KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Deafness Cured.

I am glad to testify that I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with the best success for deafness, and believe that it is really a great relief for suffering humanity.

E. FRANK, Pastor.
St. Severin, Keylerton P. O., Pa.

Terrible Attacks.

ALAMOSA, Col., Jan., '89.

My wife was troubled with nervousness about one year before she took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and at that time had very severe attacks of spasms, convulsions, and pains in different parts of the body, when in this state her lower jaws would set violently and yet sometimes, bite her tongue, breath heavily, then short, then seemed to stop entirely, get a wild look in her eyes and jumping around, then stop sometimes, it would take 3 men to hold her in bed, otherwise her body would cramp and be so for 2 hours. She took but 2 bottles of the Nerve Tonic which saved her entirely of all these torments which myself and wife gladly testify, it truly had the desired effect.

D. S. McGILLIS.

Our Pamphlet for sufferers of nervous diseases will be sent free to any address, and new patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge from us.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., for the past ten years, and is now prepared under his direction by the

Mrs. Ellen Donahue died Tuesday morning at her home in this village. She has been a resident here many years, having come here from Ireland about fifty years ago. She was about 76 years old leaves four children—Mrs. Anna Mullin, of Rochester, Mrs. Mary Marlinee, of Lodi, O., Miss Ellen, who lived with her, and Joseph, of the firm of Ball & Donahue. She was the mother of Sergeant Daniel Donahue of Co. "K," Eight New York, Cavalry, who died at Andersoville, Dansville.

Frank Connors of Rochester sang the Beatus Veni in a very effective style at St. Patrick's church Sunday evening.

A number of our people went on the excursion to Niagara on Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Day returned to her home in Auburn on Monday. Her sister, Miss Lizzie, accompanied her as far as Rochester. Miss Ida Blum of Towanda, Pa., is the guest of Misses Lizzie and Katie Blum.

Mr. Jack Smith of Lockport, is visiting friends in town. Messrs. McHenry, Copeland, Norton and Gardner, of Hornellsville, were in town Sunday.

Catholic Society Notes.

Col. J. J. Schueler has been appointed contracting agent for the Union brewery, and entered upon his duties Monday last.

The Young Ladies' Society of the French church will picnic at Sodus Bay Tuesday, July 24th.

The annual reunion of all the local branches of the C. M. B. A. will be held Thursday, August 7th, at Glen Haven.

D. J. W. Casey will be medical examiner for the branch of the L. C. B. A. soon to be organized in this city.

The alumni of St. Bridget's school enjoyed a pleasant day's outing at Newport Thursday.

The children of Mary of St. Mary's church will picnic at Glen Haven next Wednesday. A pleasant time is anticipated.

A council of the Catholic Benevolent Legion was instituted Wednesday in the rooms of Branch 59, C. M. B. A., Franklin street, Auburn. It is named for the late Rev. Dr. Loughlin, and starts off with 23 charter members. Dr. John Gerin is chancelior, and has also been appointed medical examiner.

Michael FitzSimons of Branch 59, Auburn, is dead after an illness of only one week. Suitable resolutions were adopted by the branch at a special meeting held Thursday evening.

At a meeting of the Rochester Catholic Uniformed Union, held July 11th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year and installed by Senior Commander Joseph Hesslinger: President, J. J. Nunnold; vice-president, Charles Seibert; secretary, Henry F. Wegman; treasurer, Leo Sander; colonel, Henry N. Schlick. A committee consisting of the commanders of the several commanderies was appointed to make arrangements for a general reunion.

At the last regular meeting of the Father Mathew Drill Corps the following officers were elected: Pres., A. Burns; vice-pres., Thos. Sullivan, rec. sec'y, Aug. Hughes; finan. Wm. Langhram. The boys have attained a high degree of perfection in their evolutions, and richly deserve all the honors they receive.

The F. M. T. A. B. society received Holy Communion in a body last Sunday and made a fine appearance marching from their room to early mass. This organization has done more for temperance than all other societies combined.

Those desiring C. M. B. A. badges for the re-union can secure them at this office at a very reasonable price. We are prepared to do society printing of any kind.

A Peculiar Missouri Hen.

In the spring of 1881 I bought a dozen light Brahma hens and one cock, also light Brahma, having no other chickens on the farm. I know the chickens were pure Brahma. I noticed one of my young chicks was a very strange looking bird, and as it grew older what should have been feathers were silky gray hairs as long as my hand, the whole body being completely covered with them, except the head, which was perfectly naked, and much resembled a buzzard's head.

She laid quite a number of eggs, many of which I sat, but never could raise any more like her. They would simply be light Brahmas. She had no wing feathers, could not fly upon a perch or nest and made a very peculiar noise when trying to cackle. The quills in the wing and tail contained a half dozen or so each of long hairs. There were no guineas or any other fowls of any kind on the farm where I bought the chickens. This is the plain unvarnished truth, and I can give you plenty of proof of the same. The hen lived to be 4 years old.—Livonia Cor. St. Louis Republic.

A Proper Accompaniment.

Mrs. Bingo—See, dear; look at these lovely white vests I bought you down town to-day. Only fifty cents.

Mr. Bingo—Why didn't you buy me some paper collars to go with them?—Clothier and Furnisher.

Explanations.

Agnes—Oh, dear! Why do we have so many dog days?

Laura—Well, every dog has his day, you know, and there are a great many dogs.—Munsey's Weekly.

Father and Son.

The late Charles C. Waite, at one time proprietor of the old Sherman house, Chicago, and for many years a leading hotel keeper of New York city (being sole proprietor of the Brevoort house and part proprietor of the Windsor hotel), at his death left a son, Charles B. Waite, whom he fondly hoped would be his successor in business. The young man was a failure, however, as a hotel keeper and worse than a failure as a politician. His connection with other boodle aldermen in New York is well remembered and two or three years ago he left that city for California, where he has since led a desultory existence. For years the elder Waite employed as chef of the Brevoort house Eugene Mehl, who was very justly regarded as one of the most capable men that ever took charge of a kitchen and to whom Mr Waite paid for many years the munificent salary of $6,000 per annum. Mr. Mehl is now the successful proprietor of the handsome Hotel Ryan, at St. Paul, Minn., and, to his credit be it said, he has given employment to Charles B. Waite, who is now performing the duties of superintendent at the Hotel Ryan.—Hotel Reporter.

Beef Tea.

For my own use I prefer for its flavor and quality beef tea made in the following manner: Take a pound of the round of beef or any juicy lean part; cut it in small pieces, and putting it in a bowl pour over it one pint of cold water. Let it stand half an hour or more, as convenient; then put it in a broad basin, and as it begins to heat press the meat with the back of a silver or wooden spoon, until all the juice is expressed. If the water cooks away add a little from the teakettle, so as to have the same quantity when done. Season it with a little salt and pepper, if allowable, and heat as needed. I prefer this for use without straining.—Cor. Good Housekeeping.

He Laughed Too Soon.

A well dressed, ladylike looking woman entered a tramcar the other day with her little boy of about 6 years of age. On the conductor coming to collect the fares the lady handed her little son a half crown, he being nearer the door. The little fellow examined the coin carefully and then gave it to the conductor. Scarcely had the man returned the change than the youngster clapped his hands and looking at his mother exclaimed triumphantly:

"Mamma, mamma, he has taken the bad half crown!"—London Tid Bits.

Booming the Show.

"Where's that living skeleton?" asked Hayseed.

"Well, the fact is," said the showman confidentially, "he fell into the slot of that weighing machine this morning and we haven't got him out yet. If you'll come back to-morrow night I guess you can see him."—Chatter.

An Eye for Business.

Dr. Ford—May I ask why this refusal?

Miss Millions—Certainly, doctor! You know my sister married a lawyer, so if I expect to get any of papa's money I must marry a lawyer also.—Munsey's Weekly.
