Ireland Movie Listed For Eastman Theatre Friday and Saturday

A bit of old Ireland will shine from the Eastman Theater Silver Screen on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon when the Civic Music Association of Rochester and the Knights of Equity join in presenting the technicolor film, "Here Is Ireland."

The picture will include many scenes in the lives of Irish children, all of which are most charming. Girls in long white dresses are shown receiving their first Holy Communion in the city of Cork. Children appear at play in the long shaded avenues of Youghal. Smiling youngsters are depicted going to school in the thriving town of Tralee.

The audience will also hear a story of Ireland told in real Irish brogue by Mr. Pat Stanton himself. This will be the first showing of the picture in Rochester.

Lending particular interest to the film at this time is the fact that it shows the places in Ireland where thousands of American troops are now stationed.

Tickets for "Here Is Ireland" may still be ordered by calling Mr. Delanty at Glenwood 4236-R, or Mr. Ryan at Genesee 230-J.

A long list of patrons and patronesses includes the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, V.G., Rev. Roy B. Morphy, Mr. and Mrs. Michael T. Ryan, and many other leading citizens of Rochester.

CHEST LEADER

Bernard E. Finucane

Community Chest Picks B. E. Finucane

Bernard E. Finucane, president of the Security Trust Company, has been elected president of the Rochester Community Chest, and will serve as campaign chairman for the annual Community and War Chest Drive from May 10 through May 17.

One of Rochester's very prominent Catholic laymen, Mr. Finucane has taken an active part in religious as well as civic affairs of the community. He has merited the distinctive honor of becoming a Knight of Malta.

Last year Mr. Finucane served as chairman of the special committee and in previous years he headed the Individual Subscriber Campaigns. He succeeds Harper Sibley who has been president of the Chest for the past two years.

Faculty Member Honored by Society

Sister M. Paulette, Ph.D., of the Nazareth College Faculty was elected to the Executive Council of the American Catholic Sociological Society at the recent meeting of this group which was held at the Hotel Statler in Cleveland.

Miss Eva J. Ross, professor of Sociology at Trinity College, Washington, D. C., and author of several widely used Sociological texts, was elected President; Rev. Francis J. Friedel, S.M., of Dayton University, Vice-President; Rev. Ralph A. Gallagher, S.J., of Loyola University, Chicago, Executive Secretary; and Sister M. Ligouri, B.V.M., of Mundelein College, Chicago, Treasurer.

Other Council members include Mrs. Helen M. Toole of New Rochelle College, New York; Rev. Raymond Murray, C.S.C., of Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind., and Mr. W. L. Welligan of St. John's University, Brooklyn.

The Convention was the fifth in the annual series which began in Chicago in 1937, and was attended by notables from all parts of the United States.

CORPUS CHRISTI PARISH

WEEKLY PARISH PARTIES ATTENDANCE INCREASES

An increase in the attendance of the Tuesday Nite Parish Parties gives assurance of their popularity. The parish is very grateful for this loyal support and promises to increase the attractions and award list when the attendance reaches a more noticeable increase. Plans are already underway to make some attractive changes. The Committee in charge of these parties will meet in the very near future to plan some important changes.

Despite the gas rationing it is convenient to reach the Parish Hall, since five bus lines supply ample and rapid transportation. The parish invites its parishioners and friends to attend these parties each Tuesday. An entertaining evening is guaranteed everyone. Admission is only 50c at the door. The games begin promptly at 8:30 p. m.

MONTHLY SCHOOL COLLECTION SUNDAY

The regular monthly school collection will be taken up at all the Masses on this coming Sunday.

MORE 1943 ENVELOPES AVAILABLE

Our supply of 1943 envelopes has been replenished so that every member of the parish may have a set. We urge the regular use of these envelopes as a convenient and efficient way of making the weekly offering to the parish. Secure a set this Sunday at the entrance of the church and use them regularly every Sunday.

MIRACULOUS MEDAL DEVOTIONS

Becoming more and more popular in these days of war, the Monday evening devotions in honor of our Lady of the Miraculous Medal are attracting many more people. Mary is the Protectoress of the United States and prayer to her in these times is most propitious and salutary. We invite more to turn to our Lady in earnest prayer for the safety of our young men and women in the service and the securing of a complete and lasting peace. Devotions begin each Monday evening at 8:00 and last for thirty minutes. A short sermon is included in the service in addition to the Novena prayers and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.
