COMMONWEALERS CO[illegible]

Coxey and Browne Found Guilty at Jones Partially Acquitted.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The chief leaders of the commonweal, Coxey, Browne and Christopher Columbus Jones, have been found guilty of violating the law by a jury of their peers and will have to submit to a sentence hereafter to be imposed by the court for their recent demonstrations on the Capitol grounds. Thus is gloriously ends what its leaders styled "The greatest march of the nineteenth century."

All three of the accused were convicted on the first count of the indictment which charged them with displaying a banner designed to bring into public notice the J. S. Coxey Good Roads association.

Jones of Philadelphia was acquitted of the second count which accused him of treading on the grass, but Coxey and Browne were convicted.

CHOATE IS CHOSEN.

TO PRESIDE AT THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Alvord Chosen First Vice President—Other Officers Nominated by Republican Delegates in Caucus—The Convention Called to Order Adjournment Taken.

ALBANY, May 8.—A striking looking body of men gathered in the assembly chamber where the Republican members of the constitutional convention assembled in caucus to nominate officers of the convention.

They were a dignified body of men and took up the business of the caucus with all the formality and decorum of a suit at law.

The scene in the chamber was in marked contrast with the animation and excitement of the assembly opening caucus.

JOSEPH H. CHOATE.

The two striking figures of the caucus were Joseph H. Choate, who has been selected to preside over the convention, and ex-Lieutenant Governor Thomas G. Alvord.

Henry R. Durfee and Mr. McKinstry were named as secretaries.

The roll of delegates was then called.

Elihu Root was recognized by the chair. Mr. Root said the great work of the constitutional convention was for the benefit of all the people of the state, for the benefit of the present generation and of the generation to come. The duty of perfect fairness and nonpartisanship rested upon the august body.

The people of the state had placed upon the Republican party the responsibility of organizing the convention, and as the nominee of the Republicans for the office of president he took great pleasure in nominating Joseph H. Choate of New York, who, he said, was the acknowledged leader of the bar of New York, and one of the acknowledged leaders of the bar of the United States.

Mr. Choate's nomination was seconded by Mr. Storm of New York and Mr. Becker of Buffalo.

On motion of Mr. Alvord the nomination was made by acclamation.

Mr. Goodell nominated Thomas G. Alvord as first vice president.

The nomination was seconded by Messrs. Cassidy, Johnson and McDonough, and was made by acclamation.

William H. Steele of Oswego was nominated for the second vice president.

Charles E. Fitch of Rochester was nominated for secretary.

Herbert A. Briggs of Buffalo was nominated for stenographer.

W. W. Bennett of Saratoga was nominated for sergeant-at-arms, and John McElroy for assistant sergeant-at-arms.

On motion of Mr. Vedder the following caucus committee was appointed: Messrs. Becker, Davis, Brown, Lauterbach, Hitts and Johnson.

The caucus then adjourned.

ALBANY, May 8.—The constitutional convention was called to order today by Secretary of State Palmer. After the delegates were sworn in, the election of officers took place. Joseph H. Choate was the only candidate for president and he was accordingly chosen. Ex Lieutenant Governor Alvord was elected first vice president. The other officers were elected in accordance with the agreement reached in the Republican caucus.

The president announced the following committee on privileges and elections: Messrs. Cookingham, Lester, Durfee, Crosby, Foote, Lincoln, Herschberg, Countryman, Deady, Gibney, Chipp.

Mr. Rott from the committee on rules submitted a partial report, which covered principally the constitution of the standing committees. The report was adopted.

Mr. Marshall offered a resolution that all the sessions of the convention be held in the assembly chamber in the capitol.

Objections were heard from different parts of the chamber and the resolution was laid on the table on motion of Mr. McClure.

The president announced the appointment of George E. Smith as janitor.

The secretary announced the appointment of Edward M. Johnson, journal clerk of the last assembly, as assistant secretary.

The convention then adjourned until May 22 and proceeded to the executive chamber to pay its respects to the governor.

Big Deal on In Rochester.

ROCHESTER, May 5.—One of the largest financial transactions in which Rochester capitalists have been interested in some time will be consummated within a few days when all of the rights, franchises and patents owned by the Vacuum Fermentation company will be sold to the English syndicate which controls many of the breweries of the country, including four in the city of New York, one of them being that of Henry Clauson & Sons. Negotiations for the plant have been in progress for the past year, and the price asked is $1,000,000, which will be paid as soon as a few minor arrangements are completed. The purpose of the vacuum evaporator is to manufacture lager beer within 12 days from the kettle to the market. It is also claimed that the process makes the beer purer and as clear as champagne, and does away with the large fermenting rooms in breweries.

Gravesend Prosecutors' Pay.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Justice Gaynor, in the supreme court, Brooklyn, handed down a decision in which he awarded General Benjamin F. Tracey and E. M. Shepard $10,000 each for their work in prosecuting the Gravesend election frauds. The justice also awarded Jerry Wernberg and Colonel Lamb $7,500 each.

Flames at Oswego.

OSWEGO, N. Y., May 8.—The Oswego casket factory and Malone's planing mill were destroyed by fire. Loss, $32,000.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

General Harrison Disclaims Any Intention of Seeking Nomination.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Ex-President Harrison arrived in Jersey City by the Pennsylvania railroad.

He was unaccompanied by any one and passed unobserved from the train to a cab in which he was driven to the Fifth Avenue hotel in this city.

General Harrison does not look as if he was in good health. His face is pale and his expression shows marks of care.

The ex-president came to this city from Cincinnati.

Ex-President Harrison said his visit to this city was purely on private business matters.

"I have no object in coming to New York," said he, "except in my professional business. I have a law case which I came here to attend to.

"I have been misquoted by the newspapers and the attempt to give any political coloring to my visit here is altogether unwarranted. My law practice is taking up all my time and I have no thoughts of politics."

"Have you any idea of becoming a candidate for the presidency in 1896?"

"I have not," replied General Harrison in an emphatic manner.

A MUCH MARRIED MAN.

William Reynolds Alleged to Have No Less Than Eight Wives.

BUFFALO, May 8.—William Reynolds, a slim, rather good looking young man, with dark hair and eyes, was locked up in No. 1 police station last night, charged with bigamy. It is alleged that Reynolds has married no less than eight women.

Three of his alleged victims are respectable young women who live in Salamanca and that town is greatly upset at what has happened.

Other victims are said to live in Scranton, Pa., Angola and Grape Valley.

The warrant for the youthful bigamist's arrest was sworn out in Salamanca.

Sealers Suffer Disasters.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—The present season has been most disastrous to the sealing fleet. So far the schooners Matthew Turner and Mascot of San Francisco have been reported lost with all hands; the Henry Dennis is said to have gone ashore and become a total wreck. The Undaunted is a wreck and the Retriever lost five of her boats and had to put into Yokohama. The crew of the latter, with the exception of Captain Snow and two sailors, managed to reach Hakodate. Fears are entertained for the safety of the latter three. The steamer Ocean Belle lost one of her boats in a fog and the three men in her were adrift for five days with but little water and no food. They reached Yokohama after great hardship and left on the schooner Penelope the day before the Ocean Belle arrived. The captain of the latter reports he spoke the Umbrina with 700 skins, the Henry Dennis with 740, the Lewis Olsen with 152, the W. P. Hall with 42, the City of San Diego with 832 and the Walter Earle with 490.

South Carolina a Prohibition State.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 9.—South Carolina is under prohibition. The supreme court decided the Florence, S. C., cases and thereby settles the question that has been vexing the state. An injunction was asked to restrain the city council of Florence from granting licenses for selling liquor on the ground that there is no law authorizing the grant thereof. In its decision the court says that under the law, as it now stands, there is no authority in the state invested with the power to grant licenses for the sale of liquor in South Carolina and that hence the act of the city council in granting such licenses is void.

Projectiles Stand the Test.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., May 9.—The acceptance test for 8-inch armor piercing Midvale Holtzer steel projectiles, manufactured by the Midvale Steel company of Philadelphia by their secret process, was finished and considered very satisfactory by Captain Heath, in charge of the proving ground. Two shots were fired from an 8-inch breechloading rifle and both penetrated the 9-inch oil tempered and annealed plate furnished by the Bethlehem Steel works. This plate had been used at a former test. Both went through the backing also and were recovered intact in the large sandbutt back of it.

Mrs. Foley's Fatal Legacy.

MONTREAL, May 7.—Mrs. Patrick Foley received a legacy of $1,000 about the first of the year and aided by her husband has been industriously engaged in spending it, mostly for drink. Their long continued spree have ended, in the death of Mrs. Foley, probably by murder. The couple retired in an intoxicated condition and when a woman who made her home with them looked in she found Mrs. Foley dead in the bed, while Mr. Foley was making strenuous efforts to hang himself. Mrs. Foley's body was terribly bruised. Foley is in custody.

Suicide's Leap to Death.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Max Meyers, 58 years old, an influential resident of Selma, Ala., was killed by jumping from a window on the fourth floor of the Hotel Graham, at Madison avenue and 80th street, where he was temporarily stopping. The case is unquestionably one of suicide while insane, although the relatives of the dead man persist in saying that his death was due to accident.

Village Almost Wiped Out.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., May 9.—The village of Pawnee was almost wiped off the face of the earth by fire. The entire east side of the public square, with adjacent houses, is in ashes and the best portion of the south side is gone, saving the rest of the square. Seventy-five firms and families were totally ruined. The total loss will reach $100,000. It is thought the fire was incendiary.

Speaker Malby Leaves For Home.

ALBANY, May 9.—Speaker Malby, who has been confined to his hotel with illness, has left the city for home. He said in regard to legislation that all the bills which were passed during the closing hours of the legislature had been examined and signed. He pronounced as absolutely false the statements that the members had turned the closing hours of house and senate into a saturnalia.

Commissioner of Fisheries.

ALBANY, May 9.—Governor Flower appoined Hon. Isaac N. Cox of Ellenville, Ulster county, commissioner of fisheries in the place of A. S. Joline, whose term of office has expired.

Found No Bill.

TORONTO, May 9.—In the case of W. C. Beddome, charged with falsifying the books of the Toronto Land and Loan company, the jury found no bill.

DO YOU WANT
A Cool Kitchen This Summer?
A Perfection Gas Range
Will make it as pleasant as your parlor.

The present low price of fuel gas and the introduction of the PERFECTION GAS RANGE have solved the problem of summer cooking and opened a vista of comfort to the tired housekeeper. While most gas stoves are too wasteful, some are utterly unreliable. The PERFECTION, on the contrary, is as economical as a coal range, and will do its work uniformly and without "popping." Comparison with any other gas range will prove the superiority of the PERFECTION to any disinterested person.

If you want a GASOLINE STOVE, by all means see the "JEWEL." It is the handsomest, the safest and the best:
