INSTALLATION ISSUE

Co-Operating for National Recovery

Catholic Courier

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE ROCHESTER DIOCESE

TWO SECTIONS
Twenty Pages
FIRST SECTION

Volume V. | Five Cents per Copy | ROCHESTER, N. Y., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1933 | Subscription Terms $2.50 per Year in Advance | Number 42

CATHOLIC STUDENTS WILL RALLY AT CATHEDRAL TO MARK MISSION DAY

APPARITIONS IN SPAIN NOT AUTHENTIC

Bishop Issues Letter Condemning Supposed Visions Of Blessed Virgin

Madrid—(NCWC)—The Most Rev. Mateo Mujica'y Urrestarazu, Bishop of Victoria, who has just returned from exile to resume his episcopal duties, has issued a pastoral in which he condemns without qualification the supposedly miraculous apparitions of the Blessed Virgin at Ezquioga.

"We have not only not been able to verify any of the signs which would enable us to attribute a supernatural character to what has happened, or rather is said to have happened at Ezquioga," Bishop Mujica states in his letter, "but furthermore, the spirit of evil and illusion is apparent in various ways."

The pastoral prohibits all cards, photographs, images or other objects of devotion to the "Virgin of Ezquioga," the singing of the hymn and canticles dedicated to the apparition and the visit of "visionaries" to the place of the so-called apparitions. Such "visionaries" will be refused the Sacraments unless they submit to his instructions, the pastoral warns.

On June 30, 1931, just two and a half months after the proclamation of the Spanish Republic, a story came out of the Basque country that the Mater Dolorosa had appeared to two children—a girl of 11 and a boy of 7, at the village of Ezquioga, about an hour's motor trip from San Sebastian. The news spread throughout Spain and by the middle of July large numbers of "pilgrims" were going to the spot.

THE CATHOLIC WORLD OVER

Tucson, Ariz. — (NCWC) — Opening by San Xavier Mission of a parochial day school for Papago Indian children really saves an Indian mission school. For over 20 years theschool was operated by the United States Government, with four Sisters of St. Joseph employed as teachers in the Civil Service. When these Sisters were retired recently the Rev. Arnold Oscar O. F. M. obtained three Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary as teachers.

Uniontown, Pa. — NCWC) — The Sisters of St. Basil the Great, Greek Catholic Order founded in the fourth century, have purchased the 52-room residence of the late J. V. Thompson, one of the most celebrated estates in Western Pennsylvania, for a motherhouse to replace their temporary quarters at Factoryville, Pa.

London — (NCWC) — The three hundredth and twelfth anniversary of the death of St. Robert Bellarmine, S. J., was marked in Liverpool by the laying of the foundation of a church dedicated in his honor by the Most Rev. Richard Downey, Archbishop of Liverpool.

Lviv — NCWC) — Declaring the Ukraine to be "in the clutches of death," its people dying of starvation," and the situation "resulting from Bolshevik action growing worse from day to day," the Ukrainian Catholic Bishops of the Galician Church Province in a joint letter, appeal for a world protest against "the persecution of the little ones, the poor, the weak and the innocent."

'Jehova Witnesses' Arrested in Quebec

Quebec—(NCWC)—The arrest of 16 men and 13 women, members of an organization known as "Witnesses of Jehovah," who had come to Quebec from Ontario and Montreal and flooded the city with anti-clerical literature, was followed by the arrest of two more associates.

All of those arrested are reported to be affiliated with the "International Bible Students." They are being held charged with violation of Article 134 of the penal code in having taken part in a seditious conspiracy.

CENTRAL VEREIN COMMITTEES FOR CONVENTION

Men and Women to Arrange For National Gathering; Start Work This Week

Committees to arrange for the annual convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America, the Catholic Women's Union of America and the New York State Branches of these organizations in ochester in August 1934 were announced by President Joseph T. Otto at the Catolic Men's Federation meeting, Sunday, and by President Miss Louise Meyers, Catholic Women's Federation meeting, Tuesday night.

These conventions are expected to bring to Rochester outstanding priests and lay sociologists. Sessions will be "a veritable university training," Mr. Otto said this week.

Committees are as follows:

General Committee: Joseph T. Otto, general chairman; Charles T. Trott, vice chairman; Miss Louise Meyer, second vice chairman; Frank C. Hehnlein, general secretary-treasurer; the Rt. Rev. John F. Boppel, the Rt. Rev. John P. Schellorn, the Rev. Frederick Nastvogel, C. SS. R., the Rev. Joseph H. Gefell, the Rev. George W. Eckl, the Rev. Francis X. Kunz, the Rev. Ferdinand Scheid, the Rev. F. William Stauder, the Rev. J. Emil Gefell, the Rev. Peter Erras, Hon. Philip H. Donnelly, Edward Heberli, William J. Fuehrer, Lawrence May, George Kassman, John L. Stark, Frank Haag, William Wittman, August Maier.

Hotels: William F. Eckert, chairman; Francis Hoffman, Norbert Mayer, Joseph Vogt, Robert H. Kalb, Herman Senger.

Printing: Rudolph Memmel, chairman; Joseph Kauchman, Leo Hermann, Norman Trabold, Frank Pfeif, Koch.

Church Service: Walter J. Bayer, chairman; Peter Indelkofer, Joseph Trompeter, Joseph Knuth, Jacob Funk, Andrew Wiesner.

Speakers: Hon. Philip H. Donnelly,

(Continued on Page 3)

N. C. C. M. HEAD IN PROTEST OVER ARTICLE

Washington, (NCWC). — Objection to a newspaper story released by the United Press Association, which purported to give an account of te life and rules of conduct in a Trappist monastery in England, has been made by Dr. Thomas E. Purcell, President of the National Council of Catholic Men.

Two sentences in the story were termed by Dr. Purcell a "flagrant violation of good faith." They read: "Conversation is the greatest sin that can be committed at the monastery. Signs are used, even to the extent of cracking jokes."

Dr. Purcell pointed out that "conversation is not, and cannot be, regarded by any Catholic as sinful; it is only wrong for the Trappists because it is a violation of the rule of their order, and ence of their solemn vow of obedience."

"As to your flippant reference to 'cracking jokes,'" Dr. Purcell added "it may be pointed out that this would violate the rule as certainly as vocal speech. Signs are employed; but not for such trivial purposes."

Page ONE—

Cardinal Hayes Addressing Archbishop

Photo, Courtesy Rochester Journal

Scene within the sanctuary of St Patrick's Cathedral following the installation ceremonies Thursday of last week Seated on the throne is episcopal vestments is the Most. Rev. Edward Mooney, D.D., Archbishop-Bishop of Rochester In the pulpit is His Eminence Patrick Cardinal Hayes. Seated next to the Archbishop-Bishop are his Assistant Deacons, the Rt Rev. George V Burns on right of Ordinary and the Rt. Rev. Charles F. Shay on left Shown in the sanctuary stalls are Archbishop Thomas F. Hickey, Archbishop John J. Mitty of San Francisco and Bishop Michael J Gallagher, Detroit The Rt. Rev. Joseph S. Cameron, Assistant Priest at the Mass is shown just beyond the stalls. (Additional installation news and pictures will be found in second and third sections of this issue.)

400 JOBLESS MEN COMPLETE PILGRIMAGE

Unemployed of Great Britai and Ireland Spend Three Days in Eternal City

By GEORGE BARNARD
London Correspondent, N.C.W.C.

London—Overwhelmed with the excitement of three wonderful days in Rome, 400 jobless men of Great Britain and Ireland have returned to London after a Holy Year pilgrimage to the Eternal City which they undertook as "ambassadors of the workers," bringing from the Holy Father an affectionate message to all those in these islands now suffering hardships in the economic blight.

The constant hope and prayer of these 400 pilgrims, as with hundreds of thousands of men and women suffering similar hardships, has been for work, but the pilgrimage they were enabled to make and the joy of seeing the Holy Father have made them feel that their sufferings throughout months and years of unemployment have been wonderfully compensated.

Sponsored By Newspaper

The pilgrimage, sponsored by the London Universe, which raised nearly $35,000 from its readers, aroused enthusiasm throughout Britain and Ireland, and the pilgrims were received with kindness at every point they touched.

The British Foreign Office and the French and Italian Embassies did everything possible to smooth their journey. The Liverpool railway depot

(Continued on Page 2)

DEAD COMPOSER HONORED

Montreal—(NCWC)—A temporary marble slab has been placed above the grave of Calixa Lavallee, Catholic author of the Canadian national anthem, "O, Canada." The remains of the composer were brought from Boston, where they had rested practically unknown for many years, and reinterred in the cemetery of the Cote des Neiges here last July.

Third Annual N.C.C.W. Meeting In Diocese Opens Next Wednesday

The Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women will hold its Third Annual Convention at the Columbus Civic Center on Wednesday and Thursday, October 25 and 26.

The convention is to open with High Mass at Corpus Christi Church, East Main and Prince Streets, at 9 o'clock on Wednesday, with Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, V.G., as celebrant.

Great interest is being taken in the addresses of the first day. "Early Jesuit Missionaries in Western New York," Rev. Edward J Byrne, Ph.D., S.T.D., of St. Bernard's Seminary, at 11:30 a. m., and at 2 p. m. "Social Work," by Sister M. Paulette of Nazareth College, who received her master's degree from the Catholic University after completing the course at the National Catholic School of Social Service in Washington, which is conducted under the auspices of the N C C W

National Delegates To Speak

Talks will be given by the Rochester women who attended the national convention of the N C.C.W. at St. Paul at a luncheon at 12:15 in the dining-room of the Columbus Civic Center, at which Rev Walter A. Foery, S T L, will make an address on "Some Effects of the Depression."

To close the afternoon session, following reports on Activities of the Rochester Diocesan Council, Rev. John A. Lynch, C.SS.R., with his wide experience in Puerto Rico, will speak on the value of Medical Missions.

The reception to officers at 8:15 in the evening will also furnish an opportunity for congratulations to Diocesan President, Miss Cecilia M. Yawman, who was elected at the national convention in St. Paul to represent the Province of New York on the Board of Directors of the National Council of Catholic Women, Miss Yawman has also been appointed national chairman of the committee on Industrial Problems.

After the Mass for deceased members at St. Joseph's Church, Franklin Street, at 8 o'clock on Thursday morning, the delegates will assemble for a business session at 9:30 o'clock at Columbus Civic Center. This will be followed at 11 o'clock by a series of talks on "Our Leisure Hours" and "What Our Women Can Do." Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, speaking on Catholic Guidance for Motion Pictures, and Rev. Benedict Ehmann on Reading. Mrs. William J. Baker will speak on Motor Corps Service and General Volunteer Work, and Miss Elizabeth Mertz on the Big Sister Council.

The Diocesan Council regrets that the Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney will be unable to attend the evening reception on Wednesday, as he will be out of the city, but the Council is happy to announce that he will be present at the luncheon on Thursday, October 26, at 12:15 in the dining-room of the Columbus Civic Center, and will address those assembled at that time.

At the afternoon session on Thursday, opening at 2 o'clock, after reports of the election committee and the committee on resolutions, Miss Carolyn Ruth Doran of the Elmira Star-Gazette will speak on "The N.R.A. and the N.C.C.W."

All sessions are open, and the Diocesan Council cordially invites all Catholic women, and any others who are interested to attend. As this is the first convention of the Rochester Diocesan Council of the N.C.C.W. to be held since the installation of Archbishop Mooney, the women of the Rochester Diocese will welcome this opportunity of meeting His Excellency.

PHILLIPINES PLEDGE PRAYERS TO MURPHY

Manila, P. I. (NCWC) A spiritual bouquet was given to Governor General Frank Murphy, of the Philippine Islands, when the Chief Executive received Communion with the members of the San Tomas University Holy Name Society at the university and was feted at a breakfast following the Mass.

In his address at the breakfast, the Governor General declared that in general he was disinclined to join any organization, but was a member of the Holy Name Society because he always "felt at home" in it and because it was possessed of the true spirit of democracy.

The Chief Executive thanked the Holy Name Society for the spiritual bouquet offered him for the success of his administration and himself, declared that prayers are the greatest gifts that anyone could give him.

$4,919,817.751 was paid in 1932 on life insurance.

ARCHBISHOP MOONEY WILL PRESIDE UPON THRONE AT SPECIAL MISSION DAY MASS

Monsignor Shay, Pastor of Cathedral, Will Celebrate Solemn High Mass; Mission Sunday Will Be Marked By Wide Observance Throughout the Nation

Aichbishop Edward Mooney, D.D., will occupy the episcopal throne in St. Patrick's Cathedral Sunday, October 22, at the solemn high Mass beginning at 11 o'clock to be celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor of the Cathedral and to be attended by special delegations of mission units of Nazareth College, Nazareth Academy, Sacred Heart Academy, Our Lady of Mercy High School and Aquinas Institute; the ceremonies to be in observance of Mission Sunday.

This will be but one of the special ceremonies to be conducted throughout the diocese when special sermons will be given on the missions, and prayers recited for the cause of the missionaries. Throughout the mission Sunday, Catholics will be asked to continue their support of missionary activities of the Church throughout the world, and every Catholic who can do so will be urged to lend some assistance to the great missionary effort of the Church. A special collection in the Rochester diocese will be taken up on Sunday, October 29, for the missions.

The Catholic students' rally at the Cathedral is being sponsored by the Fremin Unit of Nazareth College.

Assisting Monsignor Shay at the Mass will be the Rev. Leo G. [illegible], Diocesan Director, Society for the Propagation of the Faith, [illegible] and the Rev. John [illegible], moderator of the Aquinas [illegible] Mission Unit, [illegible]

"[illegible] Church [illegible] what we do we and cannot do, understands conditions as [illegible] organization in the world could ever hope to do," Father Mooney, said in a statement issued today.

"Hence, officially, the Holy Father established the Society for the Propagation of the Faith as the great Catholic mission-aid society.

"He felt there should be some tremendous organization close to the ideals and aims of the universal Church and actuated with the same universal spirit of Catholicity.

"He bade that society further the missions everywhere. No little chapel was to be too small for its attention. No group of mission priests or sisters was to fail to draw support and material help from its treasury. It

(Continued on Page 2)

Archbishop Salotti To Speak Over Radio From Vatican, Oct. 21

New York—Word has been received at the headquarters of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith here that an address in English by the Most Rev. Carlo Salotti, Secretary of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda Fide, will be broadcast from Vatican City, Oct. 21, at the hour 30:30 Central European Time (2:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time in the United States).

The address will be broadcast over a wave length of 50.26 meters at a frequency of 5,940 kilocycles.

ALHAMBRA TO MARK MISSION SITE OCT. 29

National Officers Coming For Historic Event; Archbishop Gives Approval

Early Jesuit missionary endeavor in this part of New York State will be perpetuated by Musa Caravan, Order of the Alhambra on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29, at 3 p. m., when a suitable marker will be placed at the Chapel site of La Conception mission, Dann's Corner, on the Lima-Honeoye Falls Road.

This project which has been directed by Deputy Supreme Commander Herman G. Hetzler of the Alhambra has the approval of Archbishop Edward Mooney, who, if possible, will be present or will have a representative present for the occasion.

Speakers for the occasion will include the Rev. Father Thibbits, S.J., assistant director of the North American Shrine at Auriesville and the Rev. Father Jacobs, a full blooded Indian Jesuit priest from Montreal.

Headed by Supreme Commander James A. Quinn of Albany and including Supreme Scribe William Boyle of Springfield, Mass., the national officers of the Alhambra will be present. They will be received by Grand Commander Daniel J. O'Mara.

Deeply interested in the event which is expected to attract throngs from all parts of New York State is the Rev. Edward Byrne, professor at St. Bernard's Seminary who was recently in charge of the naming of the Father Rene Menard Bridge at Seneca Falls. Father Byrne will be in charge of a booklet commemorating the event to be prepared at a late date. The Rev. Alexander M. Stewart who co-operated with Father Byrne on the Rene Menard Bridge memorial will prepare the booklet.

The site selected by the Alhambra commemorates the activities of Father Fremin, S.J., believed the first white man to live in Monroe County and of Father Garnier, S.J. The Chapel site is thought to be the third Catholic Chapel in the state.

(Continued on Page 2)

CATHOLIC GUILD FOR DRAMATICS FORMED HERE

Formation of a Catholic Theatre Guild in Rochester, expected to mark a new step in the field of Catholic dramatics, is announced this week.

The new movement has been initiated by the Rev. John Randall, assistant pastor of the Cathedral. A score of professional and amateur actors from the various parishes in the city have united to form the nucleus of this undertaking.

Cathedral Hall at Brown Street and North Plymouth Avenue has been selected for the present to serve for rehearsals and staging of Guild productions. The Guild has secured the services of Michael Mangovan, stage manager of Loew's Rochester Theater, for all necessary stage construction.

The Guild members are now rehearsing their first production, Lennox Robinson's famous Irish comedy, "The White-Headed Boy." This play will be staged at the Cathedral Hall on the evenings of Nov. 20 and 21. It will be remembered that this play was included in the repertoire of the Abbey Irish Players, who enjoyed a successful two years' run on Broadway.

The cast of "White-Headed Boy" has already been selected. However, the Guild is anxious to list the names of all persons in the city who are interested in dramatic work or in scenic stage craft. Those desiring to join the Guild can call Mrs. Amy Le Vigne Hutchinson at her residence, 24 Bloss Street. The phone number is Glenwood 731-W.

Father Randall explains the objectives of the Catholic Theatre as being two-fold, to furnish a unity for the development of the talent among the Catholics and to provide Catholic with entertainment that will reflect with Catholic [illegible]

FORMER ST. MARY'S ASYLUM BOY SAILS FOR INDIA AS MISSIONARY

Washington — (NCWC) — Following a solemn ceremony of departure at Foreign Mission Seminary, here, six American missionaries of the Congregation of Holy Cross sailed Thursday for Bengal, India.

The departing missionaries are: The Rev. Joseph Voorde, C.S.C., of South Bend, Ind.; the Rev. Charles Young, C.S.C., of Auburn, N. Y. and graduate of St. Mary's Boys' Orphan Asylum, Rochester), the Rev. John Harrington, C. S. C., of Eureka, Utah; Brother John Heim, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Sister Marie Vianney (Stonestreet), of Gallant Green, Md., and Sister Mary Aloise (Smith), of Springfield, Mass.

The departure sermon was delivered by the Rev. Joseph Boyle, C.S.C. Prefect of Religion at St. Thomas' College, St Paul, Minn. The farewell address in behalf of the departing missionaries was given by Father Voorde.

RELIC OF THE PASSION IS OBJECT OF SPECIAL HOLY YEAR VENERATION

Paris—(NCWC)—As a part of the celebration of the Jubilee Year, the napkin that had been about the head of Jesus in the tomb was solemnly displayed at Cadouin, Perigord. The Most Rev. Georges Louis, Bishop of Perigueux, presided. The casket containing this relic of the Passion was carried in procession through the streets of the town.

The relic is the piece of linen referred to in the Gospel of St. John: "Then cometh Simon Peter . . . and went into the sepulchre, and saw the linen clothes lying, and the napkin that had been about His head, not lying with the linen clothes, but apart, wrapped up into one place."

The napkin was brought back from the Holy Land after the First Crusade by a priest of Perigord. It had been entrusted to him by a dying ecclesiastic of Le Puy who obtained the relic from the Legate, Adhemar de Monteil. The Cistercians who founded the monastery of Cadouin in 1115 had a church erected in honor of the relic and, notwithstanding the strict rules of the Order inordicting the use of gold vases, authorized the use of a gold reliquary.