Pastor Guest At Dinner

Auburn—Over 300 people attended the Spaghetti Dinner held on Wednesday evening at St. Francis d'Assisi Hall. The dinner was prepared by members of the Sacred Heart Society and served by the Young Ladies Sodality. It was one of the largest attended affairs of its kind held in this city this season.

All arrangements were made under the personal supervision of The Rev. A. L. Gabbani, pastor, and The Rev. Bernard C. Hanna, assistant.

Fr. Cirrincione Speaks

Auburn—The primary meeting for the 1936-37 season, of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church was held on Tuesday Evening at Lyceum Hall. The meeting was in charge of President Frederick J. Welch, with The Rev. William Tobin, the new moderator of the Society, taking active part in the proceedings.

The feature of the evening was an address by The Rev. Joseph A. Cirrincione, of St. Francis Assisi Church, Rochester. Father Cirrincione's subject was a timely one, its title being "Communism Theory and Practice." The talk created great interest and gave rise to a long discussion amongst those present.

Name Society. The hall is maintained for all the members of St. Mary's parish, and it will meet the pressure of increasing demands, more keenly felt—this past year than ever before, for a suitable home for these activities.

The Rev. Dr. William E. Cowan, pastor of St. Mary's, announced that the hall will be under the direction of J. Joseph Boyle, James E. Herbert, Joseph J. Hickey, Martin H. Walsh, Mrs. Francis Callahan, Mrs. Charles A. Dayton, Mrs. M. Frank Dillon, Miss Dorothy J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. John F. Foster, Miss Margaret E. Garner and Mrs. Charles W. Reynolds.

The Rev. J. J. O'Connell will plan and direct all activities of the young people.

First dance to be held in the new hall will be a gala dance on Thanksgiving evening. Guests will have the privilege of dancing to the music of Johnny Swank and his Colonnade Restaurant Orchestra from 9 until 1 o'clock. Miss Irene Bilson is soloist with the orchestra.

Under for Triduum

Auburn—On the last three days of this week, about 1000 young Catholic women from six parishes in this city will unite in making a triduum in honor of the Feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Services will be held at St. Alphonsus Church on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:45. The Rev. Joseph B. Toomey, Assistant Director of Catholic Charities in Syracuse, will conduct the triduum each evening. Sunday morning communions will attend in a body at the eight o'clock Mass, and will receive communion in a body, thus bringing the triduum to a close.

The triduum is under the sponsorship of the Auburn Sodality Union and is being led by The Rev. Robert [illegible] President; Miss Corinne [illegible] Vice-President; Miss Marie [illegible] Recording Secretary; [illegible] Treasurer; [illegible] Corresponding Secretary.

LAITY MUST BE PRACTICAL, PRIEST WARNS

Declares Time To Test Catholicity Is Coming; Honor K. C. Leaders

The time is coming when all Catholic laymen will have to be real, practical Catholic men, predicted the Rev. Joseph Cirrincione of St. Francis of Assisi Church in his tribute to four former leaders of Rochester Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus at a testimonial dinner in Hotel Rochester, Tuesday evening.

The men honored were Past Faithful Navigators, Otto A. Shults, Patrick A. Dwyer, Louis G. Hock and C. Vincent Wiser.

The Rev. Frank W. Mason, faithful friar, was a guest of honor. Presiding was Faithful Navigator William F. Woerner.

Fix Catholics To Showdown

Trend of events point to a coming crisis, said Father Cirrincione. It will pin every Catholic to a showdown:

"It shall either wring from the lips of Catholics a vigorous profession of Faith or force them to deny it. It shall divide Catholics into two classes, vibrant, practical Catholics, and apostates. It shall do away with that middle class of indifferent or nominal Catholics who burden the Church today. The time is coming, I feel, when all Catholics will be constrained by the force of circumstances to make a decision, and the touchstone of that test will be the Faith."

The Holy Father, said Father Cirrincione, views with anguish the human tragedies created by false philosophies and ideologies and the sorrowful fruit of these in the form of tyrannous governments in Russia, in Mexico, in Germany and in Spain.

Mirror of Communism and Fascism

Opposed to Catholic philosophy, the speaker included both Communism and Fascism. The popular illusion that because Communists and Fascists are sworn enemies, those who reject the one must embrace the other, was dispelled by the priest-speaker. He pointed out that to the Communist, everyone is a fascist who is against Communism.

"The fundamental error that underlies both the system of the totalitarian state (under which he listed Fascism) and Communism is the exclusion of God as a factor in human affairs."

Holding up the American form of government, Father Cirrincione told his hearers that "not only as citizens, but also as Catholics should we be alive to any danger that might imperil it."

To be a practical Catholic, he declared, means to be not just an American citizen, but one active and zealous in combatting forces subversive to the Faith and at the same time rallying to the defense of our government.

PRESIDENT

JOSEPH H. WEIS

WEIS & FISHER CO. OPEN NEW STORE IN SOUTH CLINTON

This week's opening of the beautiful new home of the well-known firm of Weis & Fisher at No. 80 Clinton Avenue South is a personal triumph for the president, Joseph H. Weis, prominent Catholic layman.

Since the founding of the firm in 1890, it has steadfastly grown until today it enjoys nation-wide recognition and acclaim.

It is a tribute to Col. Weis' faith and courage that the East Avenue store was opened on March 4, 1933, the darkest day of our modern history.

An honorary life member of the Knights of Columbus, a high officer of the Knights of St. John and former Commander of the Rochester Regiment, a Knight of St. Gregory, Colonel Weis' many friends will wish him success in his new store at 80 Clinton Ave., South.

MINISTER SEES APPROVAL FOR CHURCH STAND

Dr. Nixon Points To Reception of Papal Encyclicals

Some people are inclined to believe that the Catholic Church is likely to meet the economic demands of the masses today more adequately than the Protestant churches because of the reception the papal encyclicals on labor.

This declaration was made from the pulpit of the Brick Presbyterian Church Sunday by the pastor, the Rev. Justin Wroe Nixon.

Dr. Nixon spoke on the significance of the results in the recent election declaring that one of the trends is that on the part of the masses to hold the churches more responsible for what is happening to them.

Catholics Show Trend

Discussing the trend to hold churches responsible, he said:

"The Catholic Church already shows the effects of this trend. In the leadership of the Catholic Church today, you find not only strong opposition to Communism, that is the negative side. The Catholic Church has its strength among the working masses of our cities, and it is among the members of the working class that Communism is likely to be propagated with most effect.

"But the Catholic Church also has, on the positive side, a philosophy and program of economic reconstruction, found in the encyclicals of the popes from Leo XIII on, and that program is being interpreted and applied to economic affairs by such Catholic clergymen as Msgr. John A. Ryan, Father McGowan and many others.

Compares Receptions

"If you will compare the reception accorded the encyclicals of the pope in Catholic circles with the reception accorded the declarations of the Federal Council of Churches in Protestant circles you may become inclined to believe that the Catholic Church is likely to meet the economic demands of the masses in America today more adequately than the Protestant churches.
