Bishop Decrees Interdict When Editors Are Arrested For Opposing Gambling Law

BUENOS AIRES — The Most Rev. Carlos F. Tissera, Bishop of Catamarca, decreed a "general interdict" of five days duration in the city when the Rev. Arturo Mele, Director of La Union, as well as C. Zarate, Director of El Progreso, were placed under arrest for editorials opposing the legalization of gambling and the construction of a gambling casino at Catamarca.

The Chamber of Deputies of the Province of Catamarca ordered the detention of the two editors in the Legislature building for two days, charging them with having violated the Chamber's prerogatives. A habeas corpus procedure caused the Provincial Supreme Court to order the release of Father Mele and Senor Zarate.

Argentine Catholic Action and other organizations have addressed messages to Bishop Tissera approving his attitude toward this action against a member of the clergy for having taught a lesson which they assert is an affront to morality and legalizes a passion which is as dangerous individually and collectively as gambling.

Mario Amadeo, Provisional Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Worship, sent the following telegram to the Bishop: "Cordially congratulate Your Excellency for valiant defense of the liberty of the Church and of the welfare of the flock entrusted to your care."
