Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG

Into the Catholic Bowling League maelstrom, the Catholic Courier this week tosses a new championship trophy.

For the past few years, the Catholic League pinners have been shooting at a somewhat mythical title so the management of this newspaper is now attempting to remedy that situation.

The offer of the trophy award, made by Howard W. Klippert, manager of the Catholic Courier, has been enthusiastically accepted by President Barney Cahill and the other officers and members of the Catholic League.

The trophy, to be known as the Catholic Courier Cup, is subject to the following competition conditions:

1—It will be awarded each year to the team winning the league championship, said team to retain possession of the cup for one year.

2—The cup becomes the permanent possession of the first team winning it three times. These wins do not have to come in consecutive years.

In his letter to President Cahill, Mr. Klippert writes in part:

"It is our intention that this trophy cup be of a size and appearance that will make it truly emblematic of the Catholic Bowling League championship and of the good wishes of the Catholic Courier for the successful continuance of the league's activities."

Replying to the Courier's offer, President Cahill said:

"I am sure that the award of this trophy will prove an incentive to every bowler in the Catholic League. We are at the threshold of what we hope to be our most successful season and this unexpected and most welcome award is bound to give us a flying start."

Now all that remains is to determine the 1934-1935 winner.

A previous trophy awarded the Catholic League some years ago spent most of its natural life in the trophy cases at Holy Redeemer's and St. Boniface finally landing at Holy Redeemer's as a permanent fixture.

This trophy, however, may find its way into new pinning fields.

At least that's what the members of the other six teams hope.

There wasn't any prearranged ceremony regarding the opening of the Catholic League at St. Boniface Club last week but Ed Ford of Corpus Christi provided something not exactly on the program.

In the first week of the season when the pinners are only supposed to be limbering up, Ed stepped out and pulled down a 672 total—an average of 224. Now if he can keep that up for another twenty-seven weeks—but that's asking too much.

Not far behind Ed was Howie Denk of St. John's who rung the bowling bell at 641.

His big total helped St. John's to an unscheduled three game victory over the championship St. Boniface outfit. St. Andrew's won two games in three starts from Blessed Sacrament while Holy Redeemer's took the measure of Corpus Christi twice in three tries.

St. Michael's just got in under the wire as the eighth team in the circuit and dropped a pair of encounters to the formidable St. Stanislaus combination.

The maroon horde from Aquinas Institute rang up the curtain in the Rochester football season with a smashing 20-0 decision over Geneseo High.

Boasting of a quartet of line plunging backs and a forward wall of sheer steel, Coach Johnny Sullivan's warriors made an all-around favorable impression on the audience which came to the new Edgerton Park paddock to witness the fracas.

In "Ducky" Hirschman, Aquinas has an exceptionally strong offensive ace. "Ducky" weighs a mere 175 pounds and towers six feet two—and that's a pretty sizeable package of gridiron dynamite in any man's language.

Practically every man on the Aquinas bench saw action during the fray and Sullivan got a fairly good line on most of his men. Sullivan wisely sacrificed a big score to a chance to see all of the boys in action.

With Geneseo out of the way, the maroons are pointing toward Saturday's clash with Newark High.

The World Series winner? The Cardinals in six games.

And the bowling returns continue to pour in. Here are a few:

KNIGHTS of COLUMBUS LEAGUE

After Grand Knight Walter B. O'Neil opened the season by tossing down the first ball, Joe Gaffney stepped out and piled up a high three game total of 574 with Secretary Bill Staub second with 541.

High game honors went to Silk Callahan with 236 while Witzel, Owen, Miller and Gaffney also came through with 200 games. The Puritans dropped three to the Ninas, the Pintas took a pair from the Guards, and Kluts accorded the Santas the same treatment and the Indians salvaged one game from the Orients.

KNIGHTS of ST. JOHN LEAGUE

With the re-election of William H. Rossenbach as president, Joseph F. Wendelgass as treasurer and Charles H. Mura as secretary, the Knights of St. John League is all set for its fourth successive year on the drives opening tonight (Thursday).

The eight teams and their leaders follow: St. Mauritius, No. 9, Frank Kress; St. George's, No. 43, Edward Bach, Sr.; St. Eustace, No. 39, Clem Schlueter; St. Boniface, No. 25, Edward Katzenberger; Ss. Peter and Paul, No. 28, John Papineau; St. Michael's, No. 40, George Fischer; Cathedral, No. 106, William Ryan, and St. Bernard's, No. 272, Al Schreiner.

Tonight Col. Frank H. Biel will roll the first ball on the St. Boniface alleys where St. Boniface meets St. Mauritius and St. Michael's clash with St. Peter and Paul. At St. Michael's alleys, Lieutenant Colonel Rossenbach will roll the first ball in the series between Cathedral and St. Eustace and St. Bernard's and St. George's.

HOLY ROSARY LEAGUE

This circuit beat everyone else to the gun with the result that the boys are in their second week.

George J. Jost is president with Walter Trabold, secretary and Thos. Byrnes, treasurer. Thomas Nolan, George Hotz, George Bauman, John Mueller, Bertman Hoffend, Joseph Buckley and Elmer Schubert are listed as sponsors.

Father Walter Foery and Father William Naughton opened the season with brief speeches and then Father Foery and Father McDonald rolled five frames to a tie.

Bauman and Baynes featured the season's openers with three spectacular wins over Hoffend Market, taking the first game by two pins, the second by ten and the third by three. Buckley's Service won three from Schubert's, Agate's took a trio from Ray's Lunch while Mueller's took two of three from Nolan's Drugs.

From Elmira comes news that St. Cecelia's won the Holy Name baseball title a fortnight ago by turning back St. Patrick's in a double-header by scores of 8-0 and 9-4.

These two teams were divisional winners of an eight team circuit and the victory of St. Cecelia's climaxed a season which proved exceptionally successful on all sides.

Let's hope the time comes when teams from Elmira will have a crack at the champions of Rochester and other cities in a post-season series to determine who's who in this section of the state.

BOYS
Their Interests

The Football Lid blew off last Saturday and the Aquinas warriors came down on top. The line is heavy and can "take it" plenty. They opened great holes for the backs and blocked and tackled with great efficiency. The backfield of the second team looked as good as that of the first. This was especially true of Earl Driscol and O'Corr, both of whom are real sparkplugs. Hirschmann played a fine game and was in there every minute. How did Neary catch that pass? — The coach has worlds of material and there ought to be some fine games. Why not come out and see them?

A Toast to the courage of the Cardinals who fought to the bitter end and won! What a grandstand finish! And then there's poor Bill Terry who asked whether the Dodgers were still in the League. What an answer he got!

Captain James Ehmann of the Columbus Club announces that the fall activities are about to begin for the Boys' Club. The following have volunteerd to aid him in the Club In the Pool. Ray Simmons, Capt.; Charles Dodge, Frank Schwan, Harold Goschke, Dick Flaherty, and Ed Polnan—all members of the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps; the Office, Joe Webber, Vincent McGee and Bill Schnacky; Gymnasium Harrozl Thomas; Showers Drew Rohrer and Charles Ward, Lockers Pat Pearlree and Robert Dravel. Captain James Ehmann is the director.

Boys from Camp Stella Maris who wish to join the Columbus Boys' Club had better do so as soon as possible. Many of the Campers have already joined and the pool and gym are often filled with familiar faces.

And now we hear from the lion. You remember the lion that killed the horse at the Centennial? Everyone has been writing blaming the lion. So we interviewed the lion and here is the real 'dope'. "Dear S. P. C. A. and disturbed souls everywhere. I killed the horse out of sympathy. He was so old and weak that he just begged me to finish him off. And he particularly asked me to do it in a dramatic fashion in front of a large crowd. This I did to the queen's taste. What's all the squawk about? Did not everyone get a thrill? You bet they did. They say that I should not kill a tame animal like the horse. But we are only animals. I'll bet that a lot of those ladies who squawked the loudest own stocks in big steel plants that make guns and ammunition to shoot people. When they practice what they preach (brotherly love) then we poor savage beasts of the jungle will change our ways. Yours, 'Babe' the Lion."

The Diocesan Catholic Scouting Committee met last week and turned in a fine report. At least six new troops will be operating by the end of next month. The big difficulty is the lack of Catholic leaders. If we had these leaders we could start twice that numbers.

What do you have to know to be a Scout leader? Not very much in the way of scouting. But you must have the recommendation of your pastor as to your moral character; you must be able to handle boys, keep order, etc.; and lastly, you must be willing to work. Knowledge of scouting can be easily picked up in a special training course run for that purpose.—What do you get out of it? Nothing—in the way of money. You do this for God and for your Church. It is an important method of participating in Catholic Action. You are training future citizens for your country and your Church. But it is not disagreeable work. You keep alive and young, and Christ said that 'of such is the kingdom of heaven.' You have good times, outings, etc. Why not send your name in to us in care of this paper and say you are willing to take the next training course in scouting?

Coach Sullivan of Aquinas To Address Columbian Squires

Coach John Sullivan of Aquinas Institute football team will address members of Bishop O'Hern Memorial Circle, Columbian Squires at the next meeting, Sunday afternoon, October 7 at 3 o'clock in Columbus Civic Center Building. Election of officers of the Circle will take place.

All members of the Knights of Columbus are invited by the Squires to attend the meeting and to hear Coach Sullivan's talk.

The first formal meeting of the 1934-1935 season for the Rochester Squires was held last Sunday afternoon. An interesting program for the year was outlined.

Among coming events will be a Knights of Columbus-Columbian Squires Communion Breakfast and a Football Victory Dance to be held in November.

Catholic Courier CARRIERS

ATTENTION—ROCHESTER CARRIER BOYS

Keep Saturday morning, October 20, open. The next meeting is to be held in the Columbus Civic Centre at 9:30 a. m. on that date. We cannot stress too greatly the demand that everyone be present. Many important matters are to be presented and they concern your future. BE THERE PROMPTLY.

Most of the carrier boys are prompt in making their returns for each issue by the following Wednesday. We appreciate their cooperation and urge them to keep it up. We remind those few who are in arrears to clear up their accounts. We mean it when we say that drastic treatment will be accorded to anyone who falls behind to the extent of four weeks.

Careless writing and hasty estimates have often resulted in a shortage in delivery. Avoid this by using care in making out your draw sheets. Report badly wrapped papers, torn bundles, paper shortage or late deliveries to us. We will correct these matters to our mutual satisfaction.

O.L.P.H. Commandery Keeps Knights Ball Title From Buffalo

St. Michael's Commandery, No. 40, Knights of St. John of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish retained their Western New York Knights of St. John Baseball Championship Title last Sunday when they defeated Commandery 204 of Buffalo by the score of 9 to 2.

Home run by Charles Schlaefer and a three base hit by the Rev. Frederick L. Walz featured the offensive attack of Commandery 40.

A party of 35 made the trip from Buffalo and were entertained by Commandery 40 after the game.
