Nazareth Party Gets Big Crowd

Columbus Auditorium Jammed; Fashion Show Feature; Courier Offer

More than 1,800 men and women crowded the Columbus Civic Centre auditorium last night for the card party and fashion show held for the benefit of the Nazareth College Building Fund.

The party was conducted under the auspices of the Nazareth College and Academy Alumnae Associations, the undergraduates of the college and the Nazareth College Guild.

The fashion revue show conducted by the B. Forman Company was one of the most attractive ever held in this city. Miss Esther A. Tobin, fashion director for B. Forman Company, explained the various creations as the mannekins paraded by.

Incidental music was furnished by Sax Smith.

The models included Mrs. Joseph Doran, Josephine Wolfert, Marion Odenbach, Molly and Betty Froman, Maria Smythe, Mary Olive Schreiner, Betsy Jones, Mildred Walsh, Mrs. Thomas Lynch, Mildred Burke, Eileen Hartigan, Mrs. John Dunnigan, Jean Curtin, Mrs. John Arthur Jennings, Lucille Murphy, Sally O'Neill, Carolyn Daley and Jane Smythe.

Robert T. Dwyer announced an offer by the CATHOLIC COURIER to give $1 to the Nazareth College Building Fund for every year's mail subscription obtained by a member of an affiliated organization of Nazareth College.

Souvenir tallies were provided by the COURIER. Special notice was given the Nazareth College display in last week's COURIER which was held partially responsible for the splendid turnout.

400 Holy Name Men Rally To Wayland Meet

St. Joseph's Holy Name Society, Wayland will be the host Sunday to the fifth annual convention of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union. The convention will open at 2:00 p. m. with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Joseph's Church. The business session of the convention will convene immediately after Benediction in St. Joseph's School Hall.

The Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney, Bishop of Rochester will address the delegates to the convention at the Benediction services and the Rev. Joseph E. Maguire, Director of the Holy Name Union of the Diocese of Buffalo and Administrator of Our Lady of Victory's Care at Lackawanna will be the principal speaker at the business session.

To Represent 15,000

The convention is expected to bring upwards of 400 delegates to Wayland, representing the more than 15,000 Holy Name men in the Diocese of Rochester. Each Holy Name society in the diocese is entitled to be represented at the meeting by its Spiritual Director and four delegates.

The convention will be featured by a discussion of practical means of building up and of sustaining interest in the Holy Name Society and of advancing its work, and various proposals for a program of Diocesan Holy Name activities during the year 1937 will be considered.

Regular biennial election of officers of the Union will take place at the convention. Present officers are: B. Edward Shlesinger, Rochester, President; Wm. O. Wynn, Norman A. O'Brien and Joseph P. MacSweeney, Rochester, Vice-Presidents; Wm. McLane, Auburn, Vice-President, Thos. E. Bickle, Geneva, Vice-President, Richard McElligott, Corning, Vice President; Clarence H. Kennedy Elmira, Vice-President; Roy W. Crissy, Rochester, Vice-President and Secretary; Francis E. Wolfe Rochester, Financial Secretary; James G. D'Amico, Rochester Treasurer and John W. Diringer Rochester, Marshall.

The Rev. F. William Stauder pastor of Holy Redeemer Church Rochester, is Spiritual Director of the Union and the Rev. Arthur F. Florack, pastor of St. Michael's Church, Rochester is Assistant Spiritual Director.

The new nominating committee whose duty it is to prepare a new slate of officers for presentation to the convention is headed by Henry Schleuter of St. Andrew's parish Rochester.

The Resolutions Committee chairman is Philip H. Donnelly of St. Monica's parish Rochester. The Reception Committee is headed by Martin Kimmel, Sr., of St. Joseph's, Wayland and John W. Diringer, Marshall of the Union, of Corpus Christi parish, Rochester, is chairman of the Registration Committee.

Nazareth College Lists Lecture By Noted Author

Nazareth College students and friends are anticipating an intellectual treat on Monday evening, April 19, when Miss Helen C. White, noted American author, will address an audience at Nazareth College at 8 in the assembly hall.

Miss White, author of the popular books, Not Built With Hands and A Watch in the Night, was born in New Haven, Connecticut, in [illegible]. She received her early education in Boston, later taking her A. B. and M. A. at Radcliffe and her Ph. D. at Wisconsin University.

Miss White's keen interest in the great Catholic mystics led her into a study of St. Francis and the century in which he lived. Her novel, A Watch in the Night, was the culmination of this study. At present Miss White is writing a critical book, The English Metaphysical Poets, which is a literary criticism and a study in the religious experience of Donne, Herbert Crashaw, Vaughn and Traherne.

Miss White is at present a Professor of English Literature at the University of Wisconsin.

Sisters of St. Joseph, in charge of the college, invite the public to attend the lecture.

Paine DRUG COMPANY

"It's better to bring your prescription to Paine's than to wish you had!" Those acquainted with Paine's exacting standards know the truth of that slogan. Thousands of people needing prescriptions insist on Paine protection even if they are half a world away. Each year Paine's ships prescriptions not only to the 48 states, but to such far flung places as The Orient, The British Isles or the South Seas. Your doctor will tell you, as these people know, that you could not choose better prescriptionists than Paine's.
