OUR BOYS' AND GIRLS' CORNER.

We would be pleased to receive items of interest from boys and girls. Write plainly and on one side of the paper.

The Orphan Stars baseball club, composed of St. Mary's orphan boys, is now open for challenges from nines whose ages are under 15 years. The Stars have already defeated clubs with the following scores: Orphan Stars, 20; Shamrocks, 9; Orphan Stars, 36; Flower City's, 6; Orphan Stars, 13; Oak Leaves, 4; the club is handsomely uniformed, for which they desire to return thanks to the kind Sisters.

The Cloud and the Rainbow.

One day a beautiful Rainbow stretched his varied arch over the earth, and looked with contempt on a dark Cloud, which was refreshing the parched earth with its fertilizing showers.

"I wonder," said he, "how thou canst stand before my varied splendor, wherein the dark green of the ocean, the blue of the firmament, and the hues that linger around the heavens at sunset, mingle to form my robe, while thine consists only of one sable line."

"How now, minion of the sun!" exclaimed the cloud, "dost thou not know that it is from me thou derivest thy existence? If I withhold my watery treasure thou wilt be no more; and, lo! to punish thy arrogance, see, I forbear to pour them longer."

Thus saying the Cloud sailed away on the bosom of the wind, and the rainbow faded into nought. This, ought to be a lesson for rulers. From the love of the people a dark but wholesome mass springs all their splendor, if they fly away dignity will not long survive.

Too Many Excuses

No wiser remark was ever made by Benjamin Franklin than a severe sentence which he once uttered to a young man who he had an appointment with him and missed it. Next day the young man came and began to make a fluent excuse to the doctor for his absence the day before.

"Stop" said Franklin. "You have said to much already, my good sir, for the man who is good at making an excuse is seldom good at anything else."

An easy excuse, says Youth's Companion, referring to the above, seldom softens the heart of an employer or superior for a flat error or failure to do a duty. Of course an account of the reason for a failure should be given when a demand for them is made, but they should be given simply and briefly, and without any attempt to make the case appear any better than the plainest statement of the facts made it. A youth who is beginning a round of duties in any places which has any responsibilities may as well make up his mind that his employer will look with some disfavor, if not with suspicion, upon his explanation of failures. He must be perfectly honest about them, and never slow to admit his mistakes. And there are few employers who are not willing to allow a beginner a liberal number of blunders and failures as a part of his education.

Good Advice

If misfortunes have detained you by your own misconduct live and profit for the future. If they have befallen you by the fault of others, live, but have not wherewith to reproach yourself. If your character be unjustly attacked, live that will prove the aspersion. If you have squandered time, life, and disappointed their ends, live to do better. If you have kind and faithful friends, live to bless and please them.

Failure after daily perseverance in any praiseworthy undertaking is not disgraceful. However low you may fall through honest efforts to succeed, there is no failure.

Trust God for the future by the employment of present means. Do your part. Expect God's protection while you do nothing to foster it, but to forfeit Providence.

Catholic Society Notes.

It is whispered that Secretary Chas. M. Bayer is one of the candidates for the presidency of 81 at the next election.

Brother John Hahn of 81 is about to erect an elegant house on Alexander street. It will be completed about August 1st.

There are now two Irish athletic clubs in New York, one meeting at No 537, Third ave., and the other at Hudson and Desbrosses Sts.

Brother Herman Schmitt of 34, while lifting last week, sustained such severe internal injuries that it was necessary to perform an operation. He is doing as well as could be expected.

As Chancellor E. J. Ernst was standing in front of his store Tuesday afternoon a sign fell and struck him on the head and shoulder, inflicting a bad scalp wound, which incapacitated him for business for two or three days.

Grand Deputy James L. Whalen is making his regular visitations to the various C. M. B. A. branches in his District. Wednesday evening in company with District Deputy Dissett of Albion, he visited Branch 10 of Medina.

In a previous issue the types had it Brother "Keitz" of Branch 81. It should have read "Heitz." Last week in our account of Branch 81 reunion, we inadvertently credited Grand Secretary Cameron to New York City, instead of the newly-incorporated city of Hornellsville.

The Irish-American Military Union will have its annual encampment this year in Philadelphia, to be called Camp Moylan, in honor of Colonel Molyan, who commanded a regiment of dragoons in the Revolutionary War. General W. F. Kelly, of No. 317 East Fifty-sixth st. New York, is president of the union.

In accordance with the convention assembled at Cedar Rapids, June 12, 1888, and in compliance with the constitution, the fourth biennial convention and the eighth meeting of the A. O. H. of Iowa will be held in Sioux City, Wednesday, June 4. The convention will convene at 9 a. m. It is for the good and welfare of the order that every division in the State should be represented at the convention, as matters of importance to the order will come before the convention. The call is signed by P. B. Wolfe, S. D.; John P. Howard, S. D. and D. M. Reynolds, S. D.

Joseph J. Hahn, aged 26 years died this week at his father's residence, 84 south St. Paul street. He was ill but a few days and inflammatory rheumatism was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Hahn was a very popular young man and possessed great business ability, having been associated with his father for a number of years. He was a member of the Monroe Bowling Club. The surviving members of the family are his father, one brother and three sisters. The funeral took place Friday at 9 a. m. from St. Joseph's Church. Mr. Hahn was elected a member of Branch 81 at its last regular meeting and was to have been initiated at its next meeting. Thus, it will be seen, the death occured about two weeks too early to entitle him to the $2,000 insurance. The Branch feels very deeply the loss of their antipated brother.
