The members of the Executive Committe of the N. C. C. M., with the approval of His Excellency Bishop Scrembs of Cleveland, have decided upon the City of Chicago as the Convention City for the fourteenth annual convention to be held in October. The details of the program have not yet been announced. The general program, in addition to covering the projects fostered by the general committees of the N. C. C. M., will deal largely with the present crisis and industrial recovery.

The reports of the various committees, particularly upon the Catholic Press, will be interesting. A distinct gain has been made in the circulation of Catholic periodicals and papers in the past year due to the efforts of the Catholic Press Association, the excellence of the material given out bp the N. C. W. M. News Service and a concerted drive by Catholic—Editors throughout the country calling particular attention to the improved condition in the Catholic Press, and its ability to get the latest Catholic news at a very reasonable rate into every Catholic home.

Without the Catholic Press the ordinary layman would find it very difficult to get the Catholic news, and what is more important, to learn the attitude of the Church upon such a vast program of industrial recovery as the country is undertaking at this time. There are undoubtedly dangers in such a comprehensive program of recovery, but with the proper application of Catholic principles as enunciated in the various Encyclicals of the Holy Father and, the letter of the administrative committee of Bishops of the United States recently issued on indutrial recovery these dangers can be avoided.

The convention program will properly deal with the possibilities of further development and the means best available to get into the hands of the Catholic people the views of the Church on the program that will probably mean the rehabilitation of the industrial life of the country.

The selection of the City of Chicago is in accord with the action of most large national organizations this year due to its central position in the country, and also due to the fact that special inducements in the way of reduction of railroad fares have been made by the railroads this year on account of the Century of Progress Exposition. The invitation was most warmly issued by His Eminence Cardinal Mundelein, His Excellency Bishop Shields, Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, will be active in the working out of the program of the convention.

It is hoped that a large percentage of lay Societies which are affiliated with the N. C. C. M. will find a possible way to send delegates to this convention, which will be perhaps one of the most important conventions held so far. Catholic thought and action should play no small part in the new deal.

The Committee on Children will discuss utilization of public and private agencies in the Catholic program of child care. Other meetings of the Children's section will deal with plans for dependent adolescents. Among the speakers will be Rev. C. H. LeBlond, Director of Catholic Charities, Cleveland. The section meetings of Committee on Protective Care will be devoted to discussion of the entire group of case work techniques involved in systems of probation and parole. Special emphasis will be given to the indirect case work relating to the development of volunteer effort in the field of protective care. Transportation to the picnic grove will be arranged by the committee in charge. Announcements regarding the outing will be made later.

Auxiliary No. 45 came into existence on August 5, 1898, at a meeting of young women of St. Michael's parish called in the parish hall by the then President, Philip Kamb of St. Michael's Commandery No. 40. Diocesan-Wide Effort To Be Made To Increase Readers of Courier

Charles A. Tucker, Prominent Catholic Lay Leader, To Direct Activity for Developing Reader Interest for Official Newspaper of Rochester Diocese

With the approval and encouragement of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, Vicar Capitular of the Diocese of Rochester, a well planned effort to increase the friends and subscribers to the Catholic Courier, official diocesan newspaper, will be launched in the parishes of the diocese within a few days.

A little over a year ago, our late beloved Bishop O'Hern took over the control of the Catholic Courier and under his direction the Rev. Leo C. Mooney was placed in active charge of the newspaper. Offices have been established in the Columbus Civic Center. A new typographical dress throughout was given the physical appearance of the paper and a capable editorial staff organized. The newspaper is now, in fact, a diocesan organ and an effort is being made weekly to make it more interesting and readable.

To direct the activity necessary for increasing readers of the Catholic Courier, Charles A. Tucker, prominent Catholic layman, has been appointed Circulation Manager. Mr. Tucker is Chancellor of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus; Secretary, Rochester Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Men; active in the Laymen's Retreat League and the Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society and had a prominent part in the foundation of Nocturnal Adoration Societies throughout the diocese. He is a member of St. Andrew's parish.

In the course of the next few weeks, Mr. Tucker, following up a recent letter sent out by Monsignor Hart, urging support of the Catholic Courier, will call on the pastors personally and outline the new plans. The proposed arrangement is for each pastor to plan for church-door distribution of a regular quantity of the Catholic Courier each week.

Has Carrier Boy System

Mr. Tucker has also developed a Catholic carrier-boy system to be worked out in the various parishes with the co-operation of the Reverend Pastors. His plan embraces a sampling program to be followed up by solicitation of parishioners to have the papers delivered to their homes weekly by the Catholic carrier-boy, at a price of five cents per copy.

It is with pleasure that the management of the Catholic Courier sends out Mr. Tucker as its representative. A graduate of Boston College and a former instructor at Aquinas Institute, he has had an ideal background for carrying the message of the Apostolate of the Catholic Press. We bespeak for him a cordial reception and know that a mutually satisfactory arrangement between the pastors and this newspaper may be worked out.

That the paper has been making progress may be gathered from a recent comment of the Rev. Francis P. LeBuffe, S. J., who said: "I have watched the Catholic Courier grow up in the past few months, and it is now one of the best weekly Catholic newspapers that comes to my desk, and I read them all."

Your DIOCESAN NEWSPAPER

FOR 18 MONTHS the CATHOLIC COURIER has been in the throes of reorganization, carrying toward realization the plan of the late Bishop O'Hern that this newspaper should be . . . and must be . . . worthy of its designation as the official diocesan newspaper, and worthy of the attention and support of the Catholic public throughout the Rochester Diocese.

REORGANIZATION has meant complete revision of every phase of newspaper production . . . new policies, new principles, new methods. The editorial and news content of this publication has been raised to a consistently high level. Type and printing have been improved to lend a distinction in character with the reading matter. Business procedure has been standardized to conform with sound ethical principles.

NOW THE GOAL is in sight! This newspaper has been remade, new in everything but its name. And already that name connotes a new force in the ranks of the Catholic Press, gaining national as well as local recognition.

NOW WE CAN look up from our task of carrying on toward an even greater improvement to say: "Here is an exceptional Catholic newspaper. It lacks but one element for complete success, — increased circulation. Without more readers our usefulness is limited and our problems multiplied. The CATHOLIC COURIER is your official diocesan newspaper. It is readable, informative, and a unique source of authoritative Catholic news. We need you as a regular reader of every issue!"

* "ONE OF THE BEST Catholic newspapers that comes to my desk . . ." says the Business Manager of "America," a national publication.

* "THE BRIGHTEST SPOT in the Catholic Press field," says a national leader in Catholic journalism.
