Well Satisfied. 11

Stephan, S. Dak., April, 1893.

After using half a bottle of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness and nervousness, I must confess that it is the best medicine I ever used.

SISTER VICTORIA.

The Best Medicine For Sleeplessness.

Streator, Ill., May 8, 1893.

I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness, from which I was suffering fifteen years. The Tonic had the desired effect. It is the only medicine which gives me sleep.

Miss Mamie Hanratty, eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hanratty, died on Thursday of last week of consumption, aged 16 years and 10 months. Funeral was held at Holy Cross Church on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Six of her friends acted as honorary pall bearers as follows: Misses Martha Feehan, Ida Rafferty, Genevieve McLaughlin, Allie French, Anna Carroll and Katie McArdle. The heart-stricken parents have the entire sympathy of the community.

Miss Mame Hanratty of Auburn, spent a few days at her home here last week.

Thomas Connell of Canandaigua, visited friends here last Sunday.

Thomas McCarriagher and George Fitz Simmons left last Monday night for New York from whence they sailed for Ireland Wednesday to stay a few months.

Rushville.

Memorial Day was duly observed at the Opera House in this village. A large number were in attendance. The stage was decorated with National colors. The members of the Scott G. A. R. occupied reserved front seats. Rev. Father Payne's address was an eloquent effort bearing a just and patriotic sentiment, and a beautiful tribute to the members of the G. A. R. and their departed comrades. His plea to the rising generation to honor the heroes of the late war made a deep impression on his hearers.

The music by William's orchestra and the singing by the quartette was appropriate. There were no special services at the cemetery, yet a great many visited the grounds and viewed the graves of those who are worthy of the loving tribute paid them on this day.

Miss Hattie Sheehan returned to Rochester Monday after spending a few weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheehan.

The house owned by Mrs. Fannie Conway on Main Street is being repaired.

Miss Mary Dawson of Rochester, is home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan are very proud just at present. It's a boy that is stopping there.

Regent's examination will be held June 10th to 15th in the Rushville school.

Geneva.

James Jones, upon whom an operation for appendicites was performed on Saturday, died at his home on Evans street at 1 o'clock Monday morning. The deceased was 25 years of age, and was born in Seneca Falls. In his early infancy his parents removed to Hamilton, Canada. A brother and two sisters constitute his immediate relatives, his parents being dead. The remains left Geneva at noon Monday for Hamilton, where interment will take place. They were accompanied by his brother and sisters, also by Jno. F. Toole, representing the A. O. H. and Daniel Quinlan and Edward Wickham, a committee from the Iron Moulder's Union, of which organization the deceased was an active and honored member. 200 members of the I. M. U. and 60 of the A. O. H. wearing suitable mourning badges followed the remains of the deceased brother to the train. The floral tributes were beautiful and appropriate. The bearers were Wm. Hitchcock, Herbert Reynolds, George McLaughlin, Wm. J. Broderick, John Riley and Frank Fitzpatrick.

Miss May Lally died on the evening of June 3d at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Salby, on Hamilton street. The cause of her death was consumption. The deceased was 27 years of age. The funeral was held at St. Francis de Sales Church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Weedsport.

Mr. Wm. McCullen and Miss Satie Holmes of Auburn, attended the dance Thursday evening, given by the Ball Players.

Mr. Barney McMannis of Auburn, spent Sunday in town.

The ball game played between the Past Times of Syracuse, and the Watsons' of this village was an enjoyable game. It was in favor of the Watson's. The score was 27 to 5.

Miss Alice Hearn and brother Michael of Port Byron, attended the dance Thursday evening.

Miss Angie McNearney and her niece, Margaret McManus spent Sunday in Auburn. Miss Mary Graney of Lyons, spent a few days in town last week visiting relatives.

Rev. Father O'Donohue left here on Saturday for New York, from whence he will sail for Ireland on Wednesday for a vacation of four or five months with his mother.

Mr. E. H. Pease of Auburn was the guest of relatives Monday.

Phelps.

Rev. A. M. O'Neil attended the Devotion of the Forty Hours in Shortsville on Sunda

Mr. and Mrs. James Sweeney, Jr., are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy.

Joseph McKenna is riding a new Columbia bicycle.

Rev. John P. Brophy expects to celebrate his first solemn High Mass in St. Francis Church, Phelps, on June 16th.

The members of the Class of '95 of the Phelps Union school have organized with the following officers: president, Edna Hicks; vice-president, Agnes M. Coughlin; secretary, Clara A. Barber; treasurer, Elsie J. Fox; salutatorian, Oscar Niles: valedictorian, Anna Wight; class prophet, Lewis Benton. The other members of the class are Kathleen St. Brophy, Wilhelmina Falky, Linnie P. Fridley and Minnie E. Chapin.

Aurora.

Mrs. William Cavanaugh has been spending a few days at Ithaca with her daughter, Miss Mary.

Miss Julia Cotter has returned from New York, and is now at Kings Ferry for a few weeks.

Mrs. Ellen Clayton is the guest of her daughter, Mrs James Burns.

Shortsville.

Mrs. Hirst of Rochester, returned home after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Kinsella.

The Forty Hours devotion commenced at St. Dominic Church, June 2nd, and closed the 4th.

Miss Minnie Shaw started Thursday, May 30th, for Union Springs, where she will spend the summer.

To Subscribers.

BOTH OLD AND NEW.

The most liberal proposition ever made to the readers of THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL.

Read It and Take Advantage Of It.

In order to extend the circulation and influence of THE JOURNAL, the publishers are now prepared to make an offer that ought to accomplish their object, and that is to present to every subscriber (new or old), sending in his or her name, and at the same time remitting One Dollar for one year's subscription, in advance, any of the following Imported Oleographs, 12x16.

They are gems of art. Beautifully colored in harmonizing shades, and undoubtedly the finest line of artistically colored pictures on the market; they must be seen to be appreciated. The assortment is varied and comprises 256 different popular subjects, to which new subjects will be added.

By Different Names.

One of the foreign diplomats in Washington, who is seldom called by his right name, is Senor Antonio Lazo-Arriaga. He is generally referred to as Minister Arriaga, which is his mother's name, his own name being Antonio Lazo. "In Central America," he says in explaining the matter, "where a son bears his father's Christian name he adds his mother's family name, in order that a proper distinction may be observed between his sire and himself. For example: My father's name is Antonio Lazo. I also was named Antonio, and in order that I should not be confounded with my father I added my mother's family name, which is Arriaga. My eldest son is also named Antonio, and in order that he may be distinguished from his grandfather and myself, he will add his mother's—that is, my wife's—family name, which is Morales. Thus the three generations in my family, all Lazos, will be Antonio Lazo, Antonio Lazo-Arriaga and Antonio Lazo-Morales."—New York Tribune.

Information From a Man.

The bloomer dress is a pair of trousers, very baggy at the knees, abnormally full at the pistol pockets and considerably full where you strike a match.

The garment is cut decollete at the south end and the bottoms tied around the ankles or knees to keep the mice out.

You can't put it over your head like you do your shirt, nor around you like a corset, but you must sit on the floor and pull it on just as you do your stockings, one foot at a time in each compartment.

You can easily tell the right side to have in front by the buttons on the neckband.—Rehoboth Herald.

Thought She Was Safe.

Judge—Your age?

Lady—Thirty years.

Judge (incredulously)—You will have some difficulty in proving that.

Lady—(excitedly)—You'll find hard to prove the contrary, as the church register which contained the entry of my name was burned in the year 1845.—Texas Siftings.

Wedded Bliss.

Friend—And you are very happy?

Bride—Very. Almost every day I hear of some other girl who would have jumped at the chance to marry my husband.—Detroit Tribune.
