The Ides of March—Income Tax

[illegible] Income tax. We [illegible] tax upon [illegible] profits at this time. [illegible] of our contributions [illegible] happy and the mission [illegible] has not been so generous in view of the exemption allowed. Yet as we hear the pathetic appeals of missionaries in far-off countries the need for aid from American Catholics becomes apparent. The following illustrates the necessity of our generous support.

We cannot count much on local help in this new centre, says Father C. J. Young, C.S.C., of Bengal, India, although the people did give us most of the rice we ate last year. One headman presented us with a cow and a calf another gave a goat. The attend to God on Sunday amounts to a few annas only, a few eggs and vegetables. The most they offer in church helps to relieve the very poor among them. So you see they have really learned the commandments of the Church and appreciate [illegible] to do.

Shamrocks and Lilies

St. Joseph whose feast comes the first of this month and St. Patrick whom we remember on the 17th are both [illegible] St. Joseph's virtues can be compared to those of a General. He stays behind the lines sending reinforcements where necessary, dispatching orders, studying enemy lines but taking little or no part in the actual fighting.

St. Patrick is the soldier. He meets the enemy face to face, he witnesses death, and hunger all during the campaign but he fights for a cause that cannot lose the cause of Christ. Yet together they claim victory, hoisting the banner of Christ and enrolling new soldiers in the ranks. Both posts are of vital necessity. The General complements the soldiers and vice versa. A General without an army is useless just as an army without a General cannot endure. We at home are the Generals behind the lines. With St. Joseph to guide us and St. Patrick to fight for us, the missions cannot lose!

Way Down South In Dixie

An area of 11,000 square miles, extending over twenty counties, is the parish assigned to St. Teresa's Mission Band. It is hard to realize that in a country where luxury, wealth and comfort flourish there exist human beings who are [illegible] the necessities of life are scarce. But in the vast territory the Central Mission of Atlanta there are only 20 Catholics and ONE priest. Father Tom [illegible] who must visit a scattered missionary which includes five prisons and three CCC camps.

Arising at 4 A. M. on a Sunday, Father Tomasino makes his rounds hearing confessions, saying Mass, conducting Holy Hour, [illegible] baptisms, [illegible] marriages, other sacramental services required. The total of his collection amounts to 50 cents. Wine costs less than [illegible] cents a gallon and that he consumes over four miles each [illegible] hardly be declared a [illegible]. But it is [illegible] the hundreds of families living in squalor and the most stringent poverty [illegible] the poor [illegible] fight in the Church's cause.

Pamphlet Sales Increase

London. Pamphlets sold by the Catholic Truth Society during 1940 [illegible] 1939. Despite the fact [illegible] whole European market [illegible] of the time the [illegible] increase of [illegible] of the previous year.

Holy Family Parish

TWO WEEK MISSION

Announced last Sunday was a parish Mission to begin on next Sunday, March [illegible] and continuing for two weeks. The Precious Blood Fathers of Carrigan, Ohio, under the direction of the Rev. Father Cyril [illegible] will conduct this Mission.

Although those planning to make this Mission may attend either week, it is advised that the devotions and sermons will be directed the first week to the married people and the second week to the unmarried people. Arrangements have been made to have Mission Masses at 6:00, 7:00 and 8:00 with a short instruction following the 8:00 and 8:00 Masses. The evening sermons will begin at 7:30.

TEKAKWITHA CLUB HOST TO PARISH GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scouts of Holy Family Parish will be the guests of the Young Peoples' Tekakwitha Club at the Club's March supper-meeting on next Sunday, March 16, in the parish Auditorium. Since their inception, the six parish troops have been sponsored by this young people's organization.

The program which will begin with a supper at 5:00 P. M. will especially recognize the concerted effort of the young people in furthering the parish youth program. In honor of the Tekakwitha Club's Spiritual Director, Father Roy Murphy, the decorations and group singing will be in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. Following the supper will be a program of skits by the six troops to exhibit the work and activity of the Girl Scouts.

Other guests will include the Rev. Raymond Wahl, Director of the parish Girl Scout program; the Rev. Bernard V. Kuchman; and the Troop Leaders and their Assistants.

GIRL SCOUTS SUPPER

One of the most important days on the March calendar for the Girl Scouts of Holy Family Church of Troop 198, was the spaghetti supper given to them by Mrs. Arthur Mandara, of 48 Cedar Street, on March 6.

When the supper bell rang the guests hurried to their appointed places as spaghetti made by Mrs. Mandara, is city-wide famous, the tables were placed in horse-shoe fashion with covers being laid for thirty-five. The centerpieces for the tables were cut-outs of girl scouts made in the form of vases, the souvenirs were song sheets made up in yellow and green, the girl scouts colors of the Holy Family Girl Scouts.

Guests of honor included Rev. Raymond Wahl, the scout chaplain, Rev. Bernard Kuckman, Mrs. Margaret Kunz, Miss Agnes Erb, Miss Margery Long and Miss Ruth Smith.

Miss Marjorie Springer, head in charge of the invitations, the design of which carried out the spaghetti idea, an imitation plate with bits of yarn to imitate the spaghetti.

Mrs. Geraldine Schmidt was in charge of the arrangements, assisted by the girl scout leader, of Troop 198, Mrs. Anna Springer, the assistant leaders, Miss Marjorie Springer and Miss Carmel Alaimo, the troop committee of 198 which consists of the following: Mrs. Eugene Hour, Mrs. Edward Gierinot, Mrs. Clarence Kehoe, Mrs. Edward Long and Mr. James Wegman.

The funfest for the evening was carried out in community singing appropriate for the occasion and a recital by Miss Carmel Alaimo.

March the sixth was also the nineteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mandara. Congratulations to both from the Holy Family Girl Scouts, Troops No. 197, 198 and 199, their leaders, also their committees and all connected with the girl scouts.

Cinema Comments

Lady." The reason for its release is the cast presence of two of this year's Academy Award winners, Ginger Rogers and the soon-to-be-drafted James Stewart. It's an entertaining picture and it's probably a good idea, but frankly not trying to discount the abilities of the stars, I am sorry that they won the Academy Awards. Miss Rogers perhaps deserves an "Kitty Foyle" award, and I admit but I would [illegible] the best of the [illegible] one of the most [illegible] young men on the screen. His work in "Philadelphia Story" was just a competent comedy performance, not great acting by all. Think of voting him the award over Henry Fonda's tortured Tom Joad, Raymond Massey's distinguished "Abe Lincoln," even Charles Chaplin's "Great Dictator" and Laurence Olivier's effective portrayal in "Rebecca." The Academy Award to Stewart is undoubtedly a tribute to a player who is personally popular. But I [illegible] it wasn't to a great performance. There, George David, We agree.

Respect For Womanhood

The boy's first idea of a woman is his mother, and unless she fails to win his love and respect he has a chivalrous devotion to her which will cover his whole life.

If mothers would give their children definite religious instructions by word and example, and rule them wisely, lovingly, methodically and firmly in the habits of obedience, self-control and purity and truth, boys would less often develop into uncontrolled, lawless uncharitable men and selfish husbands, and girls would not grow into frivolous, vain, self-asserting women.
