A NEW ALTAR.

Consecrated by Bishop McQuaid, at St. Michael's Church — Gift of the Children.

A new altar to the Blessed Virgin was dedicated in St Michael's Church Tuesday, by Bishop McQuaid.

The altar is the gift to the church by the children of the parish. It cost about $500.

After the dedication ceremony was over, the bishop addressed the children, saying in part:

"It is with pleasure and much satisfaction that your Bishop blesses this altar. The pleasure in blessing this altar is increased because it is the offering of the children of the parish. Rarely does it happen that the children of a parish do what has been done for this church. The history of your work is remarkable, when one pauses to consider that it was the accumulation not of silver and gold pieces, but of pennies, that made this presentation possible. Well may any one ask How does it happen that you do this; you are not the children of the rich, but the children of hard, struggling parents? The answer, however, is simple: All with one mind, and with the pennies that they saved, resisting the temptations of the many shops and stores that hold their doors open to attract you with wares both pleasing to the eye and sweet to the taste; you resisted these temptations, and, with the pennies carefully husbanded, you brought this altar to the church."

The following priests were present: Rev Francis H Sinclair, of SS. Peter and Paul, Rev. Fred'k Rauber, of St. Boniface, Rev. Dietrick Laurenzis, of the Church of the Holy Family, Rev. F. H. Kuborn, of St Joseph's, Rev. M. J. Hargather, of St Francis Xavier, Rev. T. Sadzinski, of Regenborden, of St. Michael's.

CATHEDRAL.

The census of the Cathedral parish is being taken.

First communion will be given to a large class in the Cathedral on the feast of the Ascension, May 23d, at the 8 o'clock mass.

May devotions began in the Cathedral Tuesday evening with a procession of the Young Ladies' Sodality, the Children of Mary, the Boys' Sodality of the Blessed Sacrament and the little children of the parish. These marched to the church from Cathedral Hall. The devotions always attract a large throng of worshipers, and a larger throng of elbowing, curious people who want to see and who never feel that there is a something hidden which by crowding they can discover. The sight of a few hundred young women and boys singing hymns always provokes their curiosity. The church was decorated by the Sodality, which keeps the Blessed Mother's shrine beautiful during all her beautiful month.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S

The marriage of Mr. Charles Nattle to Miss Lulu Horn, was solemnized at this church last Tuesday. Solemn High Mass being celebrated by Rev. Dr. Sinclair, D D., assisted by Rev. Fathers Poppel and Van Ness. The happy couple are spending their honeymoon in Philadelphia.

The athletic exhibition which was given by the members of the Rochester Turn-Verein at this hall Tuesday, was a decided success. The Columbia bicycle which was drawn on that evening was won by Miss Clara Smith, of Kenwood avenue, the lucky number was 922.

Holy Rosary.

Rev. J. G. Van Ness is working hard to have the children's library readv for opening in a few days.

William C. Barry has donated a number of trees to be planted in the Holy Rosary grounds on Lexington Avenue. One of the trees, a pretty poplar, was planted Friday by the school children with appropriate Arbor Day exercises.

ST. BRIDGET'S

The devotion of the Forty Hours opened auspiciously on Sunday in St Bridget's Church. Father Hogan, of South Dakota, celebrated mass with Father Hendrick and Rev. Dr. Meahan as deacon and sub-deacon. Forty little girls strewed flowers before the Blessed Sacrament in the procession. In the evening Rev. T. Hickey of the State Industrial School preached on "Faith." Mrs. Rampe sang for the first time since her illness "Close Veiled in this Sweet Sacrament," and Mr. Kenna sang "Veni Creator Spiritus." Father Ferron, of St. Mary's, preached on Monday evening.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

In the Immaculate Conception Church the devotions began on Wednesday evening. On Friday evening in both churches Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given in honor of the Sacred Heart.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York —An Immense Congregation Present.

With all the pomp and ceremony of the Catholic Church, the tenth anniversary of the consecration of the old St Patrick's Cathedral, Mulberry and Mott streets, was celebrated last Sunday. The services commenced at 11 o'clock with the celebration of a solemn pontifical mass. The celebrant was Rt Rev. Mgr. Satolli. Archbishop Corrigan occupied the old Episcopal throne on the Gospel side of the altar. The sanctuary was a mass of flowers, the beauty of which was enhanced by hundreds of lighted candles on the main and side altars. Inside of the sanctuary was a large array of notable ecclesiastics among them being Bishop H. P. Northrop, of Charleston, and Vicar-General Mgr. Quigley.

One of the largest congregations that old St. Patrick's has ever held was present to grace the occasion, every seat being occupied and the middle and side aisles being crowded with worshippers who were obliged to stand. At the conclusion of the mass which was intoned by the Apostolic Delegate in a clear and melodious voice, the congregation knelt and received from Archbishop Satolli, the Papal benediction, after which he retired with the assistant priests to the vestry.

Archbishop Corrigan, removing his beretta and facing the congregation from his throne, paid a glowing tribute to Father Kearney for his untiring efforts which resulted in liquidating the debt of the church ten years ago and congratulated the congregation for the able support which they had accorded their pastor in his efforts to attain this object. He briefly recalled the importance of the old Cathedral and of the many events it recalled to ones mind both pleasant and sad and hoped that the congregation would continue to give to their pastor the same proof of their devotion as they have in the past.

At the conclusion of the Archbishop's remarks, Father Kean, pastor of St. James Church, preached the sermon. Father Kean was selected as preacher for the occasion owing to the fact that in his boyhood days he was one of the many little acolytes there who have since passed into the ranks of priesthood.

Nudge Your Thoughts

It's time you were making ideas or using ours. These sample days of summer give a hint of better ones not far away. Why not give a little time to the consideration of warm weather apparel? Cleaner, prettier, daintier wash fabrics never crowded each other for popular havoc here.

Same materials in perfect ready-made garments and suits if you want.

Duck Suits.

Perhaps you hadn't thought of Duck Suits yet We thought of them long ago and gave directions for putting them together. They're superb costumes for general summer wear. No summer girl begins the outing season until she has supplied herself with several of them. Yesterday afternoon we placed the new styles on sale.

Most any maid would look perfectly lovely in one of our handsome Duck Suits, mixed colors, with Eton jacket and full skirt. The price is only $3.69.

Naturally larger price means greater worth. We're selling Navy Blue Duck Suits, handsome reefer and full skirt, for $4.69.

Strikingly pretty Pique suits navy blue, light blue, tan and pink.

Wash Fabrics

It would be easier to tell of Wash Fabrics by the car load than by the pattern. We can't speak of a thousandth part of them. We have all the leading patterns in the cool, airy, lovely stuffs.

Ducks and Piques are shown in designs worthy of fabrics ten times costlier. Hundreds of striped, figured, mixed and plain ones.

Shirt Waists

Do without wash waists and you do without summer comfort. Some ladies manage to get along with only two. Laundered Shirts Waists. A half dozen would be better for the sweltering days of summer and you can get that number for a surprisingly small sum.

Shirt Waists in light and dark prints, 25c to 47c.

Misses' Laundered Shirt Waists, 49c to 97c.

Ladies' Shirt Waists, excellent material and make, 57c to $1.[illegible]
