Sworn Statements of Mr. Clark.

"Mrs. Clark & Freeman have a new man of me," said Mr. Clark, of 202 Clifford street, "and I think are the best physicians in their practice in this city."

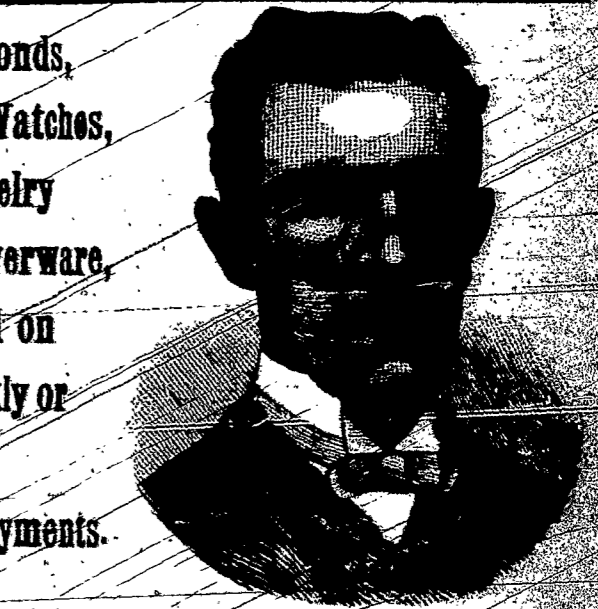

The above remark was made in answer to a question asked Mr. Brown by a porter who called upon him at his No. 202 Clifford street. "I suffered long time," continued Mr. Brown, "did not know what my trouble was, the medicine I took did me no good, my friends began to tell me that I never would get well. I had pains in my chest and my breath very short; my appetite was very poor and I had to be very careful what I eat; after meals my stomach would bloat and I belched much gas. I gave up hope, for I could see how I was falling; in fact I thought I had no chance to live. My throat was raw and was always choked up with phlegm, which was very foul; I became weak, restless, and could not sleep. It was at this time that my attention was called to Drs. Clark & Freeman, of Medical Institute, 105 Franklin street, called upon the doctors, and after a careful examination they said I was suffering from catarrh of the head, lungs and stomach. They gave such a correct history of and described my case so thoroughly that I decided to place myself under their care; and it was fortunate for me that they did so. In a short time I noticed an improvement. My cough left me and gained rapidly in strength, and to-day am a well man, and ask the public to call on me and see for themselves. Drs. Clark & Freeman have for years made diseases like mine a specialty, and I know from experience that they can treat and do it in all such cases with a certainty of success."
