RECEIVE HABIT

Quebec — (N.C.W.C.) — Lucienne Laurion of North Grosvenordale, Conn., and Beatrice Cote of Biddeford, Me., have received the habit of the Franciscan Missionaries Sisters of Mary. The former is known in the religious life as Mother Marie de St. Herfroy, the latter as Mother Marie de St. Gandoul.

Don't come down heavily on the heel when walking as that habit puts a strain on the arches. A buoyant step is good for the feet.

SODALTALK

Recording the Activities of Rochester Parish Sodalities Union

"The love of Christ drives us on."

We know of course that all the Sodalists are honoring Mary in a particular way all during the month. Rosaries, Memoraries, Litanies, May Devotions and the frequent saying of the aspiration for the month "Sweet Heart of Mary, be my salvation." are merely suggestions.

* * *

Cathedral Sodalists entertained their Mothers at a Communion Breakfast on last Sunday following the General Mass and Communion offered for their intention. Singing by the group of songs and hymns added to the enjoyment of the occasion. A beautiful shrine of Our Lady was erected in the meeting room. The Sodalists are also planning a Penny Bazaar.

* * *

Ss. Peter and Paul Sodality has a very busy schedule planned. It includes the General Mass and Communion to be offered on next Sunday for the mothers of the Sodalists. Preceding the Mass, Sodalists in procession will place roses on the shrine of Our Lady in honor of the Blessed Virgin and their own mothers. Petitions of the Sodalists will also be upon the shrine during the Mass.

At the May meeting of the Sodality the Sodalists signed Rosary pledges for the month of May. Literature on the Blessed Virgin was suggested for the Sodalists' reading. The May issue of Sol was just off the press. The apostolic work in vacation schools was suggested to the Sodalists.

Social events include a Bridge Tea on Sunday, May 19 and a hike on the last Saturday in May.

Holy Rosary Sodalists were guests at the May meeting and presented the Madonna Night Tableau.

Holy Rosary has planned a Sodality Day for May 19. The order of the day is as follows: General Mass and Communion; a Communion Breakfast at which So Rumor Li will be distributed; Reception of Candidates and May Queen and Crowning of the Blessed Virgin ceremonies in the afternoon; a Mothers and Daughters Social in the evening. One could ask for no more busy day than that. We know that it will be an enjoyable occasion.

* * *

Sacred Heart Sodality has also planned a Communion Breakfast for Sunday, May 19. Speakers have been planned for the program.

Blessed Sacrament Sodality has set May 19 at the date for Reception of Candidates and the pageant of the May Queen.

* * *

We are pleased to see the number of exchanges coming into the Sodality Headquarters. If you have not sent in a copy of your Sodality paper do send one at once. We invite anyone interested to stop in and look through the papers. You may find some idea of value for your own use.

* * *

We suggest for your May reading: "The Months with Mary", "When Mary Walked the Earth", "A Month of Devotions to Mary", "Our Lady's Assumption" all of which may be obtained at the Sodality Headquarters, Columbus Civic Center.

* * *

Have you purchased your Reception medals, cards, diplomas, manuals, Rosary project booklets, May pamphlets, announcement cards, Reception programs, installation of officers ceremony booklets and a host of other supplies that you must need for these last two busy months before the summer season. Stop in at the Headquarters and take care of it now.

Safety Patrol Work Is Turned Over to Girls At St. Salome's School

Girls at St. Salome's School, Culver Road, have taken over the safety patrol work at the school, it is announced this week by President James Gray of the Sea Breeze-Point Pleasant Safety Council of Irondequoit Post, American Legion.

For the past four years, President Gray said in making the announcement, the boys of St. Salome's school handled the safety patrol work in a highly efficient manner. They did so well that the patrol was known as one of the best organized and equipped patrols in Irondequoit. He declared that much credit must be given the boys for their record of no accidents during their terms of safety work.

The girls, President Gray said, have taken over the work this year, however, in such fine manner that they are assured of permanent charge of this important safety project.

Winifred Murphy Chosen May Queen At College Fete

Blue skies shone fair on the May Day activities of Nazareth College students Wednesday, as they spent the morning in paying honor to the spiritual Queen of the May, Our Lady, and the afternoon in crowning their representative May Queen Miss Winifrid Murphy.

Miss Murphy, who had been chosen May Queen by ballot of the entire college, and whose success had been kept secret for a month following election, is president of the Students' Spiritual Association.

In the morning the students attended Mass, celebrated by the Rev. Norbert Wagner, chaplain of the college, and received Holy Communion in a body. Following a communion breakfast, the Rev. Arthur F. Florack, pastor of St. Michael's Church, delivered an address eulogizing the virtues of the Blessed Virgin. The Rev. J. Bernard Gefell pastor of St. Jerome's Church, East Rochester, gave Benediction. The traditional procession to four shrines, each chosen and decorated by one of the college classes, completed the morning ceremonies.

Several hundred invited guests attended the afternoon program which took place on the college campus, adorned with arbors and fairyland fantasy; written by students of the college, had its climax in the appearance of the May Queen, gowned in white satin, and attended by two members of each class: Helen Sullivan and Lucia Vetter of the senior class; Betty Cappallino and Ruth Ehmann of the junior class; Dorothy Lucas and Mary Laurence of the sophomore class, and Esther Reed and Betty Gough of the freshman class. The final feature of the celebration was a May Pole Dance, arranged by Sabina Lyons.

Mary Rita O'Connell was general chairman in charge of the May Day program, Bernice Ginnity, honorary chairman, and Betsy Jones in charge of reception.
