Holy Redeemer Parish

SUMMER LAWN FETE

Announcement of the date and distribution of tickets for the annual lawn social for Holy Redeemer parishioners have set things a humming around the parish, with everyone looking forward to Friday evening, July 25, for the big get-together of the summer season.

Plans call for the repetition of all the popular features of former years, with new attractions being added when possible. Peanuts, pop, ice cream, and cake will refresh the weary as they trek from booth to booth trying their skill at the various games.

Committees to handle the details are being formed and announcement of additional members will be made later.

For the ladies plans are being made for a booth to meet their particular interests. There seems to be some doubt as to the depth of feminine interest in baseball games, etc., and so a special variety booth will be erected to attract the women. Articles are being requested for this booth from parishioners, and donations of items, (towels, handkerchiefs, etc.) running twenty-five to thirty-five cents in value will be welcomed.

Parishioners are again donating cakes for the refreshment booth and are asked to have them at the rectory by noon of the day of the bazaar, if possible.

Working on plans are: Joseph Stecklein, Martin Weber, William Powers, Joseph Walz, Raymond Warth, Arthur Englert, Bernard Florack, Eugene Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Herman, Mrs. George Noll, Mrs. Incavo, Mrs. Raymond Warth, Mrs. Henry Spiegel, Mrs. Joseph Goschke, Mary Louise Bopp, Amelia Weber, Evelyn Weber, Madeline Spiegel, Beatrice Zielinski, and Marie Leinberger.

St. Andrew's Parish

LAWN FESTIVAL AUG. 1, 2

St. Andrew's Lawn Festival will be held on two big nights, Friday and Saturday, August 1, 2.

The 27th Annual Festival at St. Andrew's, Portland Avenue, is scheduled and plans are in the hands of the committee.

Very attractive prizes totaling $1,000 are offered this year.

The light blue Plymouth car, a high class special deluxe two door sedan, is on display in front of the school.

The Festival will be held on two nights, Friday, August 1 and Saturday, August 2, on the school grounds or in the school hall in case of rain.

We wish to extend to you and your friends a most cordial invitation to come and enjoy it.

Young Folks Annual Frolic

The highlight in the summer activities of the young people of St. Andrew's Club, composed of the members of the Junior Holy Name and the Sodality of Our Lady, is the Annual Club Picnic, scheduled for August 10th at Stoney Brook Glen State Park. Reservations have been made for a beautiful section of the Glen where the picnic lunch will be served and for swimming, tennis, baseball and hiking.

Busses will leave from St. Andrew's grounds on Sunday morning directly for the Glen, to return at ten in the evening after a scheduled stop over of three hours for dancing and boating at Peg's Point on Conesus Lake.

The committee are working hard to assure that this picnic lives up to traditions of fun and sociability. Tickets are being printed and may be obtained from the committee or at the church office.

Getting On In The World

Friendships are both made and eat over books lent and borrowed. Warm interest may be awakened in mutual pleasure over a particular volume, while the non-return and ozz of a favorite book may cause a permanent rift.

If you are in the habit of lending books from your select library to your friends, always have a personal book plate on the inside cover thereby labeling each volume as yours without question. The decorative plate is a reminder to all those careless people who might forget. It is not necessary to buy these. They can be made at home of sheets of paper with quotations or monograms in neat lettering.

Reserve one shelf for books to be lent, and those you've borrowed yourself. When you borrow books from friends, a simple way of keeping yourself from forgetting is to place them between a pair of book ends, apart from your own books, and in plain sight where they can't be forgotten.

Another suggestion: keep handy a clean and proper bookmark for a volume being read. Do not turn down the corners of the pages, or slip some bulky thing into the place you wish to mark, for this ruins the volume.

Borrowed books are frequently as much a strain on friendship as borrowed and forgotten money.

Book Junior Members

Middletown, Pa.—The First Catholic Slovak Union of America will close a five-month campaign for junior members on August 15. The Jednota Juvenile Assembly, comprised of younger members of the union, will convene in Washington, August 30 to 31.

HOLY NAME OUTING

Members of the Holy Name Society who attended the annual picnic at Baker field on Westfall Rd., on last Sunday reported an enjoyable time. A fine warm day and plenty of food provided a perfect setting for a picnic. In the features of the entertainment program, the Juniors defeated the Seniors and the single men defeated the married men in two interesting baseball games. A number of races and contests rounded out the afternoon's fun. Father Francis Feeney, former moderator of the Holy Name Society, was guest of the members at the outing.

Funeral of Herbert M. Saunders of 23 Edmonds St., was held from the church at 9 o'clock on Monday morning. Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Thomas F. Connors. Mr. Saunders was the father of Sister Mary Margaret of the Order of the Sisters of Mercy. Also surviving are two other daughters, Hilda and Irma Saunders, and a sister. A large number of nuns and priests, friends of the family, were present in the church and in the sanctuary.

Many of the children of our school are enjoying their vacation at the different camps around Rochester. Several boys are spending part of the summer at Camp Stella Maris on Conesus Lake, and a number of girls are finding Camp Madonna on Canandaigua Lake an interesting place to spend a vacation.

The Senior Sodality picnic, which had been tentatively planned for next Sunday, July 20, will be held instead the following Sunday, July 27.

SCHOOL REGISTRATION

By MARY E. CAUFIELD

Parents are asked to register their children for both kindergarten and first grade during this week. Registrations must be made at St. Monica's Convent on Millbank Street. To be eligible for kindergarten, the child must be five years of age, and for the first grade, six years of age.

The Boy Scouts of St. Monica's will have a new leader for their coming meetings in the person of Raymond Gugel. Mr Gugel is replacing Benny Higgens who left last week for the U. S. Army.

Occasions of Sin

He opened the door of the lion's cage and walked in.

"Watch me," he boasted. There's nothing in this business. These are harmless cats, toothless and lazy. These were his last words. But the departed (rather, we should say, the "devoured") was no more foolish than the men and women — some unfortunately, of our acquaintance—who open the covers of the literary Lion's book and would-be Daniels of the new era, and realize too that there are wild animals waiting against which they are not prepared enough to fight. EPHPHETA.

Gaelic on Facade

Antigonish, N. S. — St. Ninian's Cathedral here is one of the very few churches which carries a Gaelic inscription on the facade. The words are "Tigh Dhe," meaning "House of God."
