the secret of CHARTREUSE

The secret formula for Chartreuse Liqueur was originally given to the Carthusian Monks in 1605 by the Marshall d'Estrées. Through the centuries no one has ever duplicated this rare recipe combining more than 130 different herbs, gathered by the Monks near their Monastery of La Grande Chartreuse in France.

You will find Chartreuse on the menu of every leading hotel and restaurant and at every leading retailer. Try it when dining out, or buy a small bottle to serve at home.

'Family Theatre' Show Cited As Best Portraying U.S.

New York —(NC)— Father Patrick Peyton, C.S.C., world renowned Family Rosary crusader, received a citation here attesting that the Family Theater radio program, which he founded and directs, is "the radio program best portraying America."

The award was made at a dinner in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel when the first Mass Media Awards of the Thomas Alva Edison Foundation were announced. The foundation inaugurated the annual awards to encourage more wholesome influences for youth in the mass media.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER at the dinner was Walker L. Cisler, president of the Detroit Edison Company, who emphasized that, while there was a need in industry for scientists and engineers, there also is a tremendous need for building up the spiritual and moral values of the American people.

Irish-born Father Peyton founded the Family Theater program, which is carried by the Mutual Broadcasting System, in 1947. Since its inception, the program has been consistently rated as one of radio's top favorites. It is the program which made famous Father Peyton's slogan "The family that prays together, stays together."

'Ice Capades' Star Given City Memento

Donna Atwood, star of the "Ice Capades" which was produced last week at the new Rochester War Memorial, received a silver tea service at a matinee performance from John D. Roche, chairman of the War Memorial Commission.

Roche acted for Les Harrison, sponsor of the "Capades" week-long engagement at the Memorial.

Miss Atwood, wife of John Harris, producer of the show, announced that she is retiring after this season. Harrison said he and his associates wanted her to remember her Rochester visit.
