Picnic, Camping Trip Slated For Squires

Culminating activities for the Spring Season, Bishop O'Hern Memorial Circle No. 116, Columbian Squires, conferred the Squire Degree upon a class of candidates headed by Richard Hoveson, John Ryan, Frederick Sarkis and Charles Wall.

The Rochester Degree Team, under direction of Chief Squire Bernard Bemisch, included Deputy Squire Eugene Keating; Notary Squire Walter Foss; Bursar Squire Paul R. Bray, Marshal John Granger, Jr., Captains John Geisler and Ottavio Fozzi.

The degree was followed by a banquet. Entertainment consisted of a floor show, a skit by Squires, and a group of selections by the Squire glee club. Chief Squire Bemisch gave the principal address for the Squires and Chief Counselor W. H. Wentworth spoke for the Counselor Staff. Newly initiated Squires Charles Wall and Frederick Sarkis responded in behalf of the class.

Summer activities are now being arranged and include a trip to Cobourg on July 26; the annual picnic August 9 and a camping trip during the weeks of August 16 to 30.

During the summer months the regular meetings will be held on Wednesday evenings at 8:30 P. M. in the club rooms.

Following Squires have been nominated for officers for the ensuing season:

Chief Squire, Paul R. Bray; Deputy Chief Squire, Eugene Keating, Notary Squire, Charles Wall; Bursar Squire, Frederick Sarkis; Marshal, John Granger, Jr.; Captain, John Geisler; Captain, John Ryan.

Getting On In The World

CATS AND CATS.

The varieties are many, but they all belong to the same family. Struck speechless by insult, fancied or real, implied or impish, all of them catch their breath in a hurry and the contest is on—smart repartee, clever digs, sly innuendoes, and curt aspersions. Bad enough, these things, among the principals, and extremely small and foolish concessions to human pride and vanity. But worse they are when warmed over for some bored or interested listener.

"I said—and she said — and I said—etc., etc., etc."

If only the gild tongued ditto folk who indulge in this kind of nonsense could hear themselves, a single blush might be inadequate to cover their confusion. Honestly, cat-talk sounds terrible, no matter how right you are, or how right you think you are.

I know, I know—it's great stuff among the big shots in the radio, writing and movie trade—that is, some people think so. And lots of people are great imitators. Lots are unthinking pursuers of will-o-the-wisps. Many would rather be cuttingly clever than kindly silent. Many would rather be stunningly smart than decently truthful. Many would rather be temperamental nitwits than humbly charitable.

And, brother, sister, you 14 to 40-year-old brats who haven't grown up yet and don't intend to, you may not know it, but you're the most boring people on earth. A drunk, a bum, a robber, a killer—there is always some hope for the likes of these, but for catty people, so smug in their own world of smooth vapidity, hope without the jolt and jar of a radical transformation of character is wistful.

CONVENT FOR HIGH SCHOOL NUNS ACQUIRED IN N. Y.

NEW YORK. — The Catholic High School Association, Archdiocesan agency which supervises nine high schools located in Manhattan and the Bronx, with an enrollment of 3,800 students, has acquired the Women's University Club as a convent for the 8 Sisters of Charity who teach in the Cathedral High School for girls. These Sisters formerly lived in convents located in various parts of the city which will now be discontinued and disposed of. The building will be known as the Cathedral Convent—Dr. Michael E. O'Donovan Memorial—as a tribute to a great benefactor of Catholic education.

Wings Open In Double-header

Another popular Sunday afternoon double-header will open a five-game series between the Rochester Red Wings and the Jersey City Giants at Red Wing Stadium, Sunday, Aug. 2, with the first game scheduled for 2:00 P. M.

Now only a few games out of first place, the fast Jersey City team is given an outside chance of overtaking the Newark Bears to cop the gonfalon before the season ends. With the rejuvenated Red Wings playing better ball than at any time this season, the series is certain to be closely contested.

The Sunday attraction will be followed by single games on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. All will be night games, starting at 8:30 P. M., with the usual reduced admission fees for women patrons in force.

Following the Jersey City series, the Red Wings go to Syracuse for three days and to Buffalo for a like period, returning home Aug. 13 to start a long series with the Montreal Royals, also a pennant contender and certain to land a play-off berth.
