

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Many Items of Interest To Rochester Catholics.

The Misses Dunn of Syracuse have been visiting Mrs. J. William Carberry on Broadway.

Frank Heilman, president of "81," will open the Bay View house next week.

Dan Dooley, the baker at St. Mary's hospital, has purchased a very fine coll, considered to be very speedy.

Augustus Hughes, for eight years a clerk in the registering department at the post-office, has resigned.

Joseph J. Meyer and Ida I. Cook, of this city, were married yesterday by Rev. Father Pascalar at St. Michael's church.

Bernard Kearney, driver of Horse No. 7, has resigned his position. His resignation has been accepted by the Executive Board.

Manager J. P. Henry, of Wells, Fargo & Co's express, is having the Rochester office repainted and otherwise renovated.

The Bennett Moulton Opera Company will delight their audience with good music at reasonable rates next week at the Academy.

Organist Messmer of St. Michael's church is negotiating with several organ builders for an organ for the new church. A small one will be put in, temporarily, and then a large one, in keeping with the grand church, will be purchased.

Deaths since our last issue include: Ella Hogan, 65 years, St. Mary's Hospital; Bridget Kelly, 62 years, St. Mary's Hospital; John F. Sugru, Stone street; Mrs. E. McManis, 6 Delaware st; Georg J. Haney, 2 years, 22 East avenue; Christian Staub, 45 years, 17 Vernor Park.

John P. Roche has entered into partnership with E. D. Putnam and opened a broker's office at No. 6 Elwood building. The firm name will be Putnam & Co. They have telegraphic connections with New York and Chicago houses and begin business under favorable auspices. John is a prime good fellow and we wish him all success.

At about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Robert McFiggins, a plasterer, working in St. Michael's Church, fell from the scaffold on which he was at work over thirty feet from the floor and was almost instantly killed. The deceased was in the employ of Williams & Bannister, a Buffalo firm, and had only worked on the church since Monday noon.

The entertainment to be given by the Young Ladies' Literary society of St. Boniface church on May 12-13 promises to be a grand success and should be well patronized. Lack of space prevents us from publishing the excellent programme prepared for the occasion. Among those who will take part are Misses Mary Lighthouse, Anna Schantz, Ella Rose and Margarite O'Connor.

Prof. A. O. Baillott, the talented young Parisian who was in Rochester for some time and made many warm friends in the Flower City while here, is now located in Milwaukee, where he is engaged in teaching. He has just commenced the publication of a French periodical known as La Courrier Francais. It is more than likely that the names of many of his Flower City friends will soon be found on his subscription books.

John Mader, age 24 years, dropped dead on Pindell alley in the rear of Serantun, Wetmore & Co's store, at 6 o'clock Friday evening of last week while assisting Robert Goodman a truckman. The deceased came here from Danville a year ago and was at the time employed at the Rochester paper mill. He was in poor health and had applied for admission to St. Mary's hospital. His mother and one sister the latter residing at the corner of Wilder and Walnut streets, survive him. Curator Graham granted a certificate of death from heart disease. The funeral took place at 10 a. m. Sunday morning from Roscoe street and a funeral home was held at 11:30 a. m. from Holy Family church.

Mrs. O'Neil, of Jay street, fell down stairs in her house Tuesday and broke her left leg.

The Monroe bowling club has adopted suitable resolutions on the death of Joseph J. Hahn.

The firm of Mulligan and Hennessy has dissolved. Martin Hennessy continues the business.

The May devotions at the Cathedral, St. Joseph's and the church of Our Lady of Victory are being well attended.

Rev. F. O'Hanlon preached a peculiarly earnest sermon at St. Mary's last Sunday morning on "The Blessed Virgin."

The collection for St. Mary's Hospital made in St. Joseph's parish amounted to $1,360.00—the best of any parish in the city.

The Olympic club held a May party at Pack's dancing academy on Tuesday evening. About seventy-five couples attended. All heartily enjoyed the occasion.

Patrick Pugh of 112 St. Joseph street was struck by a runaway horse on Monday evening last while standing near his carriage on South avenue and sustained a severe cut, extending from the mouth to the lower part of the chin. He was taken to the office of Dr. Doud, where his injuries were attended to.

Arbor Day was celebrated Saturday at Nazareth hall on Lake avenue. The pupils entered into their exercises with enthusiasm, under direction of Sister Aquinas. Rev. E. J. Hanna, D. D., presided. The students who graduate this year planted a tree in honor of Bishop McQuaid. Rev. J. J. Hartley read a humorous original poem and Master J. C. O'Brien delivered the address in excellent style. Dr. Hanna then blessed the tree.

Brockport.

The Catholic church choir of Brockport is making arrangements for a festival and dance to be held at Ward's opera house Monday evening, May 12th. The proceeds will go toward the purchase of an organ for the church. Over three hundred tickets have already been sold. The committee of arrangements consists of Frank P. Doyle, Charles W. Mathews, Edward G. Shay and J. W. Shephard.

At Nazareth Academy.

A literary and musical programme was well rendered at Nazareth Academy, principally by the pupils of the preparatory grades on Friday afternoon last. The following programme was rendered:

THE $4.50 PHYSICIANS. WHEN you have paid other doctors all the money you can spare, and are still suffering from chronic catarrh, weak or diseased lungs, dyspepsia, derangement of the liver or kidneys, constipation, malaria, erysipelas, salt rheum, or inflammatory rheumatism, with their accompanying pains in the side, breast or back, buy (for $4.50) a prescription of Drs. Atkins Bros' Remedies, which will cleanse, purify and warm the blood and cure you. Do Not Hesitate. PALMYRA, Wayne Co., N. Y. For years I suffered with liver and kidney complaint, constipation and malaria. The physicians' prescriptions and various remedies which I took gave me no permanent relief or benefit, and my friends despaired of my recovery. Ten years ago one of Drs. Atkins Bros. Remedies, which I bought at 15 North Fitzhugh street, called to see me and said as I was an obstinate case, he wished to speak up my business, he would cure me, so that I might support my family by some other means. He sent me the Remedies. Greatly benefited. See or address Drs. Atkins Bros. at 15 North Fitzhugh street, Rochester, N. Y. All Goods Marked by Plain Figures.
