Elmira K. C. Bowlers Await Rochester Unit, and Trophy

Rochester Knights of Columbus bowlers will invade Elmira on Sunday for a return match in the home and home series held each year. The Flower City aggregation has a lead of over 300 pins on their Southern Tier rivals as a result of the first match played earlier on the year in Rochester and are determined to hold that lead in order to gain first possession of the new trophy presented by Basil J Vaillancourt, Master of the Fourth Degree for this District.

The Trophy was recently on display in the Elmira club house "but is now believed to be in the illegal possesion of Rochester Council as a result of a visit to Elmira by a member of the Rochester bowlers," the Elmira Knights state.

Bowling in Elmira for the two arch rivals will commence at 3 30 p m on Rossi alleys. Following the match a dinner will be served in Columbus Center.

Joseph H. Berrigan is in charge of arrangements.
