Religious 'Quiz', New K. C. Program

A Religious "Quiz Program" and a talk on the Catholic Press will feature the meeting of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus on Thursday evening, Feb. 1, in Columbus Civic Centre.

Inaugurating a new Catholic Activity the Council with the assistance of the Rev. Joseph E. Vogt, director Social Action Division, Rochester Catholic Charities, will conduct a contest in answering questions on religion.

Father Vogt will act as moderator Two teams of five knights each will be headed by Theodore J. Houck and William J Jones. The questions will be given by Father Vogt who will explain the correct answers if contestants fail to answer

Arranging for this program which will be in the manner of "quiz" programs on the radio, Chancellor George L. McKay, chairman of the Catholic Activities Committee, has conferred with fifteen priest-members of the Council who have co-operated wholeheartedly in furnishing suitable questions.

"The Catholic Press, How About It" will be the topic of a talk given by Recorder Thomas H. O'Connor news editor of the CATHOLIC COURIER and editor of the "Knight's Columns" council publication. This is in keeping with the Knights' observance of Catholic Press Month as advocated by the Supreme Council.

Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn will preside at a business session and will outline the Lenten program for the knights. He will urge each knight to co-operate with the Parish Discussion Club in the study of the "Holy Mass."

Pamphlets Go Out For Discussion Club Program

While plans go forward in the parishes for a banner year for Religious Discussion Clubs, the pamphlet "Why All Should Go To Mass," the text to be used, is being distributed through the office of the Director the Rev. John M. Duffy.

"There seems to be an especial enthusiasm for the subject," the Rev. John M. Duffy said in an interview this week. "Most Catholics have had but little teaching on the Mass and are eager to learn more." Their interest will be tested by the number of Discussion Clubs in each parish, and the results of efforts in this field should be shown by increased attendance at daily Mass during Lent.

The pamphlets on the Mass will be at nearly all parish rectories by Sunday Leaders and club members may obtain copies by calling at the rectory. The pamphlet is attractively written with questions at the end of each chapter There are about 7 pages to each chapter. While the pamphlet contains a wealth of information about the Sacrifice of the Mass, there is devotion on every page, and every one who reads with earnestness will derive a better appreciation of the Sacrifice renewed daily on the altar

Noted Educator To Lecture At Nazareth

In science and scientific development lies the threat of a great tragedy to the modern world, warns Dr Mortimer J Adler, University of Chicago professor and philosopher who will lecture here before the students and alumnae of Nazareth College at Nazareth Academy Auditorium, on Lake Avenue, Friday evening, February 2

While scientific knowledge is both good in itself and useful practically, there is grave danger in the growing disproportion between science and wisdom in our lives," he said in a recent interview

"The more science we have, the more power we have, but the more our power exceeds our wisdom, the greater is the danger that we shall misuse it rather than make it serve our ultimate welfare"

"Science," he states, "is the central figure in the story of modern times, and the great question is whether science is going to turn out to be the tragic hero headed for a cultural calamity"

This attitude towards science and a great many other important issues facing thinking people in the world today will be analysed by this brilliant young philosopher and teacher in his lecture here The subject he will discuss is "Faith and Reason."

Dr Adler is best known for his books on philosophical subjects and for his work with President Hutchins of the University of Chicago in putting into operation that institution's celebrated "New Plan" of college instruction. In educational theory he terms himself a "traditionalist," as one favoring a more moderate adaptation of the much-mooted "progressive" theories now in use in many American schools.

His books include "What Man Has Made of Man," "Crime Law and Social Science," "Dialectic," "Art and Prudence" "Diagrammatics," and "St Thomas and the Gentiles"

Dr Adler was born in New York City in 1920, and was educated in the city schools and at Columbia University

He is officially designated as a "professor of the philosophy of law" at Chicago University but prefers the term "professor at large" which more nearly describes his wide responsibilities at the institution.

Verein Hears Credit Unions Do Real Job

That there is most gratifying progress and that real Christian work is being achieved by the four credit unions formed with the aid of the Rochester Branch, Catholic Central Verein, was brought out in reports made by delegates at the regular monthly meeting of the branch, Sunday afternoon in St. Joseph's Hall.

All reports indicated affiliated societies were putting into practice most of the recommendations made at monthly Branch meetings.

A wholesome reaction on the part of various societies to matter contained in resolutions of the National and States organizations was indicated.

That a creditable amount will go to the Central Bureau at St. Louis was shown in a preliminary report of the recent card party for the Expansion Fund

Report on Broadcasting

The Branch heard read a letter from the Federal Communications Commission requesting that the code adopted by the National Broadcasters' Association be given an opportunity to show its effectiveness and to prove that it was not a violation of the right of free speech This letter was declared quite different in tone from a former letter received from the Commission It was decided to postpone for the present further action in this matter.

Printed proceedings of the State Branch Convention were distributed. Handed out also were copies of the free leaflet "Social Study Clubs—How To Organize Them." A goodly number of the Encyclical "Summi Pontificatus" were distributed A special of this Encyclical will be made.

Owing to increasing business of an important nature it was decided to hold two meetings each month when arrangements are made.

Corporative Organization

A brochure published by the Central Bureau, "What Is the Corporative Organization," was directed to the attention of the Branch by former County Judge Philip H Donnelly, who gave a short explanation of a corporative organization as outlined in the brochure

An animated question period followed with many questions asked as to means for establishing such an organization. It was pointed out that recommendations in the Encyclical of Pope Pius XI "On the Reconstruction of the Social Order" regarding vocational groups were to be followed
