Miss Hampton Nuptials Held

Hammondsport — Miss Jean Marie Hampton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Hampton of 49 Main St., was married June 10 to Dr. Eugene Joseph Stanton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Stanton of 1 Washington Pl., Carbondale, Pa.

St. Gabriel's Church was the scene of the double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Edward Ryan.

Miss Ruth Hampton was her sister's maid of honor, while Miss Eileen Gleason of Hornell and Miss Nancy Vizza of Jamestown served as bridesmaids.

Best man for Dr. Stanton was Harold Sullivan of Washington, D.C. Dr. Robert Zwireck and Gerald Nowak of Buffalo assisted guests to their seats.

Separate Classification

Never Take Candy From a Stranger—The subject matter of this film deals with a perennial sociological problem, namely the molestation of small children. Although treated with moral caution and without sensationalism the film could, in a mass medium of entertainment, have a seriously harmful effect upon the very young and uninformed unless accompanied by a parent. For this reason the advertising of this film carries the observation: "Notice to Parents—No child will be admitted unless accompanied by you."

Here Are Some Good Movies

New York—(NC)—There are a number of "wholesome" family-type movies being shown this summer, an official of the National Legion of Decency said here.

Msgr. Thomas F. Little, executive of the Legion, said that among them are "Misty," story of two children on a pony ranch, and "Question 7," a drama of the conflict between the Church and communism in Germany today. Both have been cited by the Legion of Decency as superior motion pictures.

Msgr. Little also recommended the "Guns of Navarone," "The Parent Trap" and "Francis of Assisi."

And 'parents with more mature children," he stated, "will find worthwhile entertainment in "Fanny," "The Naked Edge" and "The Bridge."

Mail Truck Hazards

Postmaster Louis B. Cartwright of Rochester has issued an appeal, urging parents of young children in suburban areas to warn them of the dangers involved when mail trucks stop in front of their homes.

"It is natural for children to want to meet the mailman and to take what he has for delivery to his parents," Cartwright said.

"The children become so absorbed in what they are doing that they are unaware of even the presence of a vehicle, much less the danger of running in front of them or behind them."

"Recently, one of our carriers drove up to a curb mail box, made his delivery and started away. He had gone some distance when he discovered that a child hitching a ride on the rear bumper of his vehicle had fallen off. Fortunately, the child was not seriously injured."

Barbershop Quartets Listed

Barbershop Harmony Under the Stars will be presented at Highland Park Bowl on Saturday, July 15 at 8 p.m. by the Genesee Chapter of S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A.

Featured will be the Northern Lights, the Flower City Four, the Note Crackers and the Genesee Chapter Chorus, 1961 representatives of Seneca Land District in the International Chorus Contest in Philadelphia, directed by Louis Ugino.

A special attraction will be the Tomlinson Sisters of Clifton Springs, three time winners on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour. There is no admission charge.

No Cassocks On Streets

Montreal — (NC) — Priests in Montreal must wear black suits and Roman collars in public from now on, instead of the cassocks which many have been accustomed to wear.

These instructions were issued here by Paul Emile Cardinal Leger, Archbishop of Montreal, because of changes in the public's attitude toward clerical attire.

His instructions prescribe that priests, including both diocesan priests and members of religious communities, are to wear the cassock in church. But on the street the black suit and Roman collar are prescribed. Similar regulations apply to seminarians and Brothers, except that those who are not in major orders are to wear a white shirt and black tie rather than the Roman collar.

Summer Stock

Yankees At T&C

By Suzanne Wigg

Town and Country Musicals' next attraction, the musical comedy called "Damn Yankee" which was hailed by both critics and the theater-going public as a pennant winner for more than two years during its original New York run, will open on Monday, July 10 for a week's run.

"Damn Yankees" tells an amusing tale of a middle-aged baseball fan driven to desperation by the consistently poor record of his home town team, the Washington Senators.

One night when the Senators lose again, he says bitterly to his wife—who is good-natured enough not to be listening — that he'd give his soul if he could get in there and win some games for his team. Whereupon, (in "Faust"-like fashion,) up pops the Devil to take up his offer.

In a flash the overweight, middleaged citizen is converted not only to youth, but to a sensational baseball player. The Devil (called Applegate in the musical) quickly gets him on the Washington team and immediately the team starts climbing up in the standings to take the pennant from the unbeatable Yankees.

But the Devil's victory is not complete. The diabolically gifted ballplayer gets homesick for his understanding middle-aged wife and comfortable home and he is on the way to sliding out of the devilish compact. Mephisto still has a trick or two and he calls in his most reliable handmaiden, Lola, to help him out.

The satisfying thing about the tale is that Joe beats the Yankees and still saves his soul. The score for "Damn Yankees" was written by the same songwriting team that provided the score for "Pajama Game," Richard Adler and Jerry Ross.

Some of the hits from "Yankee" include "You Gotta Have Heart," "A Man Doesn't Know," "Who's Got The Pain," "Whatever Lola Wants" and "Shoeless Joe From Hannibal, Mo."

Funny man Leo Bloom, who will be remembered for his side-splitting portrayal of "Sittin' Bull" in East Rochester's first musical of the season,—"Annie Get Your Gun, will play the part of the devil, Applegate. Stan Page, whose career runs from opera to night clubs, will be seen as the hard-hitting hero, Joe Hardy.

Marcolla Dodge, who has many Brodaway credits, will be Lola. Rochester's Jack Slattery, well known WHAM radio personality, will be featured as Smoky, the catcher, a member of the "You Gotta Have Heart" quartet.

The world's most favorite operetta, "The Merry Widow" will be the next attraction at Corning Summer Theatre. This gay and enchanting musical by Franz Lehar will open Tuesday, July 11 for a week's run.

This sparkling and romantic story with the immortal score of Franz Lehar is still as fresh and ecstatic as it was in 1905 when it opened in Vienna. The score includes the lovely ballad "Villa" and the ever-popular "Merry Widow Waltz."
