Throngs In Final Tributes To Two Prominent Laymen

Funeral services for two outstanding and widely-mourned laymen were held last week, both at St. Monica's Church, Rochester. The final tribute to Patrick A. Dwyer, head of the Dwyer Electric Co. was paid on Thursday, Mar. 15, and an equally sincere tribute was paid to Thomas C. McCarthy, assistant financial secretary of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, on Friday, Mar. 16.

PATRICK A. DWYER

St. Monica's Church was thronged on Thursday morning, July 15, for the funeral services of Patrick A. Dwyer, prominent electrical contractor and widely esteemed Catholic layman.

A large delegation of business associates, fellow fraternal and club members served as honorary escort at the home, 391 Wellington Ave., and at the church. Represented were Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, and Musa Caravan, Order of the Alhambra.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered by the Rev. John J. Tressy. He was assisted by the Rev. Paul J. Gibbons as Deacon and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Bergan as Subdeacon.

In the Sanctuary were the Right Reverend Monsignor William M. Hart, V.G., George V. Burns, Joseph S. Cameron and Charles F. Shay, and the Reverend Fathers Gerald C. Lambert, John S. Randall, William McFadden, Geneva, Frank W. Mason, John P. O'Boiens, Penn Yan; Louis Edelman, William J. Naughton, John J. Burke and Eugene F. Golding.

Delegations of the various Sisterhoods in the city attended the services.

Bearers were Joseph P. Flynn, C. Vincent Wiser, Arlington T. Doyle, Alvin Mueller, Edmund O. Loos and Carl Stauffer.

A Knights of Columbus choir, directed by Paul A. Predmore, sang the Mass responses.

Interment was in the family plot at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the final blessing was imparted by Monsignor Hart, assisted by Monsignor Bergan and Father O'Beirne.

THOMAS C. McCARTHY

Honored by his Brother Knights in large numbers and by the American Legion with military rites, Thomas C. McCarthy was buried on Friday, July 16, from his home, 70 Elmwood Ave.

Requiem High Mass was offered in St. Monica's Church by the Rev. Gerald C. Lambert, Director of Columbus Civic Centre, and in attendance were representatives of the Knights of Columbus, Alhambra, Fourth Degree Assembly, Liederkranz Club and Irondequoit Post, American Legion.

In the Sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Bergan, Chancellor of the diocese; the Rev. Raymond G. Heisel, Chaplain, Rochester Council, K. of C.; the Rev. John M. Duffy, the Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien of Churchville, the Rev. John J. Tressy and the Rev. Eugene H. McFarland.

Bearers were Joseph Gatin, Stephen O'Rourke, Daniel McNally, Henry Lieberwurst, George McKay and James Palmer.

Music for the Mass was furnished by Knights of Columbus Choral Society members with Paul A. Predmore directing.

Burial was in the Soldiers' Plot at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the final blessing was imparted by Father Tremy, assisted by Father Lambert. Members of Irondequoit Post, under command of Francis T. Toomey, Past Commander of Monroe County, American Legion, conducted the military rites.

The firing squad consisted of William Martin, James Gray, Walter Mura, Fred Helfer, Howard Ketchum and Clarence Harding.

AVERS BRITAIN REJECTS YOUTH GROUPS OF AXIS TYPE

LONDON.—(NC)—"Let us make it clear to all concerned," said the Archbishop of Liverpool, the Most Rev. Richard Downey, in a message sent to a Liverpool Catholic youth gathering, "that we do not want anything modelled on or even remotely approaching the Hitler youth movement or the Balilla of Italy.

"A cut-and-dried State-regulated youth movement is not an inspiring ideal to a liberty-loving people. Centuries ago Sparta, in the interests of materialism, tried the experiment and the State of Sparta perished."

Prelate Stricken

Most Rev. Leo Kloppers, Vicar Apostolic of Kroonstad, Orange Free State, and his first native priest, ordained this year. The missionary prelate is reported to have been stricken with paralysis. The Superior of his community, the Holy Ghost Fathers, is interned, although other members are at liberty. They are not permitted to have contact with the natives, except to administer the Last Sacraments. (N.C.W.C.)

ST. GEORGE'S PARISH

MID-SUMMER BAZAAR SET

An opportunity of relaxation and enjoyment is afforded the weary war-workers at St. George's annual mid-summer bazaar. Here, at 555 Hudson Ave., the parish committee guarantees a respite to all among the new games and booths.

A fine chance for one to meet his old friends in favorable surroundings can be had on two evenings, Friday and Saturday, July 23 and 24.

The Rev. John M. Baksys, pastor and chairman of the parish committee, promises a few hours of pleasure to all who wish just that. The parishioners and friends of St. George's are cordially invited to the parish grounds for this social.

Once Prison Chaplain Tells Of Work With War Prisoners

NEW YORK (NC)—A dramatic picture of the spiritual services provided for prisoners of war by American chaplains is contained in a letter received at the Military Ordinariate. The writer, Chaplain Joseph M. Clark, S.J., now on active duty in North Africa, once served as a chaplain at the Federal Penitentiary at Alcatraz Island, Calif. A priest of the California Province of the Society of Jesus, Father Clark is a graduate of Gonzaga University, Spokane, and Weston College, Weston, Mass.

His letter follows:

"The prisoners have been very interesting from a religious standpoint. Every single one of the Italians, of course, was Catholic, and to my delight very practical Catholics. As soon as they understood that I was a Catholic chaplain the first thing they asked me was about confessions and Communion, so the very first Sunday they all received Holy Communion along with one-quarter of the Germans. That is, all the German Catholics, who seem to be quite good Catholics, and quite open in the profession of their Faith. I spent nearly a whole day hearing the confessions of the prisoners.

"How? Well, before I left the States I figured I might run into conditions where I would have the need of hearing confessions in many different languages, so I borrowed a book from Father Stern at the San Francisco Hospital, for hearing confessions in 16 different languages. The other day I used it for Italians, Germans and a Croatian. It would be a little quicker if I had the gift of tongues, but that is one faculty we weren't given as chaplains.

"The prisoners couldn't leave the barbed-wire inclosure to go to Mass so I said Mass for them in their own area. Most of them can walk around so I said the Mass in the open. It made quite a picture with the altar surrounded by wire and on the other side of the wire a half dozen soldiers with tommy-guns. Shades of Alcatraz again, saying Mass with a tommy-gun in the background.

"It is easy to tell the Catholics among our prisoners of war, for everyone of them has the rosary I gave them around his neck. I was struck too by the fact that everyone of the Italians had a half dozen or more holy cards and little prayer-leaflets in their wallets—more holy cards than pictures of their dear ones. All of them had a holy card—the Madonna of the Soldier—a picture of the Blessed Virgin and on the other side his mother or wife with the rosary in her hand.

"I showed them our holy card, 'The Divine Protector,' in which Our Lord is standing behind a soldier and sailor protecting them and the American Flag in the background. They wanted one to put in their wallet with their Madonna, so I gave them each one. They all seem very happy, even if they are prisoners and perhaps because they are prisoners."
