

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Many Items of Interest To Rochester Catholics.

Rev. P. Weigel of Buffalo was in the city Wednesday.

Charles R. Phifer was grand marshal of the parade of the Boot and Shoe Workers Thursday last.

The International Boot and Shoe Workers of Rochester celebrated the first anniversary of its organization Thursday by appropriate exercises.

The Excise Board decided Monday to grant no more licenses in that part of Exchange street known as "Murderer's Row."

Father Notebaert was presented a handsome office chair last evening by the married ladies of the French church.

At Monday's meeting of the Park commission a vote of thanks to Ellwanger & Barry for the gift of a memorial pavilion at Reservoir park was adopted.

City Assessor Jacob Gerling celebrated his fiftieth birthday Tuesday last. During the day he was presented a handsome gold watch and chain by his wife and children.

Tuesday was the 47th anniversary of Julius Armbruster, member of the Executive Board, and a pleasant feature of the day was the marriage of his daughter, Miss Ida Armbruster.

John A. Sail and Miss Hattie Medcalf were married by Rev. F. O'Hanlon this week. John Ertel and Rose Heller were groomsmen and bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Sail will be at home at No. 420 West avenue after April 20th.

Bell, Lewis & Yates of this city and Buffalo, have purchased a controlling interest in the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railway and the Rochester & Pittsburg Coal and Iron company. Adrian Iselin, Jr., will retire from the presidency of the railway company. About $12,000,000 was involved in the deal.

The "Miracle of the Roses" was presented Thursday evening by the pupils of Nazareth Academy in a manner that reflected great credit upon those who took part. Selections by Misses Burns, Mitchell, Pierce, Feeny, Durkin, O'Laughlin, and Keltogg added to the pleasure of the evening.

The week's deaths include: George C. Fisher, 95 St. Joseph street; Mary J. Brown, 109 Atkinson street, 26 years; Joseph Gennarino, 33 years, 393 North Clinton street; Martin Ketzner, 44 years, 622 North Clinton street; James A. Murray, 44 years, Buffalo; Joseph Westerman, 54 years, St. Mary's hospital; Catharine Kearns, 20 years, 281 Allen street.

Last Sunday morning Father Clifford of Rome, Ga., preached at St. Mary's church on "Charity," and referred in it to the needs of St. Mary's hospital and urged all to do what they could to further the good work. He praised the devotion and self-sacrifice of the sisters in charge and spoke of them in the highest terms. Sunday evening Father Clifford left for his home in Rome, Ga., having been entirely cured by his course of treatment at St. Mary's hospital. He took with him the best wishes of a host of friends made during his brief stay in the Flower City and their hope to meet him again when Providence ordains he shall return to Rochester.

James Sullivan died last evening at his home, 32 Brown street, at the age of 68 years. He moved into the Second ward in 1853 and since that time had conducted a blacksmithing shop at 25 Brown street. In his many years of business life in this one place Mr. Sullivan had made many warm friends and had become one of the best known residents in the ward. Besides the widow there are nine children living, as follows: Ald. W. H. Sullivan, Mrs. Henry Baker, James F. Sullivan, Caroline Sullivan, Daniel Sullivan, Charles Sullivan, Emma and Frances Sullivan of this city and Anna Eaber of Brooklyn. At Tuesday's meeting of the Common Council, the following resolution, offered by Alderman Fee, was adopted:

Whereas, Since the last meeting of this Board Alderman Sullivan has suffered by death the loss of his father, who was for many years a honored and respected citizen of Rochester; therefore,

Resolved, That this Common Council feels that the city of Rochester has, in the death of James Sullivan, suffered the loss of one of its best citizens, and that the heartfelt sympathy of each and every member of the Board be and it is hereby extended to Alderman William H. Sullivan in this time of grief and sorrow.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held Tuesday morning from the Cathedral.

Why not buy Rob Roy Cough Drops?

Spring is fast approaching and soon the weary head of the family will go home to find his house topsy turvy, and the wife's usually angelic temper sharpened by the worry attendant upon house cleaning and papering. If they would purchase their wall paper and window shades from John Brodie, 103 E. Main street, cor. S. Water, the effect would more than repay them.

Use Rob Roy Cough Drops.

FRED: Hello, John, what in the dickens are you laughing about? I just wish I had a photograph of your face just now!

JOHN: Ha, ha, ha, if you ever struck a nail on the head, you did it this time, for I just came out of J. E. Mock's Photo Studio, 40 State street, and I had some taken, and just think, the operator had to hold the machine as he opened the caps, for the camera commenced to jump.

Easter Weddings.

August Miller, a well-known young business man, and Miss Ida Armbruster, daughter of Julius Armbruster, chairman of the Executive Board, were united in marriage at the Most Holy Redeemer church Tuesday morning, by Rev. F. C. Oberholzer. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rosie Armbruster, while J. Ernest Mock acted as best man. The ushers were John E. Maier and William E. Maier. Among those present were George W. Aldridge and W. W. Barnard, members, and Thomas J. Neville, clerk of the Executive Board, besides other city officials.

It is an interesting fact that the bride was the first child baptised in the Holy Redeemer church. After Tuesday's ceremony the newly married couple were the recipients of hearty congratulations by numerous friends. The presents displayed at the residence of the bride's parents, corner of Alexander and German streets, were numerous and elegant. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for Cape Vincent, where they remain a few days visiting relatives.

D. A. Koehler and Miss Maggie Connors were married Tuesday evening at the church of the Holy Apostles by the Rev. Father Murphy. A reception was given the couple at the residence of the bride's parents on Sherman street. W. P. Hamlin presented them a handsome silver water set and complete kitchen furniture in behalf of the Eleventh ward Independent Political club.

Mission at Corpus Christi.

A two weeks' mission opened at Corpus Christi church Sunday. It is conducted by Rev. Frank O'Donoghue and Father Le Fevre, Lazarist fathers from Germantown, Pa. Father O'Donoghue celebrated High Mass and Father Le Fevre read the regulations for the mission.

This week's services were for women and the church was filled every evening. The morning masses at 5 and 8:30 a. m. were well attended. Father O'Donoghue preached Sunday evening on "Salvation" and Father Le Fevre Monday evening. They have alternated during the week.

Next week the services will be for men.
