Vicar General's Father Dies

St Louis, Sept. 15 - Bernard J Schlarman, the father of the Rt Rev Msgr. Joseph Schlarman, Vicar General of the Diocese of Belleville, Ill., died at St. Vincent's Hospital, there a few days ago. Mr. Schlarman was born in Germantown, Ill., and entered St. Louis University in 1856. He was father of ten children and grandfather of many more. Among the latter is Dr. Charles Joseph Gissy, assistant professor of Ophthalmology at St. Louis University. Mr. Schlarman was a church trustee for 45 years and president and charter member of the Catholic Knights of America.

Some of the chaps who fulminate so seriously upon every topic under sun are funny individuals. Just listen to this outburst from Grove Patterson:—"A million people in the United States have asthma, doctors tell us. And yet asthma is a preventable, controllable, and curable disease. It is possible to tell a sufferer from this disease that relief he can get and how long it will take to get it. The same its true about many other diseases from which men, women and children suffer. There ought to be a law against having preventable and curable ailments."

Government Groups In Ireland Leading

Dublin, September 20.—With 13 seats in the Dail Eireann yet to be determined the Government group had a lead of three seats over the combined opposition forces. The Government party, with the Independents and Farmers had a total of 71 seats, while the Fianna Fail, with the Labor, National League and Communist groups had 68 seats. Returns are awaited from Donegal and Cork.

A Cosgrave candidate took one of the National University seats from a De Valera candidate. Eamonn De Valera being chancellor of the University, this is considered a Government victory on his "own grounds."

Catholic School In London, Fought By Board, Praised

London, Sept. 12.—Bigoted members of the St. Pancras Board of Guardians here, who, on the plea of economy, are trying to have 79 children transferred from Catholic schools to the board's own non-Catholic institutions at Leavesden, are finding themselves in an awkward position because a Ministry of Health officials has condemned the administration of the Leavesden schools.

Their quandary is two-fold, for non-Catholic as well as Catholic inspectors have nothing but praise for the Catholic schools.

A deputation from the Stepney board reported that they were "greatly impressed at the attention shown by the Sisters to the children's needs" at St. Mary's, North Hyde A Marylebone deputation were "charmed with the brightness of the nursery" at the school, and a Chelsea deputation "found everything satisfactory" there.

Excellent reports were made by deputations from other boards which visited St. Joseph's Southall, and St. Vincent's, Mill Hill. The St. Pancras board itself admits that the Catholic schools are efficient and well-conducted, and at the same time is forced to agree that its own institutions are badly managed.

Pittsburgh Church Made Generous Gift

Pittsburgh, Sept 16 An unnamed depositor in the First National Bank of Pittsburgh has promised to give $10,000 to the Sacred Heart Church of this city, provided the congregation of the church contributes $10,000 in the collection of Sunday, October 9 That date marks the first anniversary of the entrance of the congregation into the new church

Lawrence E. Sands, president of the bank, reveals the offer in a letter to the Rev Thomas F Coakley, pastor of the church

"We are advised", Mr Sands writes, "that a depositor in this bank will turn over to the Sacred Heart Church the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars in cash ($10,000) on October 10, 1927, to celebrate the first anniversary of the using of the new church. The gift is subject to the following conditions

"It is proposed that this sum of $10,000 will be given to the Sacred Heart Church when the members of your parish themselves on the second Sunday of October, 1927, that is, Sunday, October 9, contribute to your church collection the sum of $10,000 in cash, and this bank is certified that $10,000 has been paid in cash.

"In other words, I am authorized to say to you that this generous depositor of ours will match your congregation dollar for dollar to the extent of $10,000 on Sunday, October 9, 1927. It should be clearly understood, however, that to obtain this $10,000 your own congregation should contribute an equal sum."

It has been painted out that if the congregation gives $10,000 the collections of Sacred Heart Church may be said to total $20,000 for the Sunday of October 9, one of the largest collections in history.

People Give Silver And Gold Trinkets For Church Plate

London, Sept. 19.—To replace the church plate, stolen by burglars, parishioners of St. Peter's (Anglican) church, Chelmsford are turning out their jewel boxes and donating trinkets of gold and silver to the vicar, who appealed for this novel collection to replace the lost treasure.

A London silversmith offered to melt down the trinkets, and to remake them into church plate. Silver thimbles, match-box covers, bangles and rings were among the offerings.

Rev. Henry Becker Heads New Priory

Morristown, N. J., Sept. 20.—The Rev. Henry Becker, O. S. B., for seven years rector of St. Raphael's church, Manchester, N. H., has been named prior of St. Mary's Monastery, Delbarton.

Father Henry resigned his pastorate at St. Raphael's church that he might return to the Newark abbey, of which he was a member for 25 years. The change was hastened by the creation of a new abbey at St. Anselm's College, of which St. Raphael's parish becomes a member. Father Henry was given a reception and presened with a purse before his departure from St. Raphael's.
