

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Many Items of Interest To Rochester Catholics. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the surrender was celebrated in this city on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carberry have taken apartments in the Oothout flats on Broadway street. Tuesday morning a "month's mind" was celebrated at St. Mary's for Mary Logan. The Easter services at all the churches were very impressive and the music excellent. Mass was offered by Rev. J. P. Stewart at 8 a. m. Sunday for the Rosary, Capular and Altar Society of St. Mary's church. John Schuyler, of 310 East Main street, had one foot badly crushed while unloading lumber at South Livonia where he is building a cottage. Rev. Dr. Sinclair, of SS. Peter and Paul's and Rev. Fridolin Pascalar, of St. Michael's church, have returned from their trip to Florida. The latter is reported as much improved in health. George Rhine died at his home, 67 Kirk street, on Saturday last. The funeral took place Monday morning from Corpus Christi church, at 9 o'clock. The bearers were as follows: E. Ryan, D. Sullivan, P. Short, Wm. Coughlin, P. Conaughton, J. Callahan. The Sisters of Nazareth convent have adopted a memorial on the death of Sister M. Julia Clinton. The following extract is taken from a touching tribute to her memory, which appeared in Tuesday's Post-Express: Never has it been more truly exemplified that "The King of Shadows loves a shining mark," than in the death of Sister M. Julia, which took place at the Nazareth convent on the morning of April 3d. Hers was indeed an example of a noble Christian life, and it is of such as she that our Heavenly Father has said, "Come, ye blessed, possess the kingdom prepared for ye." Tuesday Mother Carrigan, of the Sacred Heart convent, returned the compliments extended to her Monday by giving the scholars a holiday. At dinner time a bountiful repast was served, and toasts were given to the Madames in charge. In the evening, a Jewish play, "Miriam," of the time of Jesus, was satisfactorily rendered by the elder pupils. The entertainment for the benefit of the family of the late George W. Hughes took place at Cathedral Hall Wednesday evening. The programme included: Selections by the Mandolin Quartette; zither solo, F. Schlitzer; vocal solo, Miss Mitchell; recitation, Miss K. J. Burns; piano solo, Miss M. B. Oldfield; banjo solo, Mr. Whalen; quartette song, Messrs. T. F. Kearney, P. A. Kearney, Millington and Mooney; recitation, Lufe Heidell; selection, Mandolin Quartette; vocal solo, Geo. Mooney; quartette song; concluding with a farce, "My Turn Next." Holy Saturday's services at the Cathedral, which were very impressive, were conducted by the Rt. Rev. Bishop, assisted by the priests of the Cathedral. Easter Sunday Bishop McQuaid celebrated Pontifical High Mass, Rev. J. P. Kiernan, assistant priest, Revs. J. E. Hartley and J. G. Van Ness, deacons of honor, Revs. Dr. Hanna and Wm. Harrington, deacons of the Mass, Very Rev. Mgr. De Regge, master of ceremonies. The Easter musical program was sung in a most inspiring manner by the choir, the congregation joining at the close in singing "Holy God" with splendid effect. Father Van Ness preached a brief but eloquent sermon in which he said the services commemorated the greatest event in the history of the world. "The happiness in store for Christians is beyond measurement or conception. What happiness we will experience when we put off mortality and go on to immortality. This immortality is a reward for our fidelity. If we take part in the resurrection we must practice self-denial. Can there be any heart, so cold as not to feel on this occasion a burning love for Him who died for all? Do the joys of Easter give nothing of gladness for you? All it be said of any one here, "He is not risen?" At the close Papsal benediction was imparted by the Bishop.

Friday, April 18th, J. Z. Little's famous melodrama, "The World," will be presented at the Grand Opera house for benefit of Frank Edwards. There were 159 fire alarms from April 1st, 1889, to April 1, 1890. Between Jan. 1st, 1889, and January 1, 1890, there were 165 fires; the losses paid in the same time amounted to $147,375; the total amount of insurance was $1,712,000. Corrine at the Academy next week. City Treasurer Fleckenstein assumed his duties Monday. Leon H. Lempert will furnish plans for a $100,000 theater in Boston. Timothy Derrick, J. H. Howe and Matthias Kondolf have been nominated for health commissioners. Rt. Rev. B. J. McQuaid and several priests witnessed the rendition of "Cecilia" by the St. Cecilia singing society. Miss Mary Lighthouse, was presented a handsome basket of flowers, by admirers of her excellent singing, Monday evening. Mrs. A. B. Hone was one of those who received the visitors at the Homeopathic hospital Friday afternoon. P. Barry and C. J. Burke have been elected directors of the Trust and Safe Deposit company. Rev. J. P. Kiernan preached to the Rosary society of the Cathedral last Sunday afternoon, and Dr. Hanna preached to a large number of Italians. Dr. James F. Crowley, the popular president of the Young Men's Catholic Association of the Cathedral, and Drs. J. A. Cormier and A. McNamara among the city physicians this year. Mrs. John Rigney and her three daughters have removed to Brooklyn. Miss Lizzie Rigney, secretary of the Cathedral Aid society, previous to her departure, was presented a handsome silver bonbonnier, as a token of appreciation of her services. Mrs. A. J. Kitley, the president, made the presentation, on behalf of the society. Mayor Carroll's Inaugural. Mayor Carroll's inaugural speech was one that cannot fail to commend itself to all fair-minded men. He opened by saying that the Common Council and Executive were now in harmony, so there was no excuse for shirking responsibility. He then criticized in a scathing manner the condition in which our streets are at present, and said the street department had been prostituted to subserve political ends rather than to secure efficiency in the public service. He said he proposed to appoint physicians to the Board of Health, as he was of the opinion that their knowledge of sanitary matters was invaluable. He referred to the recent defalcation in the city treasury and scored severely the practice of drawing salaries in advance. The Mayor thinks the Police and Excise Boards should pull together and thereby regulate more effectively the liquor traffic. But it is on the Sunday question that the new Mayor shines forth most brightly. He says saloons must be closed on Sunday, and enjoins upon all proper officers of the city government to see that this law is enforced to the letter. Mayor Carroll thinks the Chamber of Commerce should be listened to with all deference, but that their opinions should have no more weight than any other individual opinion, the Common Council being responsible to the people, not to the Chamber of Commerce. In closing, the new executive recommends a better system of electric, police, fire and auxiliary fire signals for the city. "Laila" at St. Mary's. Monday and Tuesday evenings the operetta "Laila" was presented at St. Mary's hall by the girls of St. Mary's parochial school. The little ones sustained their parts well and their well-trained voices harmonized in a manner that reflected great credit on the Sisters who instructed them. Their costumes were very pretty and the rendition all that could be desired. Miss Mary Keyes sustained the role of "Laila" admirably, while Miss Maggie McMahon, as Queen of the Fairies, was inimitable. The chorus was remarkably good, especially the singing of little 17-year old Tella Hicks. Joseph Thompson was a warded the gold watch for selling the most tickets; a gold chain and cross, to Miss Lillie Hayward; gold chain, Minnie Dehler; crayon portrait of Father Stewart, Charles Stone; the range was drawn by R. H. Eaton, of Caledonia avenue. The audience both evenings completely filled the hall and standing room was at a premium. We hope the good people of St. Mary's will not resent a friendly suggestion: St. Mary's hall does not furnish nearly adequate accommodation for the large crowds that always attend any entertainment given by the congregation. A new hall is an imperative necessity in the near future.

I just wish I had a photograph of your face just now! JOHN: Ha, ha, ha, if you ever struck a nail on the head, you did it this time, for I just came out of J. E. Mock's Photo. Studio, 40 State street, and I had some taken, and, just think, the operator had to hold the machine as he opened the caps, for the camera commenced to jump. Everybody uses Rob Roy Cough Drops. All kinds of JOB PRINTING done at this office. Give us a call. We can please you. Rob Roy Cough Drops, 5 cents. Spring is fast approaching and soon the weary head of the family will go home to find his house topsy turvy, and the wife's usually angelic temper sharpened by the worry attendant upon house cleaning and papering. If they would purchase their wall paper and window shades from John Brodie, 103 E. Main street, cor. S. Water, the effect would more than repay them. LEGAL NOTICES. Mortgage Sale.
