SILVER JUBILEE SOUVENIR

With a striking silver cover carrying an exceptionally clear air view of St Andrew's school rectory and church the Silver Jubilee souvenir of St Andrew's parish has made its appearance.

A fine likeness of His Excellency Bishop Kearney furnishes the frontispiece The leading article on "The Story of Twenty-five Years" records the activities of the parish since its founding and tells of the many achievements under the pastorate of the Rev George W Eckl the present pastor

There is an excellent portrait of the Most Rev Thomas F. Hickey and full and half-page views of the present church, exterior and interior and of the first church and school

Pictures of Father Eckl and his two assistants the Rev. Elmer Heindl and the Rev Raymond Wuest are included with those of former assistants and former trustees The present trustees, George Butts Jr and Henry A Schlueter are included in the photographs

A reproduction of the Silver Jubilee Chalice and Ciborium made from old gold collected prior to the Jubilee Celebration is a feature of the souvenir.

Organizations the choir, Sisters of Notre Dame who teach in the school a list of 26 girls who entered religion from St Andrew's parish and boys of the parish ordained to the Holy Priesthood are all recorded.

Mattle Funeral Home Marks Golden Jubilee

Fifty years of continuous service to Rochester has just been completed by A J Mattle and Sons, Funeral Directors

The firm was established in 1889 by the late John A Mattle The location was at 102 Clinton Avenue North until 1913 when the firm moved to the present location at 300 Cumberland St

Andrew J Mattle brother of John joined the firm a short time previous to his brother's death and maintained his residence in Hudson Avenue near Clifford from 1896 to 1924 He attended Holy Redeemer School and still maintains his connection with that parish although residing in Irondequoit

In 1914 John W Mattle son of Andrew J joined the firm and became a partner in 1923 He was graduated from Holy Redeemer School the old Cathedral High School and Renouard's Embalming School in New York City Both he and his father are active in church affairs of their respective parishes

John Mattle is president of the Holy Name Society at St John the Evangelist Church He served at one time as President of both the State and National Funeral Directors Association

"It is a far cry from the old days" states Mr Mattle "Conducting a funeral thirty or forty years ago was not an easy task Horse drawn carriages and hearses were used and four to six hours often elapsed between the time the pastor started the service and the final burial rites not to mention the discomforts of these old time conveyances The art of funeral direction has advanced yet the feeling that something has been accomplished and a service rendered to the people means more than advancement and mere dollars and cents, although modern methods and equipment make possible greater and better service in every respect"

Holy Rosary Parish Lauded At Golden Jubilee Events

Auspiciously begun with the impressive Solemn Pontifical Mass on last Sunday, the Golden Jubilee week of Holy Rosary Parish will be brought to a fitting close with general family Communion on Sunday, the Feast of the Holy Family.

Colorful and devotional was the Pontifical Mass celebrated by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E Kearney, Bishop of Rochester which brought back to Holy Rosary parish, the Most Rev. Archbishop Thomas F Hickey who had much to do with the parish as Bishop of Rochester and the Most Rev Walter A. Foery, Bishop of Syracuse immediate predecessor to the Rt Rev Msgr Charles F. Shay present beloved pastor.

A large number of prelates and priests from this and other dioceses participated in the ceremony. The dignitaries were escorted by the Knights of St John under command of Colonel Frederick J. Wegman and Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus headed by Faithful Navigator Norman A O'Brien, an auditor of the parish.

Pope's Blessing

The Holy Father has sent his paternal blessings to all in Holy Rosary parish, Bishop Kearney said in his address on the Golden Jubilee

"Fifty years devotion to the Blessed Mother under the title Queen of the Holy Rosary is most commendable," the Bishop stated. "It challenges the devotion of every member of the diocese because the Rosary enters into the life and soul of every Catholic"

Parish life in Holy Rosary parish over fifty years was living the story of the mysteries of the Rosary, the Bishop declared. He recalled the joy in the young priests saying their First Masses, the young Sisters' return after reception of the habit, the Pontifical Mass of the former pastor, of the weddings and the many Baptisms. The sorrow at losing loved ones and the grief felt in the confessional were joined with the glory of fifty years faithful devotion to Jesus Christ and His Blessed Mother

Pastor Commended

The Bishop paid tribute to the present pastor "who with such magnificent attention to detail has organized this period of thanksgiving

The three members of the Hierarchy were especially welcomed by Monsignor Shay as he expressed deep gratitude to them and to the priests, sisters and laity who had come to participate in the Golden Jubilee

Present at the Pontifical Mass were the Rt Rev Msgr John F Glavin Rensselaer N Y, the Rt Rev Msgr James J. Hartley, P.A., the Rt Rev Msgr Joseph Gambino Buffalo, the Rt Rev Msgr. William M Hart V.G the Rt Rev. Msgr William F Bergan, Chancellor and pastor of St Monica's Church the Rt. Rev. Msgr George V Burns; the Rt Rev Msgr John F Goggin the Rt Rev Msgr. John P Schellhorn

The Very Reverend Fathers, Thomas Plassmann O.F.M., of St Bonaventure College John H O'Loane C.S.B., Stephen W Aulbach C.SS.R

The Reverend Fathers, Joseph Smith O.S.A., Tulsa, Oklahoma George C Macauley S.J. Buffalo; William J. Brien, Elmira, James H Curley, Albany Lawrence B. Casey, John F. Muckle, Daniel B. O'Rourke Thomas F Connors, John H O'Brien F William Stauder Francis B Burns, Gerald C Lambert, Sebastian Contegiacomo, C.P.P.S Arthur Ratigan, Andrew T Dusett Gerald T Brennan Dr Frederick J Zwierlein, John K Wheaton John S Randall Paul J Gaffney Patrick J McArdle and Philip Golding

Plaque Dedicated

Joyful music for the occasion was furnished by the Holy Rosary choir directed by James McGrath

Immediately following the Mass the Bishop dedicated a large bronze plaque commemorating the Golden Jubilee, the gift of Herman G. Hetzler.

All this week the parishioners have been participating in special Masses and entertainments Highlight of the social activities was the banquet last night at Bausch and Lomb dining hall with 1,500 in attendance An entertainment on Tuesday at Aquinas Institute drew a capacity audience.

Jubilee Banquet Attended By 2,000

Nearly 2,000 members of Holy Rosary parish assembled in Bausch and Lomb Optical Company dining room last night for the Golden Jubilee dinner at which the principal speakers were His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester and the Most Rev. Walter A. Foery, Bishop of Syracuse and former pastor of Holy Rosary Church here.

It was a gala occasion for the parishioners, this week, celebrating fifty years of the parish's existence.

Bishop Foery paid what he termed was "a golden tribute on a golden jubilee to a people whose hearts aren't simply gilded with gold, but are gold to the core"

Supplementing the tribute paid Sunday, Bishop Kearney lauded the spirit of Holy Rosary parish and welcomed the guests.

Bishop Foery commended the parish for its contribution to the community.

"Christ," Bishop Foery said, "is the ruler of a universal kingdom; He is the King to Whom all people look up The nearness of the people of Holy Rosary Church to Him, and their dignity to Christ, is a tribute to them and their lives"

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor of Holy Rosary Church pronounced the benediction. Dr. Benedict J. Duffy was toastmaster Surrogate Joseph M Feely was chairman.

Present also were the Rt Rev Msgr William M Hart, V.G., the Rt Rev Msgr William F Bergan, Chancellor of the diocese, Mrs A. Agnes O'Brien Foery, the Misses Florence and Loretta Foery, mother and sisters of Bishop Foery and the Misses Cecilia and Mae Hughes, sisters of the late Rt Rev Msgr Arthur A Hughes, a former pastor of Holy Rosary parish.

Fabulous Amusement Profits Assailed

DUBLIN The modern inordinate pursuit of pleasure is reflected in the lopsidedness of economic life today the Very Rev P O'Neill, Vice-President of St Patrick's College Maynooth, said at the annual meeting of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association of the Sacred Heart here

Father O'Neill said something is wrong when the most profitable enterprises are those connected with pleasure and the provision of amusement while the least profitable are those concerned with the production of essential commodities

A New Fish Story

A correspondent of America tells a new kind of fish story The Sister cook of a Chicago convent of the Little Sisters of the Poor found herself without fish for the noon dinner. She prayed to St. Joseph and at 11:30 A. M a local fishmonger delivered a fine order of fish, which at once went into the oven and was duly consumed at dinner. The Sister cook was still saying thanksgivings to St. Joseph when at 12 30 the fishmonger appeared saying he had made a mistake, the fish was for De Paul University! - Catholic Herald-Citizen (Milwaukee).

DE VALERA LAUDS SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

DUBLIN.—At public meetings here and in Cork in support of the St. Vincent de Paul Society attended by prominent citizens, urgent and stirring appeals were made for support of the Society in both cities.

Speaking at the meeting here, Premier Eamon de Valera stated the Irish St. Vincent de Paul Society paid out in relief last year £430,000, of which £170,000 was spent here. Referring to the fact that the war situation will create problems the State cannot meet and which must be left to voluntary societies, the Premier paid tribute to the St. Vincent de Paul Society and to the Legion of Mary for their prompt action in aiding the many refugees who came to Ireland without funds at the beginning of the war. He appealed for more members and larger subscriptions to help the Society.
