Socialism, Communism Hit Workers

Encyclicals Point Dangers, Central Verein Lecturer Declares

Lively discussion followed the lecture given last Friday evening in St Joseph's Hall on "The Encyclicals, Socialism and Communism" under the auspices of the Rochester Branches of the Catholic Central Verein of America and the National Catholic Women's Union.

This was the second in a series of five lectures that are being delivered by former County Judge Philip H Donnelly to to inform Catholic workers of the principles contained in the great labor encyclicals.

The next meeting will be at the same place on Friday evening, November 5. The topic will be "The Encyclicals and the Sense of Social Responsibility."

Sees Workers Suffering

Judge Donnelly in his lecture Friday reviewed the encyclicals insofar as they treat of socialism and communism, and pointed out that both Pope Leo and Pope Pius insist upon the inviolability of private property. He indicated that if the fundamental principles of socialism and communism, namely, class warfare and the abolition of private property were put into effect the workers themselves would be the worst sufferers. It would be as Pope Leo says a leveling of all down to a state of misery and degradation.

"Every person," he said "who has rightfully and justly acquired property has a right to hold that property as his own, and no one has the right to take it from him without giving him just compensation for it."

Two Health Camps

He called attention to the statements contained in the encyclical on the Reconstruction of the Social Order in regard to the changed condition of socialism from what it was in Pope Leo's time. "At that time socialism could fairly be termed A single system which defended certain definite and mutually coherent doctrines," says Pope Pius. "Nowadays it has in the main become divided into two opposing and often bitterly hostile camps neither of which, however, has abandoned the principle peculiar to socialism namely opposition to the Christian faith."

Warns Catholics

One of these camps he calls mitigated socialism and states that "it would seem as if socialism were afraid of its own principles and of the conclusions drawn therefrom by the communists and in consequence were drifting towards the truth which Christian tradition has always held in respect." He emphasized, however that no one could be at the same time a sincere Catholic and a true socialist.

The other camp he called degenerated socialism or communism which teaches merciless class warfare and a complete abolition of private ownership by every means even the most violent.

WORLD EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS SET

More than 40,000 American Catholics are expected to attend the 34th International Eucharistic Congress to be held at Budapest, May 25 to 30, 1938. The Right Rev Msgr. E. G. Kordogh, of Toledo, chairman of the permanent committee in the United States for the Congress, and Frederick V Williams, of San Francisco, director of national publicity for the Congress here, are shown in the committee's Toledo headquarters, making plans for the United States participation in the Congress.

Students To Discuss Russia At Study Group Meet Friday

"Terrorism as a Method in Russia" will be explained by Thomas Gould of St Andrew's Seminary at the next meeting of the Rochester Study Group to be held at Our Lady of Mercy High School on October 22 at 4 p m.

Miss Clare Kennedy of the Academy of the Sacred Heart will briefly trace the life of Lenin. Miss Jane Bauman of Nazareth College will follow with a discussion of the Elements of Dissension Existing in the Soviet union today.

An enthusiastic discussion led by the Rev Hugh Duffy, CSB Seminary moderator of Aquinas Institute, was held at the first meeting of the Group on October 8 at Aquinas.

Under the chairmanship of Martin Moll of Aquinas representatives from Aquinas, St Andrew's Seminary, and Our Lady of Mercy High School presented papers for the discussion.

An historical sketch of Karl Marx was given by Joseph Conway of Aquinas. Differences between Communism, Socialism and Materialism were outlined by Edward Buckley of St Andrew's Seminary. Miss Ruth Stander of Mercy High School gave an imaginative account of what would happen to Rochester under the Communistic regime.

The study group has been organized to unite the Catholic Schools of Rochester in a movement to fit students to work in fields of Catholic endeavor.

Membership includes delegates from Nazareth College, Niagara University, Rochester division, St. Andrew's Seminary, Aquinas Institute, Nazareth Academy, Our Lady of Mercy High School and Academy of the Sacred Heart.

The Rev. John J. Randall, Assistant Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, acts as Moderator.

Daily Visits To Eucharist Group's Aim

New Society Formed by Nocturnal Adoration Members Open To All

Institution of the St Alphonsus Society for daily adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in this diocese was announced today by James R. Cuff, chairman of a committee named by the Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society, sponsors of the new society.

The idea of an organization to foster daily visits to the Blessed Sacrament was advanced by Mr Cuff at the annual meeting of the Nocturnal Adoration Society last February.

The organization is for men and women, boys and girls. There are no dues of any kind. No formality is required in joining the society.

Procedure for becoming a member is to write a letter or postcard to William G. Wynn, secretary, 23 Columbia Avenue, Rochester, N. Y., with the following statement

"I hereby enroll as a member of the St Alphonsus Society for Daily Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and intend to visit the Blessed Sacrament once a day whenever possible."

Name and address should be given when writing.

A booklet containing appropriate prayers for visits to the Blessed Sacrament and to the Blessed Virgin Mary for each day of the month by St. Alphonsus Di Liguori may be obtained at Catholic Book Publishing Company, 257 West 17th Street, New York, or at Proulmore's, 93 State Street, Rochester, N. Y.
