SODALITY COMMUNION

Senior Sodality of Holy Family Church will receive Holy Communion in a body, Sunday, Oct. 20, at 8 o'clock Mass. Following this a delicious breakfast will be served in the school hall. Dolores Saxe has been named chairman.

Among the many social events to take place this season, one of the most outstanding will be the Halloween Party. Sodalists will gather in the school hall, Thursday evening, Oct. 31, to enjoy an old-fashioned masquerade party. For those who did not attend the last meeting there will be a charge of 15 cents to be paid on that night. "We are certain that everyone who attends this gala occasion will have a grand time."

Attendance at Sodality meetings is increasing since a Nickelodian was acquired. Sodalists may now enjoy themselves after the meetings by dancing to the tunes of popular song recordings of famous dance bands.

SS. Peter and Paul's

HOLD SUCCESSFUL PARTY

The Chapel Card Party held last Monday was a splendid success and the Sisters extend a very sincere "thank you" to all who attended and who worked so hard on committees. The huge throng which was present expressed delight with the arrangements and the prizes. The work which the Sisters are carrying on in the school is sincerely appreciated and the parishioners responded heartily to their appeal. Proceeds from this party will be used to redecorate the Chapel.

The Holy Name Society held a pinochle tournament with genial "Bill" Heuer as chairman in the school hall last Wednesday. A large crowd was in attendance and everything was conducted according to the "army" rules in keeping with registration. This is the second in a series of social activities which the Holy Name Society has sponsored and from the enthusiasm shown, these affairs are well liked. The activities committee has mapped quite an ambitious program for the year and all indications point to a successful season.

Grand-Niece Of Saint, Nun, Dies In China

SHANGHAI.—Mother St Clement, Superior of the Helpers of the Holy Souls Community at Yangchow, has died here, Lumen Service reports.

The deceased was a grand-niece of St. Clement Hofbauer and arrived in China 30 years ago. As Superior of the Holy Family School she showed remarkable courage and ingenuity in protecting some three hundred pupils during the troubled days of 1927, and was later instrumental in organizing the Women's Section of Catholic Action. She was transferred to Yangchow five years ago to establish a new house of her community there and had the satisfaction of seeing her work develop so that there are now 21 Sisters (four foreign and seven Chinese) in charge of a school, a catechumenate and a dispensary.

Office of the Director

October 15 1940

Mr Frank Colapinto
Eastman School of Music
Rochester New York

"Dear Mr Colapinto

"I am happy to take this opportunity of extending my congratulations both to you and to the CATHOLIC COURIER for the inauguration of the new column on music under your direction.

"Music is playing an increasingly important part in the enrichment of the lives of men and women. This is particularly true in our own country which enjoys the blessings of peace and the opportunity and the leisure to cultivate the joys of the spirit. Rochester is happy in its musical accomplishments and in the belief that it is offering to its citizens unusual opportunities for the cultivation of an appreciation of beauty.

"The CATHOLIC COURIER is to be congratulated, as well as its readers, for the breadth of its policy whereby it offers to music, the most spiritual of all of the arts, the encouragement of its support.

"With best wishes for every success of this column, I am

"Yours cordially
HOWARD HANSON
Director"

Dear Howard Hanson

You are the hardest working musician I know. Home from concert ordeal on the Coast, late, with an accumulation of problems awaiting you, yet you find time to write so well of this my trifling venture.

Only yesterday I stole away from practice long enough to hear you rehearse the Eastman School Symphony in the Daphne and Chloe Suites of Ravel.

The annex room deep in brown and green shone with cider light. Where I stood, four gold harps gave October tones.

And more than one hundred young Americans, who work for you like wheat threshers, sought to satisfy your demands of excellence and beauty.

Hang there like fruit O soul till the tree die.

Ever yours
FRANK COLAPINTO

Jesuits' Lives Form Broadcast Series

LOS ANGELES.—Dramatic and heroic episodes in the lives of 20 outstanding Jesuit martyrs, missionaries, scholars and historians will furnish the themes for a series of weekly broadcasts to be given in the course of the current school year by the Radio Department of Loyola University under the direction of Prof. Martin Work.

The programs, written and enacted by Loyola Radio Department students, will mark the fourth centenary of the foundation of the Society of Jesus.

Officially Switzerland is known as Helvetia. That is the name that all coins, stamps and State documents bear.

Wins Insurance Course Diploma

John W. Norton, of the Lucas & Dake, Inc., Insurance Agency, local general agents of the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company and a graduate of Aquinas Institute and Notre Dame University, has returned home after five weeks at the Aetna home office in Hartford, Conn.

John W. Norton

While there he completed a special course of training in various casualty and fire coverages.

"Casualty insurance has developed so rapidly in recent years and now includes so many important forms of business and personal protection that special training in its many ramifications is highly desirable," it was stated at his office this week.

"The importance of the survey method of selling insurance is stressed. In other words, there must be a thorough diagnosis before an efficient program of protection can be effected. As a result, Mr Norton feels better qualified than ever to advise his present and future clients properly regarding both business and personal protection."

Eminent Statesman's Death Great Loss To Belgium

VICHY.—The death of Count de Brocqueville, eminent Belgian Catholic statesman, is held to be a great blow to Belgium now more than ever before in need of wise leaders.

Count de Brocqueville was Prime Minister of Belgium in 1912 at a time when Belgium was an arena of social agitation. He led the Catholic Party to victory at the polls in 1914 and while King Albert was in the field with the Belgian Army headed the Government in exile at Le Havre France. He resigned at the end of the Great War.

Seven years ago, when political dissension again was rife, King Leopold appealed to Count de Brocqueville to step in and bring about harmony.

'Me Too'

A little bright eyed three-year-old was seated in his high chair at the dinner table. Mamma had arranged the little uneasy one, while for the moment his springiness had made him the observed of the family. She had placed him snugly up to the table, pinned on his bib and succeeded in getting the little mischievous hands quiet, and making him "hush" when father proceeded to say grace. While this was going on, our little chubby pet made a discovery. It was that all the pinies on the table except his own dear little plate were in one pile at "papa's place," and, as it seemed to him, were put there to get the benefit of the solemn ceremony which was about to be offered by the papa he loved so well. So scarcely waiting for the "amen" and bracing himself up in his little armchair he held out his own plate in both hands and exclaimed triumphantly, "Please papa, pray on my plate too".—Prospector.

In These Dark Days

During these dark and war-torn days the Society for the Propagation of the Faith begs the prayers of the faithful "For Works for the Increase of Vocations for the Missions." Then with deep faith and heartfelt charity we must unite in our appeal to the "God of all nations" to "grant that from the heart of America apostles may rise speedily and in great numbers to carry the glad tidings of His revealed word to those who know Him not."
