Silver Tea To Aid Negro Scholarship Fund Slated

Third annual scholarship fund tea of the Mother Cabrini Circle, which finances the education of several Negro students in Rochester's Catholic high schools, will be held Sunday, Sept 18.

Mrs. Harriet Schuyler, general chairman, will receive members and well-wishers of the interparochial, interracial group in her home, 343 Clarissa Street, at 4 p. m. that day.

Mrs. Schuyler

Proceeds from these teas go into a fund which pays tuition costs for Negro boys and girls attending Aquinas Institute and Our Lady of Mercy High School. The first girl sponsored by the group graduated in June from Mercy.

The Mother Cabrini Circle an organization of Catholic lay women, is an affiliate of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

Assisting Mrs. Schuyler are Mrs. Mildred Quarmina, Mrs. Franklin Copenhagen, reception, Mrs. Clarence Gott, invitations, and Miss Mary Agnes Dougherty.

Six Win State Scholarships

Six Catholic High School students were among fifty in Monroe County awarded scholarships by the University of the State of New York, Department of Education, according to list released last week.

The scholarship holders will each receive $175 per term for eight terms of a course at any college in the state approved by the Board of Regents.

Winners are:

Aquinas Institute — Thomas H. Green, 595 Seneca Parkway and Daniel R. Brent, 458 Flint St. (Brent is a member of the Catholic Courier Journal staff).

Nazareth Academy — Eileen C. Conheady, 140 Curtis St. and Marjorie A. Klem, 35 Langford Rd.

Our Lady of Mercy High School — Betty Perrin, 76 Berry St. and Mary L'Esperance, 97 Long Meadow Circle, Pittsford.

B. H. Smith's Rites Held In Dansville

Dansville—Funeral services for Bernard H. Smith, were held here from the family residence 61 Franklin St., Tuesday, Aug. 30. Funeral Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Edward M. Scheid, pastor, in St. Mary's Church.

Mr. Smith died suddenly Saturday, Aug. 27, 1949. He was 31 years of age.

Born Feb. 7, 1918, he attended St. Mary's School, Dansville Central High School and Bryan-Stratton Business College, Buffalo. In 1940 after completing his course at the Syracuse School of Embalming, he joined his uncle, Harold P. Smith in conducting the Smith Funeral Home.

Mr. Smith was also in the insurance business for himself and represented the Allen Monument Works in Mt. Morris.

He was a member of the Dansville Council, Knights of Columbus and as chairman of the membership campaign brought Century Club honors to the council. He was also a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church, and a charter member of the Lions Club.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Smith of Dansville, a brother, Clement H., and several uncles and aunts.

St. Elizabeth Guild To Meet Tuesday

Plans for fall and winter activities will be made by St. Elizabeth Guild at its meeting Tuesday, Sept. 6 at 1:30 p.m. in Columbus Civic Center. Mrs. Herman Lower, president, will preside.

Preliminary plans for an evening card party, Wednesday, Sept. 28 at Blessed Sacrament Hall will be outlined by Mrs. Roy Leary, chairman and Mrs. George Thorne, co-chairman.

FIRST CHILDREN'S RETREAT

Noted Retreat Masters Set For Devotions At Cenacle

A distinguished group of retreat masters, both locally and nationally known, will give conferences at the Retreat House of Our Lady of the Cenacle, East Avenue at Oxford, during September and October, the Religious of the Cenacle announce.

Labor Day weekend, Sept 2 to 5, a Jesuit Father, the Rev. John Paone, S.J., is scheduled. The Rev. Albert J. Shamon of Aquinas Institute's faculty, moderator of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, will give a retreat for young business women, September 16 to 18.

Other retreats include:

Sept. 23-25 — Geneva Sodality and General, Rev. Edwin Haungs, S.J., retreat master.

Oct. 7-9 — High School Retreat, Rev. Timothy O'Dwyer, S.J.

Oct. 14-16—Kodak Park Works Employees, Rev. Richard McKeon, S.J.

Oct. 28-30 —St. Margaret Mary Altar Society.

The 1950 retreat schedule for the Cenacle is also being prepared. Mother Superior Angela Murphy urges all Catholic societies, sodalities, high school groups, Newman Clubs, interested in booking retreats for the coming year to contact her, at the Cenacle Convent, 693 East Avenue (MOnroe 4666 or 4667).

School Mothers Set First Fall Meeting
