FINAL RITES HELD IN NATIVE AUBURN

For Army Chaplain Who Died on Coast

By M. R. WELCH

AUBURN An army chaplain from the time of the World War, the Rev George J. Bryant, who died in San Francisco on April 7 was buried here on April 13 following services at Holy Family Church

Father Bryant's remains were brought back from San Francisco accompanied by his brothers, Frederick Bryant of Syracuse and Joseph Bryant of New York

In the California city where he had been ill about 10 months, a Solemn Requiem Mass was offered in Old St Mary's Church at which the Most Rev John J Mitty Archbishop of San Francisco and about 20 priests were in the sanctuary together with the chaplain's many friends

The Solemn High Mass here was offered by the Very Rev Dean John A Conway assisted by the Rev Francis Harding as deacon and the Rev John J Healy as subdeacon Many relatives and friends of Auburn were present

Bearers, all nephews of the former chaplain, were Joseph, Jr., Russell, Francis, Donald and Frederick Bryant, Jr., and Raymond M Kenny Jr

Father Bryant was an altar boy for many years and a graduate of Holy Family School and Auburn High School

After studying at Niagara University and St Andrew's and St Bernard's Seminaries at Rochester he was ordained to the priesthood at Cheyenne, Wyoming

He served as pastor at Casper Wyoming, until he was appointed chaplain in the U S Army in 1917 to serve all through the last war and then carrying on with the same work at the Army base in San Francisco

Approximately 10 years ago he was appointed chaplain to the Letterman General Hospital at Presidio California, where he continued until illness halted his labors

Father Bryant was the son of the late William Bryant and Sarah Parker Bryant of Auburn He is survived by three brothers, Frederick J. of Syracuse, N Y, and Joseph A and Thomas V both of Staten Island, New York also by two sisters, Mrs John Duer of Lynn, Mass and Mrs Raymond M Kenny of Auburn

Burial was in the family plot at St Joseph's

SPEAKERS ON SHANGHAI'S CATHOLIC HOUR.

Inaugurated by Monsignor McGrath, Prefect Apostolic of Lishui, Chekiang, at the request of the Bishop of Shanghai, the Catholic Hour is being broadcast bi-weekly from the Church of Christ the King by the Fathers of the California Jesuit Mission in China. Floods of appreciatory letters from foreign residents and English-speaking Chinese all over the country bear witness to its popular appeal.

MISSION INTENTION: For the Missions in Mohammedan Territory.

Once again we direct your prayers, at the instructions of His Holiness, Pope Pius XI for the priests and sisters struggling in North Africa. Their task is a mighty one and success is dependent upon your good prayers Will you not keep them in mind that God will bless their Apostolic labors

Propagation Feast

St Fidelis, born in 1577 in Sigmaringen Prussia, entered the legal profession as a young man. Finding the corruption of the 17th century law courts repugnant to him, he relinquished his practice and was ordained to the priesthood in 1612, a member of the Order of Friars Minor of the Capuchin Reform These were strenuous days in the Church Heresy was rampant attracting thousands from the folds of Catholicism The Bishop of Switzerland invited St Fidelis to come to the city of Coire and combat this pernicious error His efforts were so successful that heretical preachers laid plans to ensnare him to death as he cried "I have come to extirpate heresy, not to embrace it"

St Fidelis is known as the martyr of the Propaganda Members of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith may gain a plenary Indulgence on his feast, Sunday April 24

Catechists

The maintenance of catechist schools is a branch of mission work secondary in importance only to that of the seminary and novice. Catechists can be trained in ten years and sent out to take advantage of opportunities that exist By the time the priests and sisters come along, the catechists have prepared large numbers for their ministration." Father Joseph Regan, M.M., makes an urgent appeal for the catechist school of his mission in South China. Father Regan is a native of Fairhaven, Mass Before entering Maryknoll he attended St Bernard Seminary in this city We would be privileged to send along to Father Regan any donations our readers might care to offer his work

Fruits of Charity

Taisan, China Before the Province of Shantung was surrendered to Japanese forces, thousands of refugees, Christian and non-Christian alike, found in the Catholic Mission compound, the help and protection for which they stood so sorely in need The gratitude of these refugees showed itself in an increased attitude towards the Church Many of them made up their minds to prepare for the decisive step baptism About 7,000 catechumens approached the priests for this purpose At Eastertide about one half of this number will be received into the Church

Is it any wonder, then, that mission authorities are making a frantic appeal for assistance in training a Native Clergy It is next to impossible to expect foreign countries priests and sisters sufficient to meet this crisis Mission progress is being harassed only because of a lack of workers We would encourage this genuinely mission-minded to give some serious thought to this problem. If your charity moves you to make response, we would welcome your visit to our office in order to discuss this matter more thoroughly

'BE DIFFERENT' SPEAKER URGES

Geneva Club Group At Easter Event

By FRANK A. CONBOY, JR.

GENEVA "Dare to be different" was the advice given by Charles A Tucker to about 100 members of the St Stephen's Club at their 3rd annual Easter communion breakfast, at Seneca hotel, Sunday morning

Mr Tucker prominent in Rochester K of C activity advised the group to be different by thinking for themselves as individuals always striving to attain the superlative ranking not in evil, but in good channels of endeavor

He pointed out that there is nothing new in vice as the very evil practices now hailed as new freedom in thought and morals can in reality be traced back to the corrupt days of Nineveh and Babylon.

There is, however, a great deal of good to be done much of which is still undone, he added

Rev. Raymond P Nolan, Director of the Club, was toastmaster. The program included prompting singing with Jack Hickey at the piano and Maurice Buckley directing.

Miss Eileen Cook presented a humorous monologue in which she appeared as an eccentric woman shopping for shoes on a very warm July afternoon.

Fred Toole offered a piano solo after which Fred Ferris sang several solos accompanied at the piano by Jack Toole.

A tap-dance and song routine called "Easter-time is the time for eggs" as presented by Master Donald McCusker completed the entertainment program.

Miss Grace Grimes was chairman of arrangements for the breakfast assisted by a large committee.

POLISH ALL-STAR FIVE PICKED BY LEAGUE HEADS

The Polish League officials, after careful study and deliberation finally selected the 1938 edition of the Polish All-Star quintet. Three members of the Polish Rams, one forward from the Falcon Rambler five and Koubiak of the Polish G. A. U. made the team.

High scoring Kulpinski barely edged out young Billy Malanka for the right forward starting berth "Pepper" Kulpinski is a great scoring treat and a very good ball handler The other starting position was won by Wardynski, as good a passer as could be found in the Hudson Ave district Stan a spectacular player, made most of her points with his deadly accuracy on one-hand flip shots.

Tall Kowski was selected as center on the squad because of his ability as a feeder He is also a good shot when the occasion demands Malinowski and Koubiak, two fine defensive players and little trouble in making the team Both players are team men and serve to steady the teams in the thick of the battle.

Honorable mention was given to the following players for their fine play this year Oaminkowski, Linski, Maslanka, Ostrowski and L Koubiak

"My First Automobile"

"My first automobile taught me to save. I was a young married man and we bought a car. For a year I paid $25 a month to pay off the balance of its price.

"While making the last payment the thought came to me, 'This has been easy' If I had been paying $25 a month to myself I would now have $300 cash Well, why not do it?"

"That same day I opened a savings account at the Rochester Savings Bank. I continued paying $25 each month but instead of paying it to others I paid it into my savings account.

"It all happened ten years ago and we have saved ever since. Our savings account has bought us cars, clothes, conveniences for our home and much happiness. We couldn't get along without it.

"You too can have all we have had. Start to save"
