A Bar Bought at Least 12 Doz. 10

Plainville, Kas.

Since the last eight years I have bought at least twelve dozen of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic. I keep it always on hand for people who need it in my mission. I know that it always has the desired effect. Rev. J. B. Vornholt.

Rev. Sister M. Vida, of Moberly, Mo., writes: "I was suffering from defective circulation, brought on by overwork in school. I consulted several physicians, but I became worse. I couldn't sleep and almost became desperate for want of sleep. I then took one dose of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, which made me sleep all night, and then took the Tonic for two more weeks, till I could sleep again without it half the night."

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by the REV. FATHER KOENIG, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now by the GLADSTONE AND DOROTHY.

Her Literal Translation of the Bible Saved the Day.

This is the season when good housewives have trouble with the servants who cannot get up But I doubt if it ever occurs to them, as it did to Miss Dorothy Drew when she was not more than seven, that the Scriptures emphasize the vanity of early rising, says the "Tattler" Dorothy positively refused to get up, and her grandfather, Mr. Gladstone, had to be called to overawe the rebel.

"Why don't you get up, Dorothy?" he asked.

"Because the Bible doesn't approve of early rising, grandfather," was the unexpected reply.

"Really, Dorothy," said the astonished statesman, "you must be mistaken."

"Oh, no, I'm not," she persisted; "here is it," and she turned up the second verse of the 127th Psalm: "It is vain for you to rise up early" The old parliamentarian had nothing more to say. The argument floored him.

Spontaneous Irish Wit.

American travelers in Ireland make a point of extracting spontaneous Irish wit, and often are rewarded.

Cyrus W. Field, of Atlantic cable fame, once stopped a peasant to make inquiries about Blarney Castle. Receiving the information, he gave the Irishman the following conundrum:

"Now, Mike, suppose that Lucifer was sure of us both; which would he take first, do you think?"

The Irishman looked thoughtfully for a moment, then said: "Yer honor, I think he'd take me."

"Why," asked Feld.

"Because he's always sure of you."

On another occasion a well known American writer for young people, upon landing at Queenstown, was on the alert to hear an Irish bull or some witty remark. She took an express train to Dublin direct, which did not stop at any other station on the way. Several persons mistook the train and rose to get off when nearing one of the way stations.

"Keep your sates!" roared the conductor. "Keep your sates! This thrain niver stops at all."

HOLY ROSARY

The meeting of the members of Branch 545, L. C. B. A. on last Friday evening was well attended.

To-morrow is communion Sunday for the women and girls of the parish.

A clam bake was held last Wednesday evening at the Holy Rosary hall for the benefit of the church from 5 to 10 p.m. The success of the affair from a financial stand point was largely due to the good work of the committee which consisted of Rev. Father Van Ness, Messrs John H. Weis, Thos. Shannon, John Heron and E. N. Lorchester.

HOLY APOSTLES

To-morrow is communion Sunday for the women and girls of the parish.

The funeral of Mr. Chas. O'Brien was held from this church last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and was largely attended by the many friends and relatives of the deceased.

To-morrow the collection for the school will be taken up.

Miss Mary J. Hery and Mr. Frank Callahan were united in marriage last Wednesday morning by Rev Father Hickey. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Hery and the groomsman was Hon Charles E. Callahan, brother of the groom.

NATIONAL THEATRE.

An attraction of more than ordinary interest to theatre goers is the Western comedy drama, "Our Pastor," in which Mr Daniel Sully and his company will appear at the National Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 18, 19, 20. The role of Father Daly gives Mr. Sully great opportunities for the display of that rich Celtic humor which is characteristic of his comedy methods.

"Uncle Joe" and the Farmer.

Speaker Cannon is a great lover of green corn He boards at the Arlington and one day took one of his Illinois farmer constituents to dinner with him Cannon made his dinner on green corn, eating seven ears The farmer asked him how much he paid for board at the Arlington and Cannon replied Six dollars a day "Well," said the farmer constituent, Joe, don't you think it would be cheaper for you to board at a livery stable?"—Kansas City Journal

The Chief Trouble.

Sprigg went to a noted physician to ask advice as to his health

In pompous tones he addressed the doctor

"I ah have come to—ah—awsk you ah—what what is ah—the doosid mattaw with me ah."

"I find your heart is affected," said the physician, gravely

"Oh—ah anything else—ah?"

"Yes, your lungs are affected, too."

"Anything ah else—ah?"

"Yes; your manners are also affected."—Washington Life
