Detective Lynch, who killed Stoddard and his wife, has requested District Attorney Benton to bring his case before the next grand jury.

This year's Western New York fair will be held at the Driving Park, instead of the fair grounds. This is an innovation that will be appreciated, both by visitors and exhibitors.

De Pachmann, the famous pianist, gave a very entertaining recital to music lovers last evening at Powers hall. The entire programme was made up of selections from Chopin.

Abram Bogardus, embezzling superintendent of mails in the Rochester post-office, will spend the next three years at Auburn.

First communion will be given at Sacred Heart convent on June 6th. The pupils of the free school will receive first communion the following Sunday.

A public reception of aspirants in the Children of Mary and Young Ladies' Sodality will take place in Corpus Christi church to-morrow.

John Ludecke, who was struck by a train at East Rochester Friday last, died at St. Mary's hospital Monday morning.

The Forty Hours' Devotion opened Sunday last at Holy Apostles church and closed Wednesday morning. A large number attended the services and much interest was shown therein.

The body of an unknown man was discovered Thursday morning in the lower Genesee, opposite the Rochester paper mill. Coroner Graham was summoned and ordered the body removed to Bender & Schaumann's undertaking rooms.

Frederick Bardo and Miss Theresa Myers were married Tuesday at the Holy Family church by Rev. D. Laurenz. The attendants were: Benjamin Myers, Charles P. Foos, Simon Kleisley, Misses Nellie Kane, Anna Botts and Lillie Stallwagner.

At the fifth annual election of the Flower City Bowling Club, held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: F. R. Whalen, pres.; John Kiley, vice-pres. and sec'y; Charles M. Lane, treasurer; Wm. Mallon, 1st bowling master; John Swan, 2nd bowling master.

The certificate of incorporation of the Union Club, organized to promote social intercourse, was filed Thursday morning in the county clerk's office. The incorporators are E. O'Grady, C. M. Lane, R. F. Whalen, G. F. Nier, E. Holland, T. H. Breslin, A. G. Loizeau and John Kiley.

The week's deaths include: Mrs. Rose E. Horan, 25 Moore street, 22 years; John B. Cleary, 18 Webster street, 32 years; Mrs. Anna McCarthy, 5 May street, Leo LaChapelle, 34 yrs., 15 N. Clinton St.; Miss Maggie Gill, 19 Jones St.; Margaret Harty, 34 years, St. Mary's hospital; Mrs. Michael Engler, 56 yrs., 84 Clifford St.; Amelia O. Swartelo, 56 yrs., 212 Hudson st.

Mother Camillus, Superior of the Convent of Mercy, South street, has resigned her position, her term having expired. Sister Teresa has been elected Mother Superior to succeed Mother Camillus. The new Superior has many friends who will be pleased to see her in charge of the convent.

The Lincoln Park and Charlotte road will cross the R. W. & O. tracks at Charlotte overhead, but the latter must depress its tracks two and one-half feet.

Miss Lizzie Kane of Pearl street is ill. The fund in aid of St. Mary's hospital is over $16,000.

Sunday, June 8th, will be first communion day at St. Mary's.

The Holy Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered at Corpus Christi the first Sunday in June.

Rev. Dr. E. J. Hanna preached the closing sermon at the triduum at St. Mary's hospital in honor of Venerable Jean Gahleit, Perboyre last Sunday evening.

At a public meeting of citizens held Wednesday evening in the Common Council chamber, resolutions were adopted calling upon the district attorney to take steps to bring the killing of Charles and Kate Stoddard by Detective Thomas Lynch before the grand jury, and requesting the police commissioners to suspend the said Thomas Lynch from duty, pending such investigation.

John Geck and Miss Christine Klemm were united in marriage Wednesday at SS. Peter and Paul's church by Rev. Dr. Sinclair. George Klemm, brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Eva Vay officiated as bridesmaid. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's residence on Lyell avenue. Both parties are well known and carry with them into their wedded life the best wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

A sad death occurred on Sunday. It was that of Mrs. Rose E. Horan, who died at the residence of her mother, 25 Moore street. Mrs. Horan's husband died a few days ago, and she had suffered almost continually since from hysteria and nervous derangement. She was taken ill Friday, and a physician was summoned, but she was unconscious when he arrived and died shortly afterward. Dr. Sibley found upon post-mortem examination that inflammation at the base of the brain had caused death and Coroner Graham granted a certificate. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from the house and at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral.

THE $4.50 PHYSICIAN. WHEN you have paid other doctors all the money you can spare, and are still suffering from chronic catarrh, weak or diseased lungs, dyspepsia, derangement of the liver or kidneys, constipation, malaria, erysipelas, salt rheum or inflammatory rheumatism, with accompanying pains in the side, breast or back, buy (for $4.50) a prescription of Drs. Filkins Bros' Remedies, which will cleanse, purify and warm the blood and cure you. To the Afflicted.

Palmyra, Wayne Co., N. Y. For years I suffered with liver and kidney complaint, constipation and malaria. The physician's prescriptions and various "remedies" which I took gave me no permanent relief or benefit, and my friends, despaired of my recovery. Ten years ago one of Drs. Filkins Bros. whose office is at 35 North Fitzhugh street, called to see me and said as I was an undertaker he wished to break up my business, he would cure me, so that I might support my family by some other means. He verified his words. GILES B. CRANDALL, Filkins Bros. National Electric Medical Institute, No. 10 North Fitzhugh St. Rochester, N. Y. Satisfaction guaranteed.
