Rosaries Sought For U. S. Troops

New York — (NC) — Stating that hundreds of calls for rosaries from chaplains in fighting zones are received every month, of the Military Ordinariate here, officials are appealing to civilians throughout the country to donate rosaries to be forwarded to fighting men.

Rosaries in duraspah will be put in order by members of the Chaplains' Aid Association and other volunteer groups.

Officials of the Ordinariate stressed that the demand for rosaries far exceeds the supply available for purchase because of the scarcity of metals and other materials.

Service Men, Women Crowd Paris Church for Missions

PARIS (NC) — For the first time since D-Day two regular Catholic missions have been held in this theater of war for members of the WAC stationed here and for officers and enlisted men. The missions were conducted in St. Joseph's Church near the Arc de Triomphe. Fathers Fathers are in charge of the church which is the Paris center for English-speaking Catholics.

More than 300 Wac's attended the women's mission. The mission for men saw the church crowded beyond capacity by over 600 officers and men who even sat on the altar steps. Mission preacher was the Rev. John G. Sabatka, C.M.R., formerly of Boston, now a chaplain in the U. S. Army.

The attendance of Mary united the human race from the limits of total death and complete bankruptcy from God.

Europe's Status To be Discussed At Women's Club

The situation in Europe, closing days of the war in Germany will be pictured and interpreted for members of the Catholic Women's Club on Monday evening at 8 when Dr. Aaron I. Abell talks on the "Most Recent Developments in Europe." Dr. Abell is a member of the History Department of Nazareth College.

The address will be preceded by a brief talk made by Frederick G. Bell, employment manager of the U. S. Employment Service who will be accompanied by two returned war veterans who will explain the need for more women in industry to shorten the war. They are Sgt. Roger Petrillo and Sgt. Joseph J. Carlo. Sgt. Petrillo, wearer of the Purple Heart, has been in the Marianas and Saipan for 21 months. Sgt. Carlo has completed 27 months in the Aleutians.
