Susie R. Quinn

Resolutions Adopted on her death by Central Council, L. C. B. A.

The following resolutions on the death of Susie R. Quinn have been adopted by the Central Council L.C.B. A.

Whereas, Through the wisdom of a kind and merciful Father our worthy past president and sister Miss Susie R. Quinn has been called to her reward, therefore be it

Resolved—That we the members of the Central Council of the L.C.B.A., bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father who has called from us one who always met us with a smile, and one who was ever ready to assist us in our work, with kind words and deeds. Her death has brought grief to our hearts, her saintly life being of the kind that found expression in work as well as in prayer and acts of devotion. May her soul rest in peace.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread on our minutes and published in the Catholic Journal and the daily papers.

Cook Opera House.

Miss Jessie Bonstelle, whose engagement at Cook Opera House has proven to be the most successful she has ever played at a Rochester Theater, will present during the last week of her brief season here, beginning Monday night, the successful three-act comedy, "A Woman's Way." This comedy is one of the most successful comedies produced in the last decade and while the performances to be given by Miss Bonstelle and her excellent company are the first that have ever been offered at popular prices, it is also worthy of note that this will be the first time "A-Woman's Way" has ever been presented by a stock company.

Wouldn't Interfere.

"It's raining hard, my dear," remarked a man to his wife.

"Well, let it rain!" responded the lady snappishly.

"Certainly, my dear. That's really just what I intended to do."

The Constitution.

"My wife always consults me about every article of attire she buys—frocks, hats, shoes, gloves, everything."

"My wife does, too—that is, she asks me for the money."

Paced Too Rapidly.

"Waiter, ask the orchestra to play something different."

"Any particular selection, sir?"

"Something slower. I want them to play that property to music [illegible]

[illegible] recently brought down the house with the following argument: "I have no vote, but my grandfather has. I have a great respect for that man in the abstract, but I am sure if I were to go to him and say, 'John, will you surrender the franchise?' he would reply, 'Please, sonny, which hand he used?'"

A Real Regret.

Editor—I am obliged to decline your poem with thanks. I am very sorry, but— Poet—But what? Editor—The management insists upon my birthday all poems that way.

Elevating.
