

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Many Items of Interest To Rochester Catholics.

The parochial schools of the city open Monday.

School Commissioner J. M. E. O'Grady has returned from his vacation at the seaside.

Rev. John P. Quinn of the Cathedral celebrated 1 o'clock mass at St. Mary's Sunday.

W. H. Atkinson, late traveling agent for the Syracuse Sentinel, gave our office a call yesterday.

Bishop McQuaid's annual letter on the diocesan seminary will be read in the churches throughout the diocese.

Miss Mary Daly and George Hart were married at the parochial residence of St. Mary's Thursday evening of last week.

William Vogt and Stephen McCannell, the two men who assaulted Justice A. Sharpe, have been arrested and held for the grand jury.

Several Grand Army posts of the city passed appropriate resolutions on the death of ex-Coroner Daniel A. Sharpe.

St. Mary's Academy will open on Monday next. The Academy of the Sacred Heart began its sessions on Wednesday. Nazareth Academy opened this week.

Joseph Webber has been awarded the contract for the carpenter work on the new church of the Holy Rosary and a Mt. Smith that for the main work.

Miss Philomena O'Connor of North Avenue, has returned from the Convention of the Sacred Heart, Beauvais, France, where she has been for a year.

Sister Mary Catherine and Sister Mary Immaculate, of Hornellsville, visited Mrs. T. Donoghue of Ravine Avenue last week. Sister Catherine is a sister of Mrs. Donoghue.

Mrs. Fred Edgar, Miss Maude Downey, Miss Chrissy Ganger and Miss Kate O'Grady of this city have gone on an extended trip through the large eastern cities.

The overwhelming surprise of the week was the defeat suffered at the hands of the Rochester base ball club by the leaders of the American Association, the Louisville team.

Overseer Ritzenthaler's report shows that 307 families received aid from the city poor department during the month of August. The total cost to the city was $1,128.29.

Rev. Mr. T. Szadinski will be raised to the sublime dignity of the priesthood on Monday next by Bishop McQuaid. The ceremony will take place at St. Patrick's Cathedral at 10 a.m.

We are pleased to note that J. P. Henry the courteous and popular local manager of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, has recovered from his recent illness and is once more able to resume his official duties.

Miss Maggie Marzluff, daughter of the late Ferry Marzluff, died Monday evening at the family residence on Sanford street, aged 22 years. The funeral took place at 8 a.m. Thursday, from St. Paul's church.

Next week the Academy presents a strong attraction. Agnes Wallace Villa appears in Frank Harvey's great melodrama, and Kate Claxton's masterpiece, "The World Against Her." Matinees will be on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Henry M. Reed died Sunday at his home, 140 Adams street, aged 30 years. He was the only son of Mrs. Ann Reed. The funeral took place from the house at 8:30 a.m., and at 1 p.m. from the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

The Provincial Seminary at Troy opened last week. There will be quite a class of Rochesterians the coming year; the six graduates of St. Andrew's mentioned last week, and four advanced students, among whom is Arthur Hughes, son of our well-known townman, M. L. Hughes.

Charles A. Rose, son of Alexander P. Rose and Miss Mary Lamberton, graduate of St. Paul's, Rotterdam, was united in marriage August 28th by Rev. Father Prendergast at the summer residence of the bride's parents in Batavia.

Thomas F. O'Connor and Kate E. O'Grady of 1113 street, were married Wednesday evening at the church of the Holy Apostles by Rev. P. G. Murphy. The happy couple have gone on a wedding tour. The groom is a well-known member of the Rochester police force.

Thomas J. Horrigan of Syracuse and formerly of Picton, Ont., paid the Journal office a visit Wednesday. "Tom" talks of taking up his future abode in the Flower City. Should he do so, the Catholic population of Rochester will have gained a valuable addition.

Professor O'Connor, the new perfect of studies at St. Andrew's Seminary, has arrived in the city. He honored the Journal office with a visit Saturday. The Boston Pilot has the following pleasant reference to Mr. O'Connor:

Mr. John O'Connor, for the past year on the teaching staff of Boston College, has gone to Rochester, N. Y., to become a member of the faculty of St. Andrew's Preparatory Seminary in that city. Brief as was his stay in Boston, Mr. O'Connor made friends who regret his departure and send their good wishes with him.

Annie, widow of the late Patrick Hayes died this week in West Henrietta. The deceased was 65 years old and a respected resident of Henrietta, where a large circle of friends and acquaintances mourn her demise. She was the mother of thirteen children, of whom eleven survive, eight boys and three girls. Thomas, John, William, Frank, Robert, Bartholomew, Patrick and Richard; Mrs. Mary Jane Heart of Lamont, Allegany County, N. Y.; Mrs. Ellen Gaffney of Rush and Mrs. Teresa Hayes of West Henrietta. The funeral took place at 9 a.m., Wednesday, from the house and 10 a.m. from St. Joseph's church, Coroner Graham.

Rev. Fridolin Pascalar, at last Sunday's high mass at St. Michael's, made a brief report of the results of the fair, held in aid of the new church. He said at the present time he would not give an itemized account, as all the reports had not yet come in to him. He stated that the total amount realized would be over $8,000, but would probably not exceed $8,500. Both Father Pascalar and his people are very much gratified at the result of their labors, and express their thanks to all who have kindly aided in making the fair so great a success.

W. B. Madder, in the office of W. Foster Kelly, who is in company with a party of friends, has been spending a vacation at the Sand Banks, on Lake Ontario near Picton, Ont., reports the spot as one of the most picturesque, and at the same time, best-known summer resorts on the American continent. He speaks truly. The "Sand Banks" are a wonderful formation of Nature and well worth a visit. They can be easily reached by sailing on the steamer Alexandria, which leaves Charlotte every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The route thence is across Lake Ontario and through the Murray canal to Picton, whence the Banks are but ten miles' drive distant.

Sister Pauline and the Misses Anna E. Byrnes of Chicago and Lillian T. Flaherty of this city, who left here from Nazareth Academy three years ago have returned from Europe. These young ladies went abroad for the purpose of pursuing a course of study in a normal school in Bruges, preparatory to their entrance upon the duties of the teacher in the sisterhood of St. Joseph. Miss Flaherty, on arriving, went directly to her home on Sherman street and Miss Byrnes to her home in Chicago. The young ladies now make their farewell visit to parents and friends before entering the novitiate at Nazareth Convent. There for two years they continue their prolonged preparation for the life-work of their choice, and it, at the end of that time, their purpose remains unaltered, they will be allowed to consecrate their lives by vow to their sublime calling—the instruction of youth.

The Provincial Seminary at Troy opened last week. There will be quite a class of Rochesterians the coming year; the six graduates of St. Andrew's mentioned last week, and four advanced students, among whom is Arthur Hughes, son of our well-known townman, M. L. Hughes.

Charles A. Rose, son of Alexander P. Rose and Miss Mary Lamberton, graduate of St. Paul's, Rotterdam, were Miss Lucy A. Bushey and Chas. A. Shaw, both of this city, were married Wednesday by Rev. Father Neuhart, pastor of the church of Our Lady of Victory, at his residence on Pleasant street.

John Poppel, of the Holy Redeemer parish, who has completed his four years course in philosophy and theology at the Provincial Seminary.

Troy, N. Y., will be sent to Innsbruck to finish his studies for the priesthood. Mr. McGuire, who has been studying philosophy and theology at the American College, Rome, Italy, will also go to Innsbruck, to finish his course in theology.

Ex-Coroner Daniel A. Sharpe died Monday noon, from the result of the injuries inflicted upon him Monday evening, August 25th. He never fully recovered consciousness. The funeral was held at 9 a.m., Thursday day from the Cathedral and was largely attended. In the death of Mr.

Sharpe Monroe county loses one of its best-known local personalities. He was an old soldier and served with credit throughout the war of the Rebellion, in which he received wounds virtually disabling him. May 1, 1865, Major Sharpe was married to Miss Kate F. Somers of Lockport. There were eight children in the family, one of whom, John P. died. The remaining seven are Daniel S., Marie F., Charles E., Katherine E., James E., Archibald H. and Joseph P. Besides his wife, three sisters, Mrs. M. D. Scory of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Ellen E. Hinde and Mrs. Kate J. Dowling of this city, and one brother, John H. Sharpe, also of this city, survive him.

Six years ago Major Sharpe was elected coroner of Monroe county, the only democratic candidate elected on the ticket, and was re-elected for a second term. He was defeated last fall by the Republican candidate, Coroner Graham.

Joseph Komarek & Cressey, has returned from New York, where he has been selecting goods and styles for the fall trade. He has purchased a full line of the latest patterns, which he will be pleased to show his friends, at 187 East Main street, over Mengs & Shafer's. Komarek & Cressey make a specialty of dress suits.

Twelve dollars pays for an evening course in bookkeeping from now until Christmas.

TAYLOR'S BUSINESS COLLEGE, CORNER E. MAIN AND SE. ST. PAUL STREET.

Where Did You Get That Hat?

Is the original printed on every calico presented with every hat purchased at Mengs & Shafer's, the strictly one-priced hatters, furriers and gentl furnishers.

The rapid rate at which the circulation of the Journal is increasing makes it a valuable advertising medium. Advertisers will please notice.

Local Agents wanted in every parish. CATHOLIC JOURNAL.

Correspondence solicited from all unrepresented towns.

Notice.

Meng & Shafer, the strictly one-priced hatters, furriers and gentl furnishers will keep their stores open evenings until 9 o'clock, Saturdays till 11 o'clock till further notice. Fall styles now ready.

Meng & Shafer have now in stock ladies' fur shoulder capes in all the leading styles. Prices are the most reasonable.

The Culross Bakeries.

Are located at 30 and 499 State street. The bread, cake, pies, etc., sold at these places are the best in the city. Try them.

Where Did You Get That Caliope?

I got it at Meng & Shafer's, where I bought this hat, and I bought this for $1 less than I could have bought it elsewhere.

Meng & Shafer's $3 Hats.

Are equal to any hat purchased else-

NOTICE.

Those of our subscribers whose subscriptions are due are requested to have the amount in readiness for the collector when he calls next week, or better still call at the office and hand us the amount. We wish to collect all money due before Oct. 1st.

Our travelling agent will visit Fairport and vicinity next week, and take the names of those who wish to become subscribers to the JOURNAL.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN OUR NEIGHBORHOOD.

Philip Erbach and Mrs. K. F. Schirmer were united in marriage by Rev. Father Flaherty at St. Patrick's church, in Mt. Morris last Tuesday. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

Mr. Mt. and Joseph Murphy, of the State Industrial School, visited their parents in Mt. Morris this week. Charles Murphy of Oswego also paid a visit from Seneca Falls.

Miss Jennie Cronin leaves to-day for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Converse, in Albany.

Wm. Desmond and sister Cora spent a few days with friends in Corning last week.

Dr. P. J. McNamara and bride returned last Saturday night from their bridal trip in the east.

The Misses O'Malley of Geneva are the guests of Miss Mary Galvin, West Bayard street.

James Flanagan is in attendance at the C. M. B. A. Convention in Binghamton this week.

Wm. J. Mackin returned to his home in Corning on Saturday last, after a two weeks' visit at the residence of his father, O. J. Mackin, on Toledo street.

Misses Nellie and Mamie Fehar of Ovid are the guests of their friend Miss Lizzie Rafferty, on Toledo street.

Miss Essie Trant who has been spending some time at the residence of James A. Flanagan on Mynderse street, returned to her home in Rochester on Tuesday last.

Miss Mamie Laughlin who has been visiting at the residence of Bernard Durkin, on Ovid street, for the past two months, returns to her home in New York city today.

The Parochial School in charge of the Sisters of St. Joseph opens again on Monday for the fall term.

Eugene T. Mackin who has been spending the past three weeks at the home of his father, O. J. Mackin, returns to his home in New York city today.

On Sunday next, September 14th, St. Patrick's church choir will resume singing after a vacation of two months.

Again we are obliged to chronicle the death of another of our bright young people. This time the victim is Joseph Rogers, the fifteen-year-old son of Street Commissioner Patrick Rogers, of Bayard street. Taken but about a week ago with that dread disease, typhoid fever. He was a patient and uncomplaining sufferer until the last. All that loving hands and expert medical skill could do was done to save him but to no avail. He died Tuesday morning, and was buried from St. Patrick's church at 9:30 Thursday morning, Rev. A. M. O'Neil officiating. Just budding into manhood, the pride and joy of his parents' hearts, beloved by all who knew him. The ending of this promising young life is particularly sad and distressing, and the bereaved family have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community in their great affliction. The Journal also offers its condolence to the stricken family.

Toothsome Delicacies.

No bakery in Rochester has such a varied stock of goods as that carried by the Culross bakeries. All lovers of table delicacies will do well to call at 30 or 499 State street.

Handsome Work of Art.

A handsome piece of pen drawing was seen in the window of an East Main street store last week. It was a monster bird, beautifully executed. Around the bird was a scroll bearing these words: "Underhill's College and School of Phonography. Students fitted for Amaranthus and Private Secretaries' positions in a three months' course." The work is now hanging on the wall of Underhill's College.

Any one in need of first-class crayon work, life size, would do well to call at J. E. Mock's studio, 40 State street. The picture can be taken from tint-type if necessary. Patronize a responsible firm and do not be humbugged. Any quality of work according to the price.

Do Not Pay $5 for a Hat.

That you can buy at $2.50 at Meng & Shafer's.

A CATHOLIC

of good habits and fair education wanted. Permanent employment and good pay to industrious persons. References. 814 Main Street, Rochester, N. Y.

H. H. JASPER.

ENTERTAINING WEEKLY.
Matinee Monday, Wednesday and Tuesday, commencing with matinee
Monday Sept. 1st.

Kate Claxton's Clever Comedy.

"THE WORLD AGAINST HER."

By Frank Harvey, with

AGNES WALLACE VILLA.

Supported by a competent company.

THE GREATEST OF ALL MELODRAMAS.

Magnificent scenery, elegant costumes, correct appointments.

Next Attraction—"Master and Man." Next nights: Ft. Donaldson, last half of week.

NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Rochester, N. Y.

All next week, Matinee Tuesday, Thurday and Saturday, the handsome and elegant.

KATE PURSELL.

Presenting Queen of the Plains. Seats seats now.

Women are Poised.

To Live in Misery and Pain. Mrs. Spur-cer Wright of this City, gives some Useful Hints to Ladies.

"Seventeen years ago we quite enjoyed full of pain at certain times, one particular and especially when we were in the maturing part in the left foot, which would relieve. But one day we were up and down the stairs, I would be up in bed, and the suffering would move me.
The displacement induced pain, and
continued, and became worse and worse.
I would sit in a chair, and the pain would increase.

"I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the right foot, which would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the left foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the right foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the left foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the right foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the left foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the right foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the left foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the right foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue in the left foot, which
would not let me sleep. I would lie
down, and the pain would move me.
I would get up, and the pain
would continue