The letter follows:

"Rev. Father:

"I was very satisfied when I heard of the remarkable progress which the Catholic Medical Mission Board in the United States has made lately, and that you are now in possession of new headquarters that are convenient for a work of such importance. I am very grateful for all that you do for this so very apostolic aim, and I hope sincerely that by the help of American Catholics we shall be able to give to all our missionaries and to all our missions the medical aid with which they need so sorely.

"The apostolate by means of medical assistance to the poor natives is most efficacious, and is sometimes the only way to bring their still poorer souls to Christ.

"So I bless your work and I pray the Queen of the Missions to protect it efficaciously so that it may grow and reach to the perfection which is the object of all your desires and of your strenuous, continual work. I bless also all those who help and support your efforts in any way, and am

"Yours sincerely in Christ,
"W. M. CARD. VAN ROSSUM."
