lucy McFarlin.

Bishop McQuaid has appointed Jacob Staub assistant to Father Oberholzer, pastor of the Church of the Holy Redeemer.

Miss Ellen McBride, daughter of John McBride of Greece, and Daniel Burns of this city, were united in marriage at St. John's church, Greece, at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

NECROLOGICAL RECORD.

Mrs. Ann Clinch, aged 63 years, died on Tuesday last at the City Hospital, after a long and painful illness, borne with Christian fortitude and patience.

John V. Naber died on Friday evening at his mother's residence, 120 Chatham street, aged 21 years.

Martin A. Schultheis died on Saturday morning at his home, 80 North Clinton street, aged 32 years.

A death that saddened the hearts of many in this city occurred at Albany on Sunday last. It was that of May Cecelia Hurly, wife of John T. Tracy, brother of Alderman W. H. Tracy of this city.

Opening of the Young Men's Hall.

On Thursday evening, the young men's hall at SS. Peter and Paul's was formally opened. Rev. Fathers Sinclair and Ege have labored hard for the erection of the hall and the institution of the association, and at last have the satisfaction of seeing their labors crowned with success.

The new organization started with 36 actual members. The following officers were elected: President, Peter May; vice-president, Mr. Wehle; recording secretary, Adam Smith; financial secretary, Henry Brayer; and treasurer and treasurer, Rev. John Ege.

The quarters are most capacious. On the first floor are a spacious billiard room and bowling alley; the latter is 90 feet long and the distance from the place of bowling to the first pin is 70 feet, thus giving a leeway of 20 feet.

Father Ege hopes soon to increase the membership to one hundred, and it is to be hoped his efforts will be successful.

BLESSING OF THE GRAVES.

The blessing of the graves, at Holy Sepulcher cemetery will take place tomorrow afternoon. If the weather is fine, it is expected that a great number will witness this beautiful ceremony.

AT CATHEDRAL HALL.

Last evening the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. took place at Cathedral hall. The following officers were elected:

President, Dr. Joseph Crowley; First Vice-President, B. F. Martin; Recording Secretary, D. J. Monaghan; Corresponding Secretary, M. FitzGerald; Financial Secretary, J. F. Rork; Treasurer, F. J. Nugent.

A vote of thanks to the retiring officers was adopted. Father Kiernan appealed to the members to the association to show their interest in the association by regular attendance at the meetings and by availing themselves of the privileges of the rooms.

AT THE CATHEDRAL.

Instructive Sermon by Bishop McQuaid Last Sunday.

Last Sunday was the feast of the Holy Rosary. Solemn High Mass was celebrated at the Cathedral by Rev. J. P. Kiernan. The Rt. Rev. Bishop occupied his throne and preached the following sermon:

Today is celebrated the feast of the Most Holy Rosary. To some the multiplication of holy days devoted to Mary may seem strange, but if looked at fairly seems far different.

After touching on the simplicity of the form, the Bishop graphically described the help the Rosary was to the sinner.

The JOURNAL is pleased with the reception it has received and hopes it will continue. We hope to see the JOURNAL in every Catholic family in the Rochester diocese.
