Catholic Scout Membership Gains

New York The number of Catholic Boy Scout Troops in the archdioceses and dioceses of the United States and possessions increased by 391 in 1935, according to the report of the Catholic Committee on Scouting, here, which has just been sent to Catholic scout chaplains and Bishops

The figure for 1935 is given as 2319 as against a total of 1928 for 1934. Troops are organized in 15 archdioceses and in 89 dioceses Two of the dioceses Cheyenne and Raleigh in 1935 joined the Sees having one or more troops.

Hornell

ARCHBISHOP TO CONFIRM IN TWO CHURCHES

Address By College President To Feature Communion Breakfast

Hornell Sunday, May 10 will be a busy day for the Most Rev Archbishop Edward Mooney, Bishop of Rochester, who will confirm a class in St. Ignatius Loyola Church at 2 p. m. and another in St. Ann's Church at 4 p m.

The Archbishop is also expected to attend a Communion Breakfast of men of St. Ann's parish, Sunday morning in the Federation Building

The Rev Thomas Plassman, O.F.M., president of St. Bonaventure College, will be the principal speaker at the breakfast.

Sunday being Mother's Day, members of the Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus and Catholic Daughters of America will receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass in St. Ann's Church.

Heads Adoration Group

Hornell Dr. J Raymond Kelly, one of Hornell's leading physicians and surgeons, was re-elected president of the Nocturnal Adoration Society of St. Ann's Church at the annual meeting.

Other officers are: First Vice-President, John J Mellinger; Second Vice-President, Clarence Bishop; Secretary, P S McNamara and Treasurer, Maxwell I McCarthy.

First Communion

Hornell A busy week in St Ann's parish was ushered in last Sunday and will conclude Sunday, May 10.

With 64 children receiving Holy Communion for the first time, and the opening of Forty Hours Devotions, concluding Tuesday evening the pastor, the Rev. Jeremiah A Maley and his assistants, the Rev. John C Newcomb and the Rev. Stephen K. Callahan, had only a few days to plan for two other important events, Confirmation and the annual Communion Breakfast for members of the Holy Name Society.

Ideal weather prevailed for last Sunday's ceremonies. The children of the First Communion Class received at the 8 o'clock Mass, celebrated by Father Maley, who also preached the sermon. Afterwards the children were guests at a breakfast in the school, and remained for the 10 30 o'clock Mass, when the Forty Hours officially opened. They took part in the procession.

In his remarks to the class, Father Maley expressed his appreciation to the Sisters of Mercy for their work in preparing the children, to parents and all others who had a part.

For the opening of Forty Hours Devotions, a Solemn High Mass was sung with Father Newcomb as celebrant, assisted by Father Maley and Father Callahan.

Italian Mission Starts

been sentenced to five and three years in the penitentiary respectively and fined almost $100,000 jointly for alleged infractions against the currency laws On revision of this trial it was found that the defendants were absolutely innocent But they had been kept in jail for a whole year

In Berlin, three Franciscans of Werl, Westphalia, were sentenced on similar grounds Father Richard Lohmann, who is sixty years old was sentenced to seventeen months in the penitentiary, and Brother Frowein Breinl to three months in jail, Father Provincial Georg Vonderbiede was fined $10,000.

In Krefeld, Rhineland, ten members of the Order of the Sacred Heart were tried for the same reasons Father Provincial Loh was sentenced to three and a half years in the penitentiary, Brother Lammers to three years in the penitentiary, Father Jedersberger to three years in jail, Father Gronau and Father Berlage to two years in jail each, Brother Eisbach to one and a half years in jail and Fathers Lennartz, Quartz and Mueller to smaller jail terms. In addition fines totalling $100,000 were imposed on the defendants.

In Wuerzburg, Bavaria, Mother Superior Crescenzia Zehntbauer, of the Order of the Divine Saviour, was sentenced to five months in jail and fined $200.

A priest in Balkhausen, Rhineland, was given two months in jail, because he expressed criticism of neo-pagan activities tolerated by the government and of the sterilization laws which run counter to Catholic doctrine.

Tuneful Minstrels Repeat On Friday

Auburn "A show that is worth going many miles to see" This was the consensus of the opinion of the large and enthusiastic audience that assembled Thursday evening in Lyceum Hall, Green and Clark streets, for the enjoyment of a minstrel and variety show produced under the auspices of The Holy Name Society of St Mary's Church The minstrels will be repeated again Friday evening with the curtain going up at 8 15 and it will be the third performance

The production is given in two major parts, the minstrels being in the opening bracket and specialty numbers marking the second part When the curtain went up the audience was greeted with a real minstrel stage setting and applause filled the hall. In the center was Frederick J Welch, interlocutor surrounded by his minstrel men in formal attire and the end men in their black face and flashy colored suits Stage and lighting effects were of high order

From the opening number to the close, all participants were warmly applauded The chorus was well trained the soloists were in the voice the minstrel singing and dancing of the comedians was snappy and full of fire and vim and the witticisms and jokes of the end men were unique

As interlocutor, Fred Welch was never better The end men kept the house in roars They were Jack Welch John O'Toole, Gibson Brown Howard Manion Patsy Golf and Paul Landers

"So Long Mule" was one of the song hits of the evening The other solos and specialty numbers were well received being by H. Fred Merman Edwar Carroll Gibson Brown Andy Krumm John O'Toole Joe Dolan Paul Landers Frank Dasher Tony Conroy and Jack Welch Gerald Conroy who has had wide experience in theatrical, professional and amateur was the director on stage and he did his work well

The second part all specialty numbers rounded out an evening of enjoyment The most enthusiastic worker for the success of the affair were the members of the committee of which Martin H Welch was the chairman

High School Comedy

Auburn A record crowd filled the North Street Auditorium on Monday evening to witness an outstanding performance of the comedy play The Family Upstairs given by the Senior Class of Holy Family High School

The entire play was fast moving and cleverly handled

Mary Jancale handled her role as well as a veteran actress The dry humor of the role, played by William Johnson kept the audience in an uproar Rita Musciano as the baby sister was excellent Her brother an "all knowing" boy of nineteen was cleverly played by Francis Keegan

The romantic glamer was provided by Mary McGrane as Louise, the older daughter and Joseph O'Connor as Charles Grant the young man

Holy Name Sets Breakfast

Auburn As a feature of Auburn's observance of Mother's Day the Name Society of St. Alphonsus Church will celebrate its own fifteenth anniversary and observe its fourth annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday morning May 10 at glass covered Club Dickman

Other groups which will take part in observance are St Alphonsus Circle Columbian Squires No 112 and all the men and boys of the parish. Corporate Communion will be given during the 8 o'clock Mass. After the Mass a motorcade will be formed in the rear of the church and then proceed to Club Dickman.

The breakfast is under the direction of Carl Dickman, who has promised a special menu for this occasion. The breakfast will begin at 9:15 o'clock. Music will be furnished by the Club Dickman orchestra.

Immediately following the breakfast a program of entertainment will be featured

Invocation will be pronounced by the Rev Frederick G Straub pastor of St Alphonsus Church and the spiritual director of the society and then will follow the singing of America by the assemblage

The community singing will be under the supervision of Mr Joseph E. Heinck

Mr Stephen H Brier, President of the society will give the words of welcome and then introduce Francis C Cuddy, grand Knight of Auburn Council No 367 Knights of Columbus as toastmaster

COOPERATIVES SEEN AS RURAL LIFE NEED

Bishop Muench Urges Middle Road Course at Institute Meet

Fargo, N Dak The need of rural America which has been neglected [illegible] economic social religious and educational life the Most Rev Aloysius J Muench, Bishop of Fargo declared in opening the Institute on Rural Life Institute held here as forerunner to the forthcoming convention of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference to be held in this city from October 11 to 14

The Most Rev Joseph F Busch Bishop of St Cloud Minn attended the Institute and brought the greetings of his diocese

"The past," Bishop Muench said has pointed out the error of extreme individualism and socialism not to be the right system Most of our present-day evils of unbridled competition and conflicts between capital and labor can be laid at its door

Hold to Middle Way

"The natural reaction is a rural life movement and our problem is to hold to the middle way We believe in healthy individualism but we cannot stand alone We need to co-operate We have rights but with them we have responsibilities" Bishop Muench pointed to the co-operatives as the middle way between extreme individualism and extreme collectivism

The Rev Clemens A Bergen O.F.M. Paul Quinn the Catholic Rural Life Conference of which he is Executive Secretary and Dr W L Hurley of Washington, D C assistant to Dr Rexford Tugwell, and Earle Sarles Resettlement Director of eastern North Dakota spoke on the work of rural resettlement

The Very Rev Vincent J Ryan Director of the Catholic Welfare Bureau of Fargo presented plans and endeavors to better and bless and enrich the lives of rural children and young people He said it would seem entirely proper to incorporate the subject of rural charity into the rural life program

Harry E Rilling 4-H Club leader spoke of the adaptability of the 4 H Club program to local needs and conditions

It is difficult to say who is the guilty, he who retards and the one who listens to it was
