CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

In the present war in the East, by a curious coincidence, what are, in diplomatic terms, called 'British interests' in both China and Japan are being looked after by Connaught men. The present British Minister at Pekin is Mr. N. R. O'Conner, of Dundermott, Ballymoe; and the Minster to Japan is Hon. Power H. Lee, Poer Trench, uncle to the present earl of Clancarty. The war in Corea may prove a strong test of the capacity of both gentlemen. There are many other Irish gentlemen in the Diplomatic service, at the head of which is the Marquis of Dufferin, an Irishman by birth and extraction—though, unfortunately, not an Irishman in the patriotic acceptation of the term.

LEITRIM.

Mr. Daniel Flynn, Carntulla, Dowra, has been appointed to the Commission of the Peace for the county of Leitrim.

We regret to announce the death, at the Convent of Mercy, Ballinamore, of Miss A. Hologhan, born at Cahir in 1819, and professed in religion, 1858. Most Rev. Dr. McGuinness presided at the obsequies, and a large number of clergymen attended in the choir and chanted the solemn Office and High Mass for the dead. The deceased lady founded and governed the local Sisterhood for a period extending over ten years and was most assiduous in the discharge of the duties pertaining to her office, even to her last evenings on earth. She had endeared herself to the entire community of Ballinamore and vicinity.

MAYO.

Mr. McSwiney replaces Mr. Kendrick as Inland Revenue Officer at Castlebar.

Dr. M. C. Jordan of Castlebar has deen elected Medical Officer for the Newport Dispensary District. Dr. Jordan is a staunch Nationalist.

Mr. Patrick J. Henry, principal teacher of the Cloonamana National School, Kilmovee, Ballaghadereen, has been promoted to first class, as a result of his answering at the late July examinations. He has also succeeded in obtaining certificates in music, drawing, mechanics, light and sound, magnetism and electricity, together with a diploma of the first grade. Mr. Henry is a native of Clonacool, county Sligo.

ROSCOMMON.

A few days ago, a respectable young man named James White, while engaged cutting turf in a bog near Donamon, accidentally fell into a deep pool of water close to where he was working, and before assistance could be rendered the poor fellow was drowned.

At the last meeting of the Athlone Town Commissioners, a resolution was passed congratulating Mr. Toner, station-master there, on his promotion to superintendent at the Broadstone Terminus, Dublin, but regretting his departure from among them.

SLIGO.

The house known as 'Tallant's Hotel,' at the corner of Abbey and Albert streets, Sligo, has been purchased by Mr. W. Mostyn, who is extensively engaged in the tea trade. Mr. Mostyn will continue the hotel and bar business on his premises.

We deeply regret to have to chronicle the death of Mrs. Thomas Higgins, of Knocknaskea, at the early age of thirty-four years, after a short illness. Her death deprives the poor of a charitable and generous friend, those around her of a genial and hospitable neighbor, and her husband of an amiable, loving and devoted wife. The funeral was one of the largest seen in the locality for some time, a large number of vehicles attending the remains to the Abbey of Mount Irwin.

LEINSTER.

CARLOW.

Colonel D. P. Vigors, High Sheriff for the county of Carlow, has appointed Mr. Robert Throp, Kilgraney, Bagnalstown, Sub-Sheriff, in the room of the late Mr. E. L. Jameson.

DUBLIN.

From the agricultural statistics recently issued, it appears that the total extent of land under crops in Ireland, this year, is 4,937,170 acres, being an increase over last year of 59,138 acres.

The following candidates have been certified by the Civil Service Commissioners as qualified for the appointments set against their respective names. Without competition—Dundrum Criminal Lunatic Asylum—Assistant Attendant, John Furlong. Post office—Skilled Telegraphist, Dublin—Margaret Quinn.

KILDARE.

Recently, when Mr. West, teacher of the Bluecoat School, Milicent, returned home from Dublin, where he had been on business, he discovered that his wife and three children were absent, and on inquiry found that they had not been seen. A search was immediately instituted and continued till the bodies of Mrs. West and two of her children were found in the river near the schoolhouse. The body of the youngest child, who was but three months old, was found in the river later on. The bereaved husband discovered in his wife's private trunk a letter addressed in affectionate terms to him, bidding him farewell, speaking of him as a loving husband, and expressing regret that she had ever been born. Mrs. West had for some time past—since the birth of her youngest child—been unwell, and frequently complained of palpitation of the heart, and had been sometimes depressed. Dr. Smyth, coroner of North Kildare held an inquest, when, after hearing the evidence, a verdict of suicide whilst temporarily insane was returned.

LONGFORD.

The Nationalist demonstration to be held in Longford has been postponed to some future date, not yet announced.

LOUTH.

Two well-known officials long connected with Dundalk & Newry Steampacket Company—Mr. Stephen Kelly, secretary, and Capt. Farrell—are about to be retired on pension. This is, no doubt, a result of the recent infusion of new blood on the directorate.

Archdeacon Murphy, St. Peter's, Drogheda, gratefully acknowledges the receipt of £360 from the executors of the late John Butterly. The Christian Brothers' also acknowledge the receipt of £100 from the same source.

The death is announced of Mr. N. O. Markey, a member of one of the old and respected families of Louth. Mr. Markey's father is still remembered as one of the sterling and uncompromising upholders of the people's cause in the era of Emancipation and the struggle for tenant-right, while the name of the brother of the deceased, Rev. J. Markey, was synonymous with a stubborn rectitude of principle that placed him in the front rank of the patriot-priests of his time. Mr. N. O. Markey had been a long time in failing health, so that his decease was not unlocked for. He was a member of the Drogheda Poor Law Board for many years, but took little or no part in the discussions that enliven the Board's proceedings. He was generally held in esteem as a worthy member of a family always held in popular respect.

MEATH.

A very largely attended meeting of the Board of Guardians was held recently in Kells to consider the granting of a superannuation allowance to Dr. Ringwood, late medical officer of Kells workhouse. On the chair being taken by Mr. C. Chaloner, J.P., it was found that there were forty-six Guardians present. Mr. Barnes proposed that the largest pension in the power of Guardians to give—namely, two-thirds of his present salary—be granted to Dr. Ringwood. The proposal was seconded and carried unanimously. All present joined in bearing testimony to the zeal, kindness, and attention always shown by Dr. Ringwood to the sick and poor under his care, and in expressing their best wishes that he might be long spared to enjoy his well-earned pension.

QUEEN'S

Recently, at Leix Church, Mr. Edward Kendrick Bunbury Tighe, of the Grenadier Guards, of Woodstock, Inistioge, Kilkenny, grandson of the fourth Earl of Bessborough, was married to Miss Viola Skeffington Smyth, only daughter of Mr. E. Randal Skeffington Smyth, Vice-Lieutenant for Queen's County (High Sheriff in 1866) of Mount Hery, Portarlington, granddaughter of the first Baron Castletown, and niece of the present peer.

WEXFORD.

A carpenter named James Cullen, who was repairing the window of a house in Curracloe, fell a distance of twelve feet. He was not much injured however.

MUNSTER.

CLARE.

A sad fatality occured on the South Clare Railway to a milesman named Michael Clobessy, by the passing night train to Kilrush, leaving Miltown at 8.35. He was returning from the Miltown-Malbay races, and thinking the night train had passed, went on the line on his way home. Not reaching home in due course, his wife got alarmed, and a search was made, and the body, frightfully mangled, was found on the line next morning.

CORK.

The town of Youghal, which has had no water supply beyond the wells which have been in use for centuries, is at length to be provided with water-works, for which the Town Commisioners have procured a loan from the Board of Works. The supplay will be obtained from the River Glendine, and will be conveyed along the public road, a distance of 6¼ miles, to the top of the hill over the town, from which it will have a fall of nearly 200 feet, while the total fall from the source of supply will be over 300 feet. The contract for the work has been taken, at £5,945, by Mr. Walsh, of Bansha, and it is expected that the work will be completed in less than 12 months.

The ship Holyrood, Captain McAuley, has arrived at Queenstown from Tacoma. When approaching the Cape of Good Hope an iceberg was seen. Later on when rounding the incidental Cape gales were met. The ship had rather a dangerous time. For fully 50 hours she suffered so that Captain McAuley determined to jettison the cargo, and it was only after many tons were thrown over the side that the vessel righted. Again, later, sunken wreckage was met with, the Holyrood striking a big piece of submerged timber. Fortunately, the ship's hull was not injured, and no leakage wos noticeable.

KERRY.

James Fitzgerald, of Tralee, and Michael Nolan, of Carlow, played the final games for the handball championship of Ireland and a stake of £20 aside, in the Patrick street court, Dublin. Ten games had previously been played, each of the men winning five. On the 20th ult., however, Fitzgerald was in much better form than his opponent, and beating easily, winning six out of the seven games played.

LIMERICK

Another chaotic meeting of the Limerick Fishery Board has been held, at which Alderman Counihan took the chair at eleven o'clock, but Mr. Coleman at once proposed that Mr. Anthony Mackay should preside. Alderman Counihan said he was chairman, and Mr. Mackay as stoutly asserted that he should preside; and soon matters became very heated. Not only were there two chairmen, but there were also two secretaries, and the latter commenced reading rival "minutes" by direction of the chairman whom they respectively recognized. For over an hour this state of things continued, and ultimately Alderman Counihan declared the meeting adjourned, but Mr. Mackay stated that he, as chairman, did not adjourn, and after the great majority of the conservators had left, Mr. Mackay continued his "meeting", at which, of course, not even a pretense was made of transacting business.

TIPPERARY.

The Mayor of Clonmel has resigned, he having obtained the benefit of the act for the relief of insolvent debtors.

WATERFORD.

The Rev. P. Burke, C.C., who was transferred recently from England for the home mission, has been appointed Chaplain to the Little Sisters of the Poor, Waterford. The late Chaplain, Rev. P. Power, C.C., has been appointed Curate at the Cathedral, vice Rev. Father Hickey, transferred to Ballyneale.

ULSTER.

ANTRIM.

Out of the forty members who constitute the Belfast Corporation, there is not a ringle member of the Catholic body—who number 80,000 inhabitants, or over one-third of the entire population—admitted to a seat at the Council Board.

ARMAGH.

An alleged outrage of a highly sensational character, was recently reported, in some of the Belfast and Dublin Tory journals, as having occurred in the townland, about five miles distant from Armagh. On full inquires being made, by the police and otherwise, the 'outrage' turnes out to be a miserable fiasco.

CAVAN.

The people of Belcoo and Blacklion purpose holding horse races and athletic sports early next month.

DERRY.

A Derry contemporary states that Mr. Allbutt, Deputy Chief Constable of Liverpool, and formerly District Inspector of the R.I.C., at New townstewart, has been appointed Chief Constable of Bristol.

DONEGAL.

The Ballyshannon Board of Guardians are contemplating the construction of water-works for Bundoran.

DOWN.

While partridge hunting, Mr. Wakefield Richardson accidentally shot James McNulty, Patrick McNulty and Bridget Creggon who were working in a field. Mr. Richardson promptly rendered every assistance, and is bearing the expense of medical attendance. Dr. James Martin is attending the wounded parties, all of whom are progressing favorably.

MONAGHAN.

A meeting of the Officers and men of the Monaghan Volunteer Fire Brigade was held for the purpose of taking steps for its thorough re-organization.

TYRONE.

A man named William Corbett was found dead in a cornfield near Irvinestown, recently.

An A. P. A. Orator silenced.—Los Angeles, Cal., September 30.—J. K. Gosper, a Republican politician and an A. P. A. man, was invited to address the Unity Club. In the course of his remarks, he charged that, under the Catholic Cathedral, in this city, were 500 stands of arms. D. F. Donegan, a prominent contractor, arose in the audience and, displaying a $1,000 certificate, declared the statement was a lie, and that he would give the check to the A. P. A. if it was true. Excitement fellowed. The chairman said Gosper had violated the courtesy of the club. Gosper then said that he had been told that the arms were there.

Just what they all say when they are comered. Well done Brother Donegan. Nail the lie to the flagg staff every time.

A strange case has recently developed in Kansas City. A girl named Lillian Miller, eleven years of age, he had convulsions and immediately after the convulsions she took on the appearance of a very old woman in speech and manner and claimed to be ninty-nine years old, and did not know those of her own family. In the course of an hour or so she resumed her normal condition. Now her time is about equally divided between the two conditions, while an old woman she eats ravenously and has grown to the statue and development of a woman within the last three months—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

She must be an A. P. A. in disguise.

Cardinal Gibbons returned to Baltimore from a visitation to Catholic churches in Western Maryland. During his ten days' trip the Cardinal confirmed 1,015 persons and preached two or three sermons a day. His Eminence is in excellent health.
