SCOUTS PARENTS' NIGHT

The spring Court of Honor and Parents' Night of Troop 70 of St. Andrew's was held last Wednesday in St. Andrew's Hall. The highlight of the program was the receiving of the Eagle Badge, highest award in Scouting, by Assistant Scoutmaster Donald C. Whiting. His mother, Mrs. Lillian Whiting, pinned the Eagle Badge on him, and he in turn pinned a miniature Eagle pin on her. Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Alvin Voellinger received the Life Award, and Scouts Myron Amico, Donald Goddard and John Heinrich, the Star Award. Albert Kehm received a first class pin; Louis Fien, Thomas Geiger, Earle McGill, Donald Nickel and Sam Rizzo, second class pins. The Scoutmaster, John H. Predmore, inducted eight new Scouts into the troop by presenting them with neckerchiefs and troop numerals. He also announced that 40 Scouts had advanced at least one rank this year. Sixteen merit badges were earned by Myron Amico, Donald Goddard, Jim Heinrich, Albert Kehm, Donald C. Whiting and Leonard Ziegler.

Earl Van Lare, chairman of the Advancement Committee, was chairman of the program, and he introduced the Scoutmaster, who welcomed the parents and friends of the Troop, and then gave a brief resume of the advancement and civic activities of the troop. William Donadoni, Chairman of the Troop Committee, introduced the guests, and Howard Z. Ross, assistant Scout Executive of the Otetiana Council, spoke about summer camping plans, especially the works camps for Scouts 14 or more to be conducted by the Council this year at Camp Cutler. The guest speaker, City Councilman Frank E. Van Lare, spoke briefly on the importance of Scouting in municipal affairs. The meeting closed with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, and Taps.

Housewives Put Idle Glass to Work

KEEP GLASS MOVING! The American housewife is asked to join in a nation-wide drive to keep glass containers and bottles in circulation, thus helping the output of additional glass for war purposes. These two American housewives here show that the return of such bottles is a two-fold patriotic gesture. They receive payment for the empties, and they know the bottles can be sterilized and reused by the nation's glass manufacturers.
