Rev. Raymond F. Nolan of St. Stephen's, introduced the speaker.

The talk was connected with the course in Western Civilization given at the Colleges. Non-members of the Newman Club were guests.

Fr. Dougherty Speaks Friday

First Friday Club speaker for the meeting on Friday, Feb. 7 will be the Rev. Emmett T. Dougherty, pastor of St. Felix Church, Clifton Springs, according to the Rev. Arthur E. Kalligan, moderator.

The luncheon and meeting will be held at Hotel Sheraton at 12:15 p. m. when Father Kalligan, also chaplain of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, will present the speaker.

Entering its fifth year, the First Friday Club was organized to bring Catholic men together at a downtown luncheon to hear a spiritual talk by one of the diocesan priests. Any Catholic man is eligible to attend the luncheons who has received Holy Communion on the First Friday. George L. McKay is the K. of C. chairman of the Club.

March of Dimes Benefit Game To Feature Aquinas vs GHS

Geneva — Aquinas Institute of Rochester will invade the Geneva Armory for a March of Dimes benefit game against the Geneva High School on Feb. 4.

The two squads have not met on the basketball court since 1943 when one of Jim Lomas's early quintets traveled to Rochester and met a two-point defeat.

High School officials also announced that junior varsity quintets of the two rivals will meet in preliminary game for the benefit program.

Tickets for the basketball game were placed on sale Thursday, Jan. 23.

Geneva Weddings

Smith — Denniston

Geneva — Miss Mildred Ilene Smith, daughter of Paul C. Smith, Geneva R.D. 2, was united in marriage to Charles Adolph Denniston of Phelps, son of George Denniston of Canandaigua, on Monday, Jan. 27, at 4 p. m.

The ceremony was performed at St. Francis Church, Phelps, by Rev. Edward Simpson. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Margaret Facer.

Maid of honor was Miss Katherine Peters of Shortsville, a cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Smith of Phelps and Miss Marion Smith of Clifton Springs, both cousins of the bride.

George King of Phelps, a friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Richard Smith of Geneva, brother of the bride, and Paul Rockefeller of Phelps, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Buffet supper was served at Masonic Temple in Geneva. One hundred guests were present. The bride's table was set for tea. Pouring were Mrs. George Peters, great-aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Flora Weaton, a friend of the family.

After a brief trip, Mr. and Mrs. Denniston will reside at 90 Bristol St., Canandaigua.

Since her graduation from Phelps Central School, she has been employed at the Geneva Daily Times. Mr. Denniston is a graduate of Clifton Springs High School, and served in the Armed Forces for three years, most of which was spent overseas. He now operates a Sunoco service station in Phelps.

Gonda — King

Miss Helen Gonda of Bath, N. Y., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gonda of Olyphant, Pa., and Raymond C. King, son of Mrs. Calvin A. King of Castle Road, Geneva, were married on Thursday, Jan. 2, at the Veterans' Administration Center Chapel. Rev. Ralph Nagle performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Veronica Farina of Archbald, Pa., was matron of honor, and George E. Schenck of Castle Road, Geneva, was best man.

A reception was held at Club Valentine for the immediate families and close friends.

Following a motor trip to California, the couple will reside in Bath.

The bride is a graduate of Olyphant High School, Scranton State Hospital Training School for Nurses, and before taking up her duties as head nurse at the Veterans' Administration Center, she was a member of the U. S. Army Corps.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Geneva High School and of Gowanda State School of Nursing. He was in the Armed Forces before taking over his position at the Veterans' Administration where he is now employed.

Services Held for John Burns

Funeral of John Burns, brother of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns, was conducted Saturday morning, Jan. 25, 1947, from Farrell Brothers Funeral Home and from Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral.

Mr. Burns died Wednesday, Jan. 22, 1947.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Monsignor Burns, assisted by the Rev. Edward J. McAuliff as deacon and the Rev. Joseph McNamara, subdeacon.

The Very Rev. Edward M. Lyons, Rev. Vincent Le Frois and Rev. William F. Nolan were in the sanctuary.

Attending the services also were the Reverend Fathers Thomas F. Cashore, Frank W. Mason, Gerald C. Lambert, Michael J. Tydings, Emmett E. Davis, Raymond J. Wahl, Francis Pegnam, Michael P. O'Brien, Paul Mutley and Wallace J. Van Duesen.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Besides his brother, Monsignor Burns, Mr. Burns leaves his wife, Mrs. Mary Burns, and daughter, Mrs. Margaret Linton.

Mohan Stars in Victory Of H. F. Over Waterloo

Auburn—Paced by the sensational shooting of Captain Johnnie Mohan, assisted by Dick Woods and Jack Fitzpatrick, Holy Family's Purple and Gold clad cagers routed Waterloo Centrals by a score of 47-33.

Displaying a blazing brand of basketball at West High School, Friday night of last week, the Al Crowley coached team with a 14 point victory more than revenged their two point loss of some weeks ago to Pilot John Gee's speedsters.

The victory was fifth in a row at home for Coach Crowley's five. They will now prep for the invasion of St. Mary's of Ogdensburg and the big March of Dimes benefit game to be staged next Friday at West High School.

Coach Crowley's boys put on the pressure in the early stages of the battle and rolled up a 16 point edge, holding the Geemen to a goose egg during the first eight minutes and two more minutes in the second leg. Waterloo broke into the scoring column in the 11th minute of play but Holy Family surged on to rack up a 20-8 bulge at the long intermission.

Captain Mohan added 10 points during the course of being play maker. Woods had an even dozen and Fitzpatrick dropped in seven counts. Captain Mohan now has 146 points for the season and he has marked 631 points for the all time record. Jim Laper again gave material assistance in getting rebounds from the boards and Bob Gallo torpedoed Koopman, holding Gee's high scorer to no points while adding three for Holy Family. Coach Crowley used his reservists liberally throughout the game.

With Mohan heading the scoring list for the contest on the other side of the book Stanton and Didsbury topped the losers' list with eight points each. In the junior varsity clash, Waterloo won 39-21.

Villanova 2532, Tonzi 573 Top Holy Name Loop

Auburn — Villanova took the measurement of the league-leading Georgetown team Sunday by taking three points. The one point that the leaders obtained was in the last game where a wild pitch at the 3-7 split in the tenth frame by the Villanova anchor-man enabled Georgetown to tie up the game and win in the extra frame. Bud Wilson was the stand-out man on both teams, bowling games of 183, 183 and 179 for a 545 total, but this was not enough to defeat an even balanced Villanova team. It is hard to pick out a single man on the victors' team as being more important than the others as they all bowled quite evenly. If one man stood out more than the others it was Vernon Finckney with 501.

An interesting game in the victory of Canisius over Gonzaga was the duel between Lou Tonzi of Canisius and Captain Paul Friedel of Gonzaga for top individual honors. Tonzi won out with 572 on games of 196, 227 and 150, while Paul Friedel was second for the day with 552 garnered on games of 177, 182 and 193. They finished for the day as they stand for the season, Tonzi leading with Friedel second. Francis Jones helped out Canisius with 518.

John Terry, A.B., led the Notre Dame team to victory over a faltering Santa Clara team. Terry is continuing his fine bowling of the last few weeks. Sunday, he hit 549 with games of 207, 190 and 152. Bob Holmes really found himself after a first game of 148, and rolled 172 and 210 in the last two games for a 530 total and a spot in the Big Five. Bob was a great help to the victors in downing Santa Clar.

Holy Cross, led by their captain, Paul W. Graney, who rolled 506, had a comparatively easy time in taking three points from Loyola. Two of the members of the victors, after bowling two good games, fell down in the third one, thus losing a chance for a position in the Big Five.

There was such a demand for applications in the "80" Club, that President Jim Russell's supply became exhausted. Secretary Paul J. Graney reported that the applications were made too hastily as none of the applicants fulfilled the necessary conditions, although one came within nine points of doing so.

'Gay Nineties' Party Slated

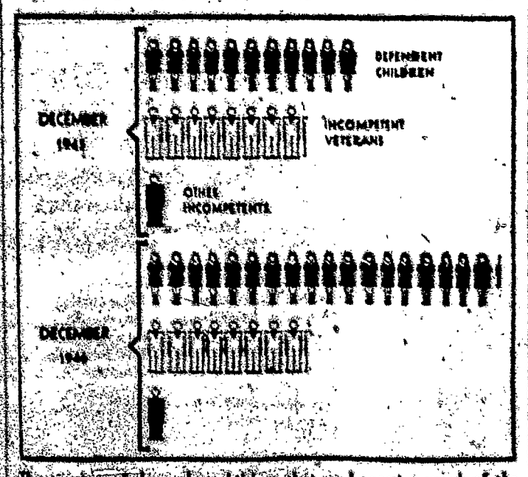
Arrangements for a "Gay Nineties" party Saturday, Feb. 1, have been completed by the Men's Club of Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral. The affair will be held in the school hall.

James McKeon has been named general chairman of the affair. Ray Hasenauer has promised several surprise attractions in the way of entertainment.

An orchestra and caller has been billed for the round and square dancing.

Bill Flynn, assisted by Oscar Traboid and Joe O'Reilly, will direct luncheon serving.

More Dependent Children Are Becoming Wards of the Veterans Administration



The number of dependent children that are becoming wards of the Veterans Administration has shown a steady increase during 1946. This total jumped from 55,196 in December, 1945, to 90,716 in December, 1946. During the same time the number of incompetent veterans increased only from 41,022 to 41,806, and the number of other incompetents from 4,436 to 3,296.

Reformatory Publication In Elmira Unique in U. S.

By MARY CAREY

The Don Bosco Bulletin, Catholic news periodical of Elmira Reformatory, holds the distinction of being the only publication of its kind printed in the United States, and so far as can be determined, the only one in the world, according to the Rev. Francis J Lane, Catholic chaplain of the institution.

Edited, composed and printed by inmates of Elmira Reformatory, the Don Bosco Bulletin is unique because it is the only penal institution journal devoted exclusively to religious news published anywhere in the country.

The four-page semi-monthly Bulletin provides Catholic inmates with up to the minute news items on Catholic events inside and without the Elmira institution as well as Catholic information and editorial comment.

Now a thriving, seven-year-old publishing venture, the Bulletin enjoys a circulation far exceeding its regular distribution of some 550 copies.

The publication got its start in early 1940 when, at the instigation of a group of Catholic inmates, Father Lane got the permission of the New York State Department of Correction.

Started in 1940

The first edition appeared on May 20, 1940. All the work, even the actual printing was done and is still being done by the inmates themselves in the reformatory's print shop.

Under the supervision of Father Lane, the Bulletin staff, which includes an editor and two associates, writes and edits the articles and editorials for publication. A regular feature "The Voice of the Pop," carries the voluntary contributions of the inmates who are encouraged to write.

Local news under the caption "On the Spot" is run alternately with "The Voice of the Pop." Other regulars are the "Question Box" and the "Chaplain's Column."

The front page is made up of N.C.W.C. news service items.

In the reformatory shop, an associate editor performs the duties of compositor and proof-reader, while linotype and intertype machines and presses are operated by the inmates, Catholic and non-Catholic.

The original purpose of the Bulletin, which is still maintained, is best described by the following excerpt from the editorial of the first issue

"Still another step forward is being undertaken by the publishing of this the Don Bosco Bulletin, for the betterment and interest of all Catholic inmates. The primary purpose of this paper, which will be published every two weeks, is to bring its readers facts solely pertaining to and about the Catholic religion. It is to instruct and educate its readers in matters of a religious nature which they are not likely to come in contact with in the exercise and fulfillment of their regular duties. Through the channels of this publication we hope to enlighten our readers in spiritual matters so imperative to their future aspirations and success."

Seneca Falls Weddings

Bonacci — Scaramuzzino

Seneca Falls — The marriage of John Scaramuzzino, son of Mrs. Mary Scaramuzzino, Bridge Street, and Miss Rose Bonacci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bonacci, of Chestnut Street, was solemnized in St. Patrick's Church, Saturday morning, Jan. 25, at 9 a. m. Rev. John P. O'Beirne, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Attendants were Miss Teresa Torchinelli, maid of honor, and Mrs. Philomena Asquista and Miss Maria Bruna of Geneva, as bridesmaids. Joseph Prescano was best man and the ushers were Angela Acquista and Frank De Rosa of Geneva.

A reception at the Veterans of Foreign Wars clubrooms followed the church rites.

Mrs. Scaramuzzino is a veteran of several years' service with the army and was honorably discharged about a year ago.

The young couple will reside at 3 Rumsey St.

Moral Aspects of French Film Industry Stressed

Paris — (RNS) — Moral aspects of the film industry are being stressed by the Catholic Cinema Center here this year in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of Pope Pius XI's encyclical on the cinema ("Vigilanti Cura"). Emmanuel Celestine Cardinal Suhard, Archbishop of Paris, is a leading patron of the center.

It was announced that the center will sponsor a special showing on Jan. 19 of a documentary film depicting the pilgrimage of former French deportees and war prisoners to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes last September. Also to be screened is a film based on the life of Father Damien, famous missionary to the leper colony of Molokai.

India Prelate Plans to Visit In Rochester

A visit to Rochester is on the itinerary of Bishop Thomas Pothakamuri of Bangalore, the native Indian prelate revealed to the NCWC News Service in Washington, this week.

The Bishop whose tour will end in March when he will travel back to India by way of England is expected to make stops at Chicago, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Detroit.

In October, 1939, Bishop Pothakamuri, then a Monsignor, visited Rochester diocese in company with Archbishop Lewis Mathias of Madras, India, and participated in the public novena in preparation for observance of Mission Sunday in Rochester diocese.

Responding to the questions of an interviewer in Washington Bishop Pothakamuri acknowledged that communism is making headway in India, particularly in the industrial centers, but so far has soft-pedaled any antagonism to religion. The communist technique, he explained, is to exploit the poverty of the masses and the prevailing unrest by means of the press and public meetings.

Communism No Threat

"Communism in India has not yet shown itself definitely anti-religious or anti-Christian," he said, "for open antagonism to religion will give any such movement short shrift in India at least at present. The Congress (All-India Congress Party) is opposed to communism and to all intents and purposes the Moslem League also. Barring two or three instances, efforts made to return communist candidates in elections for the provincial legislatures were unsuccessful."

The Bangalore Bishop emphasized, as he had in a previous statement to the American press, that he expects the steady progress of the Church in India to continue under any probable form of future government.

"It is not likely that political changes will adversely affect the Church in India," he declared. "We may have difficulties, but these are bound to disappear with a better understanding and appreciation of the methods and spheres of government and those of the Church. We enjoyed no particular advantage under the British, though their policy of equal toleration and equal protection of Catholicism with other religions enabled us to make stable and peaceful progress."

The Bishop paid tribute to the vigor of Catholicism in the United States and said he was particularly impressed by the amount of space the secular dailies here devoted to events of Catholic interest. He seemed struck by the fact that The New York Times had cabled to its readers the full text of the Pope's Christmas Eve address.
