Ceylon Overrules Ban Against Pope's Talk

Colombo, Ceylon (NC) — An English - language recording of an address by His Holiness Pope Pius XII denouncing anti religious minority regimes for their persecution of the Church and religion was finally broadcast over the Colombo Radio after the Ceylon cabinet overruled a ban imposed on it by C. Sittampalam, Minister of Posts and Telecommunications

The Pope's speech, delivered before a gigantic Catholic Action gathering in Rome had been interpreted as a denunciation of the Hungarian regime for its action against Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty Mr Sittampalam had banned the broadcast on the premise that it was an attack on Hungary with which Ceylon is on friendly terms

The Ceylon press was generally critical of the Minister's action and widespread public disapproval of his attitude finally led the Ceylon cabinet to take up the matter

Elmira Catholic Highlights

By KATHERINE CARSTATER

"When It's Junior Day" at Elmira Catholic High School, all classes join in the merry spirit that prevails Last Friday was the scene of the famed Junior Day and after it was over everyone agreed that it lacked nothing in making an agreeable, eventful day

Sister Gregory's dignified class put its best appearance, as its members pinned on their green and white class colors and proudly manifested to all others that they were the outstanding class of the day. The occasion was climaxed in the assembly presented by the group with class president John Cusick acting as master of ceremonies.

The Alma Mater Song was followed by several Junior Class Songs. John Geary's solo "Life Gets Tedious Don't It" made a big hit not to mention the vocal duet by Mary Schiavi and William Moser who sang their version of days at Catholic High.

An amusing class poem written by Mary Schiavi was recited by Ray Winieski. "Frances and Her Fiddle," a hilarious song, was rendered by the entire class and was accompanied by Frances Dowling playing the violin. Accompanists for the class songs were William Moser and Carroll Kennedy

The one-act comedy "His First Shave" really proved that the juniors have good actors and actresses Ralph Reed played the role of Don Judson, the young man who is just taking up shaving His mother was Barbara Romasser, Donald Kessing played father; Don's annoying sister, Janey was Lois Boyle; Mary Schiavi took the part of Grandma Judson

Harry Hollister Don's friend, was played by James Agan; Jean Ann Ryan was Hannah Lotz the housekeeper; Marion Hawley and Betty Kenyon, friends of Don and Harry were played by Joan Carol O'Connor and Dolores Doran. Father William Burns, Principal, spoke for the entire audience when he voiced his appreciation in his address. The performance ended with the entire group singing the "Ave Maria"

HOT TROT

The school hall was a happy scene last Friday night. A good crowd was on hand for the dance sponsored by the school sodality. Music was furnished by a juke-box and a happy, eventful time was had. Chaperons for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. John Reidy, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Woldzik and Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius J. Milliken.

THIS AND THAT

At the last Sodality meeting, officers for the coming year were elected. Here are the results. Prefect — Andrew Von Hendy, vice-prefect and publicity chairman—John Cusick, second vice-prefect and Eucharistic chairman —Dolores Doran, secretary and parliamentarian — Frances Dowling, treasurer—Lois Boyle, apostolic chairman—John Murphy, and chairman of Our Lady's committee—Barbara Romasser.

Congratulations and wishes for good luck go to all the new officers . . . Ascension Thursday was a big day for the sophomore boys who were victorious in a baseball game with the juniors. Winning pitcher was Paul Dailey, Richard Dunn got 2 triples and the score was 24-0.

The voice of our school was on the air last Saturday morning on Gorton's Junior Round Table, of radio station WELM. Mary Romani, Regina Horica, Mary Teresa Battisti and Joan Carol O'Connor were representatives of Catholic High. Subjects such as the approaching Senior Day, our Yearbook, and summer camps, were ably discussed by the group.

The strains of songs of farewell are floating through the halls this week as the seniors rehearse for Senior Day. The approaching date is June 9 . . . Raymond Winieski and Regina Rutzko have been elected as officers in St. Casimir's Sodality. Ray is vice-prefect and the new secretary is Regina . . . June 5 is the big day for this week.

The Knights of Columbus hall will be the scene of the Sodality's party. The affair will begin at 8 and all proceeds will be used to send delegates to the Summer School of Catholic Action held each year at Fordham University in New York City. Each Sodalist is busy working to sell tickets. . . The delegation from our Sodality is making ready this week to attend the diocesan student union Sodality meeting to be held this Sunday at Hornell.

Auburn Prison Staff Attends Annual Breakfast

Auburn — Many members of the Department of Correction employed at Auburn State Prison gathered for their second annual Communion breakfast at 9 a.m. at the Osborne Hotel. The group had first attended Mass and Communion services in the prison chapel.

Guest speaker was County Attorney Edwin W. Leary. Assemblyman Charles A. Cusick was a guest. Carmen Collela, president of the Cayuga Chapter of the Civil Service Association, was toastmaster. The invocation and blessing was offered by the Rev. Gregory Dugan, Catholic Chaplain at Auburn prison.

Willard L. Dennd, acting warden, and the wives of assistant principal keeper, were introduced. The absence of Warden John F. Feeley, who is currently on the sick list, was noted, and the hope was expressed that he would soon be back on duty.
