Two White Fathers Killed In Mine Near Carthage

LONDON — White Fathers here have heard from Carthage that two Belgian priests have been killed by a mine which the Germans left in the grounds of the Fathers' country house at Gamart.

U. S. Chaplains Join Diocesan Priests For Retreat In Hawaii

Honolulu—One of the most cosmopolitan retreats for priests ever conducted in the Hawaiian Islands just has been concluded at St. Patrick's Church, Kaimuki, under the direction of the Most Rev. James J. Sweeney, Bishop of Honolulu. In addition to the diocesan clergy, the number of religious and missionary societies represented was increased by the attendance of Army and Navy chaplains from the United States, who were stationed in the area when the session occurred and were able to make the retreat.

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.—Psalms, 132, v. 1.

ST. BONIFACE PARISH

WARNS OF FALSE PROPHETS

Taking his theme from the gospel of the day, Rev. Francis Taylor, appropriately warned his hearers to beware of false prophets. With post war planning and rehabilitation in the offing, when private revelations and prophecies of the Antichrist are made, when great and generous promises are made for social security, the good Christian should be on guard and examine such schemes and their real purposes.

Father Taylor explained that the church has been blamed by false interpreters for much of the trouble in the world today, when it is obvious that war would have been impossible, if leaders had recognized Christ the King and His laws.

The parish was also reminded of a common fault of some people everywhere, namely, coming late to Mass without any excuse. With Masses at almost every convenient time, there is no reason why anyone should arrive late for Mass. Another reminder to especially young people is, to "Pray the Mass" for which a prayer book is necessary.

CHURCH GROUPS

The Young Ladies Sodality will receive Holy Communion in a body next Sunday at the 10 o'clock Mass. All members will please attend.

President William Baker has appointed the following committees for the war time picnic, next Sunday of St. Boniface Club: Provisions, Ed Sloan, Bennie Hart; Transportation, Bill Baker, Geo. White; Sports, Kelly Thomas, Lee Ruby, Paul Ehmann; Refreshments, Tony Scheible, Geo. Klee; Reservations, Jack Koch; Chef, Hubert Reininger. Members will assemble at the Club quarters at 10 A. M.

OVERSEAS MAIL

Letters from Len Byrd and Bob Meeney and a copy of the army paper, "Stars and Stripes" were received from Pat Meckel in North Africa. The paper contains many interesting bits of news from home and abroad, also many notes on sports such as baseball.

One of our first parishioners to see active service was Pfc. Jules A. Cenrault, U. S. M. C. of the Marines who went through the campaign on Guadalcanal. Writing from Australia, July 11th, 1943:

"This being Sunday the Company isn't doing much of anything. I went to Mass this morning and now after stacking away an enormous chow at dinner, I'm trying to wash a few clothes. Heard some music from the States last night. Crosby sang "Moonlight Becomes You," Dorsey played "Dearly Beloved." All the tunes were sweet and made me kinda think I was sure missing a heck of a lot by not being home these days. But alas, there will come a day!"

The family of Mr. and Mrs. August Trompeter of Highland Ave., is the second family in the parish to have four sons in the service. Robert, Herbert, Raymond and Richard Trompeter are in the service.

ZEVER - WEST

The wedding of Miss Esther West of 304 Mulberry St., and Harvey Zeller took place at St. Boniface Church on Wednesday, Aug. 4, at 10 A. M. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis Taylor and the choral parts of the Mass were sung by the church choir. The bride was an active member of the St. Boniface Footlight Club and took part in many dramas given at our hall.

Baseball Try Out For Boys Set By Red Wings Monday

Oliver French, President of the Rochester Red Wings, announced today that the annual Baseball Try-Out Camp for young players will be held again this year at Red Wing Stadium. The camp will open at 10:00 A. M. on Monday, August 9, and will run through Wednesday, August 11. Assisting French in conducting the camp will be "Pop" Kelchner and Roy Dissinger, Cardinal scouts.

The purpose of the camp is to provide a trial for young ball players who are interested in playing professional baseball and who wish to be seen in action by professional scouts.

Players wishing a try-out should report to Red Wing Stadium on Monday, August 9, with uniforms, shoes and gloves. Players who are offered and sign a contract will be reimbursed for all expenses incidental to their attending the camp.

A great many members of the present St. Louis Cardinals got their start in baseball through similar try-out camps and this year more than ever before, there is a demand for young ball players. Any boy, sixteen years or older, who thinks he has the ability, and has a desire to play professional baseball, should make it a point to attend this camp at Red Wing Stadium.

They Never Learn

Years ago—long years as things run in theatrical history—a successful team of producers opened with a little comedy called Life With Father. It was bright, smart, clean and funny. Time passed. The same team hit Broadway with a farce about the arrival of a burlesque troup in an army camp. As you can readily see, that is a theme that would appeal to mothers with sons in the service, and wives who have kissed their husbands good-by and sent them off to war. The sophisticates of Broadway thought it awfully funny, strippers among soldiers, and it settled down for a long, long run. Only that didn't materialize. The show is closed, and has been for considerable time. And Life With Father enters its fifth uninterrupted year on Broadway, with two additional companies still playing the road.

The smut stuff faded and died. The clean stuff is still going. But Broadway producers don't learn, won't learn. And we have to suffer from their perverse determination to ram what they like down our throats.

Queer, isn't it?

It is more profitable to lead a retired life and to attend to one's salvation than to neglect oneself and work wonders. — The Imitation.
