HORNELL PLANS ST. ANTHONY DAY FESTIVAL

Parade, Band Concert and Fireworks to Mark Celebration June 13

Hornell Italian-Americans in Hornell have started plans for the celebration of St Anthony's Day on June 13 and are enthusiastically pursuing a round of details guaranteed to make the celebration one of the outstanding events of the year.

Committees are negotiating for a ball game at Maple City Park as one attraction and will rental the parade, band concert and fireworks which have previously been a standard drawing card.

This year's program will also introduce an amateur hour put on in front of the grand stand in which amateur talent from a wide surrounding territory will compete for a $50 first prize.

Tentatively the ball game will take place in the afternoon. The Erie Band will lead the parade to the Park about 6 30 p m and the program will be witnessed from there. A band concert will be heard, the amateur hour seen and heard and an elaborate program of fireworks viewed there.

This year's committee on arrangements includes Anthony Ermy, Jerry Secondo, Ignatius Sirciano, Carl Secondo and Tony Lisi.

Hornell About one hundred members of the Catholic Daughters of America enjoyed a supper at Hart Inn last week in connection with their monthly social program. Miss Kathryn Irwin was chairman. Following the repast, some played cards, while others attended the theater.

Hornell A pretty early summer wedding was solemnized at St Ann's Church last Saturday, Memorial Day, when Miss Rose M. Argentieri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Argentieri of this city, became the bride of Henry Colli of Buffalo, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Colli of Italy. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William M. Cannan, pastor of parishes at Cato and Red Creek, who celebrated a nuptial High Mass.

Halloran Performs Fine, Simple Service

Serving a community at this so for so many years has given Henry D. Halloran & Sons different impressions, a knowledge of performing simple services at low costs, but still maintaining the beauty of a more expensive service.

Recent economic conditions demanded a medium priced funeral service which Halloran's have continued. Mr. Halloran stated that the public is often misled by the lure of low prices. In funeral service, it is especially important that quality be considered, for nowhere in the life of a [illegible] more evident.

"Thus" he continued, "it is our purpose to so plan the service that it best meet the demands of the bereaved. The same attentiveness, consideration and care at the [illegible] are applied to all our patrons regardless of what they can afford."

The use of the funeral home of the firm is available at no extra charge. Located at 195 Plymouth Avenue South, Halloran's offer an ideal setting with beautiful furnishings for the final rites. Every effort has been taken to make the funeral home as private as the home itself.

Established in [illegible] Henry D. Halloran & Sons serves Rochester has made this firm a standard of mortuary service by which others are judged.

Aquinas Band, Choral Group at Name Rally

Committee on Attendance Named By President To Assist At Rally

The Aquinas Institute band and the Knights of Columbus Choral Society will furnish the music at the Holy Name Rally at Rochester Red Wing Stadium next Sunday, June 14.

Some [illegible] are expected at the rally [illegible] singing of the hymns.

Plans have been completed also for the hanging of the Blessed Sacrament in the ball park during the rally so as to permit celebration of Benediction.

The Blessed Sacrament will be brought from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church while the last speaker at the rally is concluding his remarks and will be escorted in solemn procession by a guard of honor comprising altar boys from St. Michael's and Holy Redeemer parishes. Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus in full regalia, Knights of St. John in full dress uniform and four members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society who will carry the canopy.

The officers of the Benediction will be Archbishop Edward Mooney, Celebrant, Right Reverend Monsignor Charles F. Shaw, Deacon and Right Reverend Monsignor Joseph Cavanaugh, Sub-Deacon.

Invitations have been extended to all monsignori to be present and it is expected that scores of priests will take part in the services.

"The interest being shown in this year's Eucharistic Service and Rally is most encouraging," said Rev. F. William Stroder, spiritual director of the Union "and we are confident that this occasion will be long remembered by all who attend. It is a significant fact that June 14 is also Flag Day and is a most appropriate time for all Catholic men to pledge their loyalty to the flag of our country and to the God-given principles of freedom, justice and happiness for which it stands."

TRAVEL TIPS

Travel information available when requested by letter addressed to the Catholic Courier, Travel Bureau, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, N. Y.

The Only Catholic Nation in the Far East will be host to the XXXIII International Eucharistic Congress at Manila, from February 3 to 7, 1937, the natives of the Philippine Islands, only one of whose fourteen million are not Catholics, will welcome their brethren from every Christian land in the world.

Anticipating the demand for speedy and comfortable passage, the American Mail Line has arranged a Special Cruise. From Seattle on January 12th, the SS President Jefferson, which has been definitely appointed to carry pilgrims to Manila, will take the shortest route to Japan.

When the SS President Jefferson docks at Shanghai on January 20th, it will be at the gateway of that vast country which has been called the mission field par excellence. America's acknowledged sympathy for China has been further reflected in the rapid increase in the number of American priests and sisters who have volunteered their lives, especially in recent years, to the service of the Chinese people.

Gordon Hoxie's report of the Hawaiian Islands, a part of call for the SS President Jefferson on its round voyage, The City of Honolulu, Catholic missionary [illegible] 1937.

Sailing from New York, by north the SS Transylvania of the Anchor Line, through the Suez Canal, passenger service includes New York and Boston to the Irish Free State through the Dublin Harbor. Celebration of the event in Dublin [illegible] Catholics were invited for the first time to take part. Recognizing the importance of a direct steamship service between the two states, Mayor Fiorello La Guardia, of New York, Mayor of Dublin through Captain [illegible] initiated the sailing by the sending of an official greeting to the Lord Mayor of Dublin.
