Catholic Theatre Presentation Set At Nazareth College

The Catholic Theatre of Rochester will present Halsey Melone's new comedy-drama "KG" at Nazareth College auditorium on Friday and Saturday evenings, Oct. 22 and 23 at 8:30 p.m.

Melone's prize-winning play deals with five American soldiers in a German prison camp during World War II; the title being taken from the German word "kreigesgefangenen" or prisoner of war. The author himself was a prisoner during the war with Germany and much of the play reflects his actual experiences.

H. Melone

A genuine realism that lends additional appeal to the play has been captured in the outstanding settings designed by Carl Zollo, art director of Rochester's Station WVET-TV. Zollo's work is well-known through previous Catholic Theatre productions, at Pittsford Summer Theatre and Arena Theatre.

RONALD PEDRONE is the director of "KG", and Jack Burton is in charge of set construction.

Other behind the scenes personnel include: Fred Adams, Jean Strachan, Thomas McAvinney, Don Amann, Art Fuchs, Grace Tomarelli, Leonard Kamien, Tom Arcara, Margaret Lipper, Don Bates, Marcelline Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gehrlein, Agnes Marie Coon, Helen Closser, John Vollmer, Edward Sloan, Geraldine Cellura, Betty Schwab, Helen Cooper, Mikell Clark, Marianne Schlagenhauf and Lois Kirby.

Inquiry Classes Slated By St. Charles Parish

Inquiry Class will be held in the St. Charles Borromeo School beginning Tuesday, Oct. 19 at 7:45 p.m., according to an announcement in the parish bulletin.

Different lay groups in the parish have been instrumental in the preparatory work of the class.

A small group of parish school children banded together in an unofficial organization know as the "Handmaids of the Little Flower". With St. Therese as their patroness this little group of seventh and eighth grade girls have been active in a small missionary enterprise over the past four years.

Many of their activities are held under the direction of Mrs. Bernard Donaghue of 60 West Parkway. In their latest apostolic endeavor the Handmaids have volunteered to mail out literature concerning the St. Charles Borromeo Inquiry Class, and to handle the necessary details of setting up the class.

Priest of the parish will conduct the class on 25 successive Tuesday evenings, beginning at 7:45 p.m. and ending at 8:30 p.m., with a question period following each session. Information on the Catholic Church and its teachings will form the subject matter of the class, aimed primarily at non-Catholics, but with Catholics also invited.

Sauerkraut Supper, Bazaar Scheduled

Immaculate Heart of Mary Sodality of SS. Peter and Paul Church, Rochester, will sponsor a sauerkraut supper and bazaar in the school hall on Thursday, Nov. 11.

Honorary chairman is Mrs. Joseph Brien; chairman is Mrs. Connell Habecker; cochairman, Mrs. George Steger; bazaar chairman, Mrs. Edward Kolb.

BISHOP SHEEN TELECAST

Birth Control Movie Shown In India

Calcutta, India — (NC) — The Herald, Catholic paper of this city has criticized the screening at all Calcutta cinemas of a documentary film on family planning.

The film was distributed by the information and broadcasting ministry of the Indian government. All movie houses are obliged to exhibit it along with usual feature films.

The Herald noted that the screening of the film was part of the Indian government's scheme for a nation-wide use of contraceptives to check population growth.

Future Of U.N.

"What Hope for the United Nations" will be debated by three students of foreign affairs in the "Court of Public Opinion" television program to be broadcast over Station WHAM-TV (Channel 5) at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 17.

Film Teaches Music To Grade Schoolers

Dayton, Ohio — (NC) — A new 16 millimeter color film showing how to teach rhythm bands and string instruments in the primary grades is available for classroom teachers.

Called "Now There Shall be Music," the film was prepared by the Geo. A. Pflaum Company of this city, publishers of the Messenger series of classroom periodicals and the Treasure Chest comic book.
