IN ONE EAR

By ART KELLY

As one tunes over the short-wave spectrum of an all wave receiver, it is evident that nations of the world are matching power in trying to get the best transmission on the short-wave bands. This race has long been in effect but only recently has the United States taken a definite stand. In fact, a ten-minute period of news prepared especially for Portuguese-speaking listeners has recently been added to the comprehensive schedule of daily news broadcasts in six languages over station W3XAL of the NBC International Division.

The new period, broadcast at 5:15 P. M., E.S.T., daily, except Saturday and Sunday, over W3XAL's European directional beam, was added in response to mail requests from many listeners, chiefly in Portuguese West Africa and also in Portugal and Latin America. It supplements another Portuguese period prepared especially for Brazil and broadcast daily except Saturday and Sunday at 8:00 P. M.

This addition to the international schedule of NBC seems to be another direct indication that America is putting in a strong bid for acknowledgment among the nations of the world who are at present leading the field in presentation of programs via the international short-wave frequencies

Did you know that, Joan Harding, voice of the Sibley Tower Clock Program, was born in Melbourne, Australia? She was schooled in Washington, D. C., Switzerland and New York. Miss Harding is of Norwegian descent her father being a former American Counsel General of Australia.

WaXAI, WHAM's ultra-high frequency transmitter working on 31.6 megacycles, was reported heard in Scotland Feb. 19, 20 and 21. W8XAI broadcasts the programs of WHAM and is on the air 6:00 A. M. to 1:00 A. M.

Fibber McGee and Molly who have been heard on the networks since 1935, deserted their old Monday night spot on March 7 for a Tuesday listing of 9:30 to 10:00 P. M.

Fibber McGee and Molly (Marian and Jim Jordan) were on the air ten years before being discovered as comedians in their own rights.

If you recall the Toscanini drum story of last week's column you'll get a chuckle out of this yarn. After searching New York City and going as far afield as Chicago in search of a suitable bass drum to meet the resonant demands of Verdi's "Requiem," a drum was finally selected from a Connecticut American Legion post. Can you beat that?

Eugene Morgan's Music Vendors have a new time on WHAM. The novelty orchestra headed by "Beany" and his accordian appears Monday evenings at 6:15. Music type is Mexican and Spanish with a heavy lean toward rumbas and tangos.

Good news for music lovers. Maestro Toscanini has agreed to come back in October of this year to conduct another series of radio concerts with the NBC Symphony Orchestra—beginning in November. The coming series will consist of at least twelve weekly performances and possibly more. This information comes from David Sarnoff, President of R.C.A. and chairman of the Board of the NBC. Mr Sarnoff's statement also included the information that Toscanini has signed an agreement with NBC for a period of three years.

During the past winter radio listeners the country over have had the opportunity each Saturday afternoon of listening to a presentation by the world noted Metropolitan Opera Company. With the approach of spring, this series is rapidly reaching its finish. In fact, the National Broadcasting Company will complete its seventh annual series of complete opera broadcasts on the 19th of March. On that date will be presented the popular Bizet opera—"Carmen." As usual Milton Cross, veteran opera announcer, will announce the program.

The final broadcast from the regular New York season rounds out a series of seventeen complete operas, including five of the eight novelties and revivals of the 1937-38 season, heard direct from the great stage of the Metropolitan Opera House. Both technically and artistically NBC surpasses its previous records in the Metropolitan Opera series.

When Amos and Andy changed sponsors some months back many skeptics shook their heads with the wisdom of the ages and sanctimoniously declared that the blackface pair had reached the end of their rope. They haven't reached the end of their rope but they have reached the end of their tenth year of broadcasting. On March 19 the Campbell Soup boys will celebrate their tenth birthday. During that time it is estimated that more than 40,000,000 listeners followed the fortunes of the team each week over the NBC-Red net.

"Then pure souls, which is now holding from thine eyes of the world, shall one day shine before the angels in the sunlight of eternity."

Continue Fight To Oust 'Red'

N. Y. Groups Oppose Communist In Office; Rochester K. C. Protest

Although disappointed that Governor Lehman failed to grant their petition to remove Borough President Stanley M. Isaacs of Manhattan for appointing a Communist as his aide representatives of the American Legion and 21 other groups in New York City are determined to carry on their fight.

Commander Jeremiah F. Cross of the State American Legion, and head of the coalition opposing the appointment of Simon W. Gerson a Communist, reiterated their decision to press their fight until Gerson was removed.

Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus joined in the movement last week and sent the following letter to the Governor:

Honorable Herbert H. Lehman
Executive Chamber
Albany, N. Y.
Your Excellency:

Rochester Council No. 178, Knights of Columbus, in conjunction with all the other Councils of the Knights of Columbus throughout the country is interested in preventing Communism from getting a foothold where it has not already done so and in preventing the spread of Communism wherever it exists.

Rochester Council No. 178, Knights of Columbus, understands that Simon W. Gerson was appointed, and is now holding a responsible position in the office of Honorable Stanley M. Isaacs, President of the Borough of Manhattan.

Rochester Council No. 178, Knights of Columbus, is reliably informed that Mr. Gerson is an avowed Communist and it submits to Your Excellency that if this is such he should not be continued in the office which he now holds.

Rochester Council No. 178, Knights of Columbus, therefore, requests your Excellency to look into this matter, and if it should be determined that Simon W. Gerson is an avowed Communist to have the Honorable Stanley M. Isaacs show cause why Mr. Gerson should not be removed from the public service.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this matter, we are

Respectfully yours,
ROCHESTER COUNCIL, No. 178
Knights of Columbus
LEO F. ROMBAUT
Grand Knight

On Thursday of last week the Governor denied the petition of the New York groups.

In a letter to Commander Cross and six other signers of the petition which was presented to him on March 8, Governor Lehman said: "In the consideration of a petition for removal of a public officer the Governor cannot be affected by public clamor."

The appointment, the Governor said, is legal under the Constitution and the laws of the State of New York.

The petition was presented to the Governor by a delegation consisting of Commander Cross, the Rev. Dr. Edward Lodge Curran, president of the International Catholic Truth Society, John B. Trevor, president of the American Coalition, an organization of more than 100 patriotic societies, John M. Beahy of the Catholic War Veterans, Meyer Neumann of the Jewish War Veterans and State Deputy Joseph F. Lamb and George Timone of the Knights of Columbus.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of the International Catholic Truth Society, led by their president, Mrs. Edna Garde, have distributed tens of thousands of petitions asking Mr. Isaacs to remove Mr. Gerson. The petitions have been sent to Governor Lehman, Mayor LaGuardia and Mr. Isaacs.

ULSTER ELECTION TERMED FRAUD

DUBLIN (NC) The General Election in Northern Ireland has not been without its healthy repercussions even in the camp of the Unionists.

W. J. Stewart, M. P., one of the new party of Progressive Unionists, in a statement to the press described Lord Craigavon's election as a sham and a fraud. Furthermore he declared that "Mr. de Valera is gaining and the Six Counties are losing British sympathy. The election, he said, had lost Ulster very many friends in Britain."

"The Ulster Government," he said, "has created so much discontent and misgiving that about one third of the votes cast were against the Government, and that in the face of intimidation."

Author To Study Catholic Action

LONDON (NC) Paul McGuire, noted detective fictionist and keen student of Catholic Action developments throughout the world, has left here for the United States. He hopes to see at first-hand the working of the National Catholic Welfare Conference and the Catholic Church Extension Society.

A few days before leaving here he returned from a continental trip during which he studied closely the J. O. C. movement in Belgium and the Grail in Holland.

Mr. McGuire was the first Master of the Catholic Guild for Social Studies in Australia.

Next to California itself, most residents of Southern California were born in Illinois.

RECEIVE GIFTS FOR CONGRESS MONSTRANCE

More than 5,000 persons contributed this pile of gold and silver articles and gems to be used in making the special ostensorium for the Eighth National Eucharistic Congress to be held in New Orleans, in October. The gifts included 2,310 rings, 403 watches, a pectoral cross and Bishop's ring. Left to right: Mrs. Fred Beyer, chairman of the D. C. C. W. committee in charge of the collection, Dr. Maud Loeber, president, the Most Rev. Joseph F. Rummel, Archbishop of New Orleans; Miss Marie Bunol, originator of the collection idea holding the gift of St. Anthony's school, Baton Rouge, and the Rt. Rev. Peter M. J. H. Wynhoven, chairman of the country-wide contest for a design for the monstrance.

PEACE FOR EUROPE AIM OF CONGRESS AT BUDAPEST

Reconciliation of European nations through the power of the Eucharist will be the particular purpose of the thirty-fourth International Eucharistic Congress in Budapest, Hungary, in May. The resumption of the Congress on the Continent after a lapse of fourteen years, and the selection of Budapest, a comparatively small center of central Europe, are regarded as especially significant.

Probably the largest group of Americans attending the Congress at Budapest will be that formed by the Catholic Travel League with national headquarters at 9 Rockefeller Plaza, New York. This movement will be under the leadership of Rev. Joseph E. Stedman, director of the Confraternity of the Precious Blood, Brooklyn, who has been designated as spiritual director by Bishop Thomas E. Molloy, Bishop of Brooklyn.

Budapest, the charming capital of Hungary with its fine Royal Castle perched high above the blue Danube, its picturesque hills and the green islands of the Danube, would appear even by reason of its unique position a worthy setting for a great Eucharistic meeting of nations.

It was not so much for its natural beauty that the Hungarian capital was chosen as the venue for the 1938 Congress as for the occurrence in 1938 of the ninth centenary of the death of Hungary's Founder, King St. Stephen. Although the Jubilee of St. Stephen is to be celebrated altogether apart from the International Eucharistic Congress, yet the year of the latter will usher in the year of Jubilee.

The Catholic Travel League, which was cited by Pope Pius XI for developing the largest group from America to attend the Eucharistic Congress in Ireland in 1932 and the Holy Year ceremonies in Rome in 1933, is handling the arrangements of the pilgrimage which will be led by Rev. Mr. Stedman.

Detroit Cathedral Designated by Pope

DETROIT (NC) His Holiness Pope Pius XI has designated the Church of the Blessed Sacrament to be the Cathedral of the Archdiocese of Detroit and its pastor, the Rev. John J. Connelly, has been created a Domestic Prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor.

This information was contained in a message received from the Most Rev. Edward Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, from Vatican City.

The Mass on the second day of Forty Hours Devotion is called the Mass of peace.

Radicals Heckle Priest At Hearing On Youth Measure

persons, the American Youth Congress which is grossly sponsoring the measure could say it represents. Father Mooney said the Congress claims to represent 2,000,000 individuals.

"Do you think the American Youth Congress represents the youth of the country?" Senator Lee asked.

"Absolutely not," Father Mooney replied.

Demonstrators Reprimanded

Immediately proponents of the bill began hissing and booing. Senator Lee rapped for order and reprimanded the demonstrators. He reminded them that the sub-committee had spent a week hearing proponents of the measure and now when they hissed the appearance of an opponent of the bill they showed they couldn't take it.

Father Mooney's statement to the sub-committee follows in part:

"As Director of the Catholic Youth Bureau of the National Catholic Welfare Conference I am privileged to submit this statement with reference to S.1160 introduced by Mr. Lundeen which is now before your Subcommittee.

"The purpose of this bill as stated in the bill itself is 'to provide vocational guidance, vocational training, and employment opportunities for youth between the ages of 16 and 25, to provide for increased educational opportunities for high school, college, and post graduate students.'

"The youth situation is acute, but at the same time we must not lose sight of the fact that it is but one phase of a larger problem. Many of the supporters of the American Youth Act are young people of unquestioned good intent. It is well to bear in mind, however, that youth is always in a great hurry to get things done. Youth wants immediate action and young people supporting the bill have rather expansive ideas as regards their claims to government aid and assistance. The evidence offered in support of the bill is also an indication of youth's dissatisfaction with our present social system. Ordinarily they would outgrow that attitude if the present economic situation were to show marked improvement.

"The methods of accomplishing the objectives as indicated in the bill are not only very indefinite as regards the program itself, they are also impractical as regards administration. Before considering any such proposals, it would be very desirable to determine just what has been accomplished to date and what could be accomplished through the medium of existing agencies and bureaus. Duplication of effort and the multiplication of services is not desirable. This is particularly true in view of the limited budget available for Federal projects.

Large Group Segregated

"The bill begins with students in high school, whose average age is about 16 years, and it ends with youth who are twenty-five years of age. This bill segregates a very large and important section, and entrusts the welfare of that population group to the authority of an independent Federal agency.

"In submitting this statement it is unnecessary to remind you that we are all deeply concerned with the many problems centering about youth. We recognize the necessity of improving youth's position in society. At the same time, it is our opinion, that this bill is not a practical and workable answer to the problem. As Director of the Catholic Youth Bureau, which is deeply concerned with the interests of a large percentage of American youth, protest is hereby recorded against this bill. May we suggest that your Subcommittee report the same adversely to the full Committee on Education and Labor of the United States Senate."

REDS ORDER TOLERANCE

LJUBLJANA (NC) — Slovenec, the journal of Dr. Korošec, Minister of Interior, carries an article from Warsaw reporting that Polish police have gotten possession of some very important documents in their energetic campaign against communistic propaganda in Poland.

One of the important discoveries was that Communists are instructed to "preserve the most absolute secrecy about their opinions, their political program, their cultural ideas and their attitude with respect to the Catholic religion," and must preach "a free Church in a free State," and that religious opinions are personal affairs and no one should meddle in this domain. Special instructions were sent propagandists in Poland to "avoid contact with members of the Catholic clergy, who have democratic opinions," and to preach religious tolerance and in declaring themselves "for democracy," even go so far as to decry the revolution.

Clearance OF SHIRTS

Originally Priced $1.35 to $2.50 $1.00

Since last Thursday, Rochester men—and women who buy for men—have been profiting by this clearance of definitely better shirts at this phenomenally low price! Mostly whites—the backbone of any spring wardrobe—a few fancies included, and they're remarkably fine, too! Some of the shirts have been handled and soiled, but the laundry can make them good as new again in a jiffy! Broken sizes, of course, but you're pretty certain to find your size somewhere in the lot.
