

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Many Items of Interest To Rochester Catholics.

E. L. Barney, of Elmira, was in the city Tuesday.

Mayor-elect Carroll will be inaugurated Monday next.

Corinne will appear at the Academy the week commencing April 14th.

The "Tenebrae" was chanted at St. Joseph's church Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

Misses Anna and Loretta Scanlan, of Le Roy, spent Sunday with friends in the city.

William Dolan of Elizabeth, N. J., paid a flying visit to Pittsford, Monday last.

John C. Finucane, clerk of the Phoenix hotel, Pittsford, is thinking of going west.

It is reported that 50 men commenced work on the lower end of Lake avenue, Thursday morning preparatory to putting on electric cars.

Sister M. Julia Clinton died Wednesday evening at Nazareth convent, age 34 years. The funeral took place at 1 p. m. yesterday from the convent.

The Sibley estate are making preparations to build a new commercial building for the benefit of Burke, FitzSimons, Hone & Co.

Prof. Eugene Bonn, organist at the Cathedral, played several of Chopin's Etudes at Mrs. Cary's recital Thursday afternoon.

Misses Mary and Sarah McDonald, Miss Anna McDonald, and Mr. Sanfield McDonald will take part in "Saved from the Wreck," given by the Lyceum dramatic club at the Bijou theater April 9th.

An entertainment for the benefit of Mr. Geo. W. Hughes will be given next Wednesday evening, April 9, at Cathedral hall. An excellent program has been prepared, including some of the city's best talent. It should be well attended.

At St. Mary's church solemn High Mass was celebrated at 10:30 a. m. by Rev. F. O'Hanlon, Rev. M. J. Clifford, Rev. M. J. Clukey, sub-deacon, Rev. J. P. Stewart, master of ceremonies. After the palms had been blessed, they were distributed to the congregation.

Mrs. K. J. Dowling, of the Central Library, has received the first prize offered by The Book Buyer for the best answers to a list of thirty literary questions. Mrs. Dowling gave the only correct answer to the question, "Who wrote the preface to the first English edition of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin'?"

Robert Shields is lying at the point of death at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Col. John McMahon, 25 Scio street. Mr. Shields is 92 years old and one of the oldest inhabitants of Rochester. He came to the Flower City when it was a mere village and his life since his settlement here has been closely allied to the history of the city.

At Monday's meeting of the Park Commission, which lasted about two hours, precious little business was done. Two or three commissioners are so afraid some little technical point will not be carried out to the letter that they delay all the business of the board. The additional land necessary for the reservoir park has not yet been purchased, because a commissioner raised an objection that was really absurd.

Patrick Barry, the veteran nurseryman, and one of the best and most highly respected citizens of Rochester and Western New York, was taken ill very suddenly on Sunday morning last. His friends were very anxious about his condition Monday and Tuesday, but at this writing he is considered out of danger. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Bondage's brilliant melodrama, "The Miracle of the Roses," will be given by the former pupils of Nazareth Academy, assisted by the Academy chorists, at Cathedral hall, on the evening of April 17th. The proceeds will go toward furnishing the new academy and the library. The price of admission is but fifty cents, and a pleasing entertainment is assured.

The Week's Deaths.

The deaths since our last issue include Mrs. Julia Ratz, 391 St. Joseph street, 31 years; Albert Leo Hall, infant, 163 North Clinton street; Jennie Hall, 66 Grape street, 42 years; Michael Slattery, Suspension Bridge, at City Hospital; Maurice Mansing, 68 Avenue B, 27 years; John H. Steger, 223 Brown street, 25 years; John A. Smith, St. Mary's Hospital, 80 yrs.; Eliza O'Brien, City Hospital, 28 years; Charles Heron, Oak and Smith streets, aged 33 years; Michael Reem, St. Mary's hospital.

A very sad and sudden death was that of Henry, second son of James McMahon, of this village, on Sunday last, after a two weeks' illness with typhoid fever, age 11 years, 9 months. It was thought by his physician and attendants that the little fellow was improving from his long but patiently borne sufferings and his sudden demise was a terrible shock to his parents and near relatives. The funeral was held from St. Paul's church on Wednesday, and the interment made in the Catholic cemetery. — Honeoye Falls Gazette

Rob Roy Cough Drops are the best.

Found.

Our reporter, while passing along Central avenue, stopped at No. 47, in Brackett house block, and found that this was the place to get couches, parlor suites and easy chairs. Hair mattresses recovered and renovated at very reasonable rates. He also found the gentleman in charge to be a thorough mechanic in his line.

Use Rob Roy Cough Drops.

Have you ever called on J. McConnell for shoes? If you have not, come and look over our stock and get prices. It will pay you. Open also evenings. J. M. McCONNELL, 214 Clinton street.

Five cents for Rob Roy Cough Drops.

FRED: Hello, John, what in the dickens are you laughing about? I just wish I had a photograph of your face just now!

JOHN: Ha, ha, ha, if you ever struck a nail on the head, you did it this time, for I just came out of J. E. Mock's Photo. Studio, 40 State street, and I had some taken, and just think, the operator had to hold the machine as he opened the caps, for the camera commenced to jump.

Sworn Statements of Mr. Chas. Brown.

"Drs. Clark & Freeman have made a new man of me," said Mr. Chas. Brown of 202 Clifford street, "and I think they are the best physicians in their line of practice in this city."

The above remark was made in answer to a question asked Mr. Brown by a reporter who called upon him at his home, No. 202 Clifford street. "I suffered for a long time," continued Mr. Brown but I did not know what my trouble was. All the medicine I took did me no good. In fact, my friends began to tell me people that I never would get well. I had severe pains in my chest and my breath was very short; my appetite was very poor and I had to be very careful what I did eat; after meals my stomach would feel bloated and I belched much gas; I lost flesh and became so miserable I began to give up hope, for I could see how fast I was falling; in fact I thought I had consumption and must die. My throat felt raw and was always choked up with phlegm, which was very foul; I became weak, restless, and could not sleep. It was at this time that my attention was called to Drs. Clark & Freeman, for the Medical Institute, 105 Franklin street. I called upon the doctors, and after a careful examination they said I was suffering from catarrh of the head, lungs and stomach. They gave such a correct history of and described my case so thoroughly that I decided to place myself under their care, and it was fortunate for me that I did so. In a short time I noticed an improvement. My cough left me and I gained rapidly in strength, and to-day I am a well man, and ask the public to call on me and see for themselves. Drs. Clark & Freeman have for years made diseases like mine a specialty, and I know from experience that they can treat and do it all such cases with a certainty of success."

Spring is fast approaching and soon the weary head of the family will go home to find his house topsy turvy, and the wife's usually anguished temper sharpened by the worry attendant upon house cleaning and papering. If they would purchase their wall paper and window shades from John Brodie, 103 E. Main street, cor. S. Water, the effect would more than repay them.
